Front Street Man Returns From Army

After being absent in the service of his country for about two years Walter E. Wiesendanger returned to the street this morning and assumed his farmer position at the Ryan Fruit company. Wiesendanger saw four months of service on the front during which time he took part in four big drives. He knows considerable about the Champagne Marne battle, Aisne-Marne battle, St. Miniel battle and Meuse-Argonne battle. The 148th field artillery, of which Wiesendanger was a member, served on the front from July 18, 1918, until the signing of the armistice. Altogether Wiesendanger scent 17 months abroad. After the armistice was signed his detachment crossed the Rhine into Germany as far as Coblenz. They entered Germany December 28 and left May 28. 'Mr. Wiesendanger will be pleased to have his old friends call on him.
