Virtue requires a rough and stormy passage; she will have either outward difficulties to wrestle with, or internal difficulties. —Montaigne.

Gypsy Dancers Feature at Hip

Female Impersonation Offered By Hal Johnson Makes Big Hit.

GOOD comedy, an interesting play and some fast dancing by six gypsies, three men and three women, and a sleight-of-hand performer, comprise the bill at the Hippodrome, which opened this afternoon. The featured performers are the "Whirlwind Gypsies," and they go through a remarkable variety of steps in rapid succession and with skill. They include a number of American steps in the exhibition.

The number that seemed to make the biggest hit was the female impersonation offered by Hal Johnson. The impersonation is excellent and Johnson and his assistants, George P. Watson and Florence Little, offer a fast comedy in "The Chaperones."

Bob Brown comes on dolled up like a fashion plate and monologues for a while, and without telling what he is up to and without bothering the monologue any to speak of, makes himself up as a blackface minstrel, and thus finishes his act. Ingalls and Duffield surround their singing and dancing and chatter with a little sketch which they call "A Palm Beach Honey-moon." Their patter is rather satirical, but it is lively and pleased the audience immensely.

The picture offering is Lillian Walker, noted as an animal trainer before she became a film star, in John Brock-bridge Ellis' "Pan" which the movie people have renamed "The Love Hunter." The picture follows the novel closely as to theme, but it naturally elaborates the lion taming incident in order to show off Miss Walker's abilities in this line.

Alice Brady Released

"His Bridal Night," Alice Brady's latest Select picture, is being distributed by the Select exchanges this week. This production was the last of the string of Select pictures for June, the others having been Constance Talmadge in "Happiness is a Mode," in which she is presented by Lewis J. Selznick, and Olive Thomas in "Upstairs and Down." Select pictures also announce for release in July Clara Kimball Young's latest picture, "The Better Wife." Miss Young is again seen as star at the head of her own company, being supported by Nigel Harrie, her last picture, which comes with the picture which includes eight of the best known players upon the screen. Miss Young's latest Select picture is a modern story of smart society, with the scenes laid on both sides of the English channel.

Cool, Fizzy Home-made Drink

Homemade Root Beer Costs Less Than 1c a Glass

It gives one no end of satisfaction to be able to say, "I made it myself," of a food or beverage that has been especially liked. And the delicious refreshing root beer that can be made at home from Hires Household Extract is a real cause for satisfaction—every one likes it.

First of all, it is pure, which means that one may drink as much of it as one wants. It is made from the juices of pure bark, berries, herbs and roots—sixteen in all—including ginger, which bark and wintergreen—not one substitute flavor among them!

Then, too, it is easy to make. All that is needed is a bottle of Hires Household Extract, sugar, and a yeast cake. Not only that, but it is surprisingly economical. One bottle of Hires Household Extract, costing but 25c, makes forty pints or eighty glasses—less than 1c a glass!

Get all your old bottles that have been accumulating in the cellar. If you haven't corks for them, you can buy some Hires specially designed airtight bottle stoppers from the grocer when you buy your Hires Household Extract.

You'll never again be without homemade root beer. It means a cool glass when you are tired and warm, a refreshing, delicious drink when the children come home, and a sparkling, tempting glass for the guest who drops in for a chat. It means a fizzy, wholesome drink for every occasion.—Adv.

Careless Shampooing Spoils the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is mulsified coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly and it leaves the scalp soft and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified coconut oil shampoo at any pharmacy, it's very cheap and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.—Adv.

VICKS VAPORUB YOUR BODYGUARD—50c, 60c, 1.00

MABEL NORMAND, one of our most popular motion picture actresses, is herewith presented in rather an unconventional pose, in which she is being talked to by her director, George Irving. The photographer didn't say just what the conversation was about, but apparently Mr. Irving is sincere in what he is saying, and Miss Normand is evidently a good listener.

"Dummy Cops" Looked Real To Rookie

No One Said a Word, but Laugh Finally Put New Man "Wise."

NEW YORK—Which was the greatest "dummy"? This is the question that is agitating the entire police establishment, from Commissioner Enright down to the newest recruit. It is a sad story for one rookie, but his associates are withholding his name. Only recently appointed, he went to the bureau of uniforms and equipment in his uniform to get some minor articles. As he entered the room he saw what he took to be five other members of the force standing rigidly at attention and he took his place at the end of the line. Minutes went by and the line still held firm. He did not notice a blink of an eye from any of the other five cops. Turning his head slightly he whispered into the ear of his neighbor and finally, in desperation, he nudged him in the side and leaned forward to speak. The lieutenant and the men on duty, who had been wondering how long the rookie would continue to stand in line, burst out laughing. The patrolman blushed and after taking a close view of one of the "cops" got his equipment and left the room as hurriedly as possible. The five "dummy cops" have been in the bureau for some time and are used as models for uniforms. They have a remarkably life-like appearance, but this occasion was the first time they were taken for real patrolmen.

Torrents of Rain Cause Floods and Many Leave Home

Denver, Colo., July 3.—(I. N. S.)—Globeville families were compelled to leave their homes at midnight last night on account of an extremely heavy rain all over the city. One house collapsed as a result of the flood. The rain started at 5:30 yesterday afternoon. The tramway lines to Globeville and other places were out of commission for three hours. In all about 1 1/2 inches fell in the city.

It is said that $1,500,000,000 has been saved the government through the action of the house in reducing annual appropriations during the first month of the special session.

den's rise on the stage has been a rapid one. She is a real American, having been born in Oklahoma, and has Pilgrim blood in her veins. Early in life Miss Varden removed with her parents to California, where she was reared, and where she played her first part at the age of 16. After a long training in that excellent school, stock work, she was discovered by Daniel Frohman, and was featured in spy play, "Seven Days Leave." Miss Varden was seen to decided advantage in New York last summer in William Faversham's production of "Allegiance," from which production she went to Mr. Skinner.

Build up your blood and strengthen your nerves with the system-building tonic that these Portland people used so successfully.

Market Street Resident Had Lost Her Appetite Gains Relief From Effects of Influenza

"I had Spanish influenza," says Mrs. George Binkley, who lives at No. 510 Lexington avenue, "and I was in a critical condition for a time. Pleurisy and bronchial trouble followed the disease and I was left in a very weakened and run-down condition. My only nourishment was milk and eggs. My strength seemed to have given out entirely and I was very thin and had little blood. My nerves were so shattered that I was on the verge of nervous prostration. Every little thing upset me and I couldn't bear to have anyone talk to me. "I had used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills several years ago with benefit and decided to try them again. I seemed to gain a little strength after the first box and continued the treatment. Gradually my blood became more abundant, the pleurisy left me and I feel like myself again. I certainly can recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

THE Stroller Notices

THAT Governor Olcott didn't make any particular hit with the newspaper workers by issuing a two-day holiday proclamation. That holidays may come and holidays may go, but news goes on forever. That we've picked the eighth round for the end of the fight. That we pick Dempsey to win. That 25 years ago tonight we stayed up all night to be sure to be awake to hear the dynamite salute on the hillside at sunrise. That we were so tired the next day that we went to sleep early in the afternoon and missed most of the fun. That in those good old days it was worth a five cent ticket and a flag to march in the parade, just behind the prominent citizens afoot and horseback. That our little kiddies today don't know but what a firecracker is something to be eaten as soon as it gets cool. That nearly everyone seems to be planning a picnic party for the Fourth. That there's a whole lot of satisfaction in eating new potatoes out of your own garden. That the radishes are going to seed. That some men are in the same fix.

WOMEN! DRY CLEAN THINGS AT HOME

Try it! For a few cents you can dry clean everything. Save five to ten dollars quickly by dry cleaning everything in the home with gasoline that would be ruined by soap and water—suits, coats, waists, silks, lace, gloves, shoes, furs, draperies, rugs—everything! Place a gallon or more of gasoline in a dishpan or washbottle, then put in the things to be dry cleaned, then wash them with Solvite soap. Shortly afterward things come out looking like new. Nothing fades, shrinks or wrinkles. Do not attempt to dry clean without Solvite soap. This gasoline soap is the secret of all dry cleaning. A package of Solvite soap containing directions for home dry cleaning, costs little at any drug store. Dry clean outdoors or away from flame.—Adv.
