

STEPS ARE TAKEN TO TRY EX-KAISER

Bonar Law Says No Formal Representations Have Yet Been Made to Holland, However.

London, July 7.—(U. P.)—Andrew Bonar Law, spokesman for the government, announced in the house of commons today that no formal representations had yet been made to Holland with regard to extradition of the former kaiser. He added, however, that steps were being taken in that direction.

The Dutch prince consort, visiting at Berge, was interviewed by the Daily News correspondent. He was quoted as saying:

"We have given our hospitality and cannot meddle in these things. Germany has signed an undertaking to deliver the former emperor. If Germany makes demands on us we will be obliged to yield."

It was expected today that the government would be bombarded with questions in the house of commons this afternoon with regard to the trial of the emperor. Reports from French and American sources indicating that Premier Lloyd George's announcement was a complete surprise, have stirred up both parliament and public.

In the meantime a warm controversy was developing over the expediency of the trial. Senator Henry Dales announced today he would ask whether communications had passed yet between Holland and the allies with regard to extradition. If they had, he said, he wanted to know the results.

Dutch Government Remains Silent

The Hague, July 7.—(U. P.)—The Dutch government flatly refuses to issue a statement on its position in the event the allies demand extradition of the former kaiser. The press and public do not believe such a demand is to be expected, for in their view it would be illegal. It is not expected here that extradition will be granted, as Dutch treaties and the Dutch law forbid such action and the government has stated frequently that it will act according to law and treaty.

Daughter of Late Justice F. A. Moore Passes in Salem

Salem, July 7.—Funeral for Miss Callista Moore, daughter of the late Justice F. A. Moore of the Oregon supreme court, who died at her home here Sunday afternoon, will be held Tuesday at 2 p. m. with Rev. Thomas S. Anderson of the Presbyterian church in charge. Miss Moore's death is attributed to influenza poisoning, contracted while nursing an influenza patient. Before coming to Salem at the time Justice Moore took his seat on the supreme bench in 1892, Miss Moore resided at St. Helena. A sister, Mrs. Frank Miles of Portland, and a brother, Arthur H. Moore of Salem, survive her.

Planing Mill Man Of Eugene Is Dead

Eugene, July 7.—George Midgely, 58 years old, for 23 years owner and operator of the first planing mill in Eugene, died here Saturday. For many years he was active in the business life of the city. He was the owner of several business blocks and other local properties. He sold his mill to S. B. Schmiedling and David M. Graham of this city a few days ago. He is survived by his wife.

Cavell and Fryatt Slayers Will Be Brought to Trial

London, July 7.—(U. P.)—Prominent German allies alleged to have been implicated in the murders of Nurse Edith Cavell and Captain Fryatt, in Belgium, probably will be brought to England within the next few days and lodged in the Tower of London, the Daily Express states today.

Other prisoners intended for the tower include commandants of German prison camps, responsible for the deliberate murder of defenseless British soldiers, it was stated by the Daily Express.

These trials are expected to open in August if the preliminary arrangement can be completed in that time.

In commenting upon the offers of Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, former German chancellor; Field Marshal von Hindenburg, former chief of staff of German army and Prince Eitel Friedrich to stand trial for the ex-kaiser, the Daily Express said:

"It is impossible to take these attempts at vicarious culpability seriously. If Germany had won the war would Bethmann-Hollweg, Hindenburg, the sons of the ex-kaiser have received much sympathy from the 'All Highest' if they had sought to prove their responsibility for the war? That is an index to the amount they deserve."

SECRET GOVERNMENT DURING WAR; CHARGE OF CHAIRMAN GRAHAM

House Committee Says That Body Appointed by Wilson Disregarded Law.

Washington, July 7.—(U. P.)—The United States had a "secret government" during the war, which functioned in disregard of law, Chairman Graham of the special house committee on war department expenditures, charged in a statement today.

Graham characterized as the "secret government" the advisory commission of the Council of National Defense, composed of Hollis Godfrey, Howard E. Coffin, Bernard M. Baruch, Samuel Crompter, Franklin H. Martin, Julius Rosenwald and Daniel Willard.

Charges made by Graham were: That the president disregarded the intent of congress to make the commission purely advisory and the members real executives.

The commission allowed interested parties to fix prices of war supplies and violated trust laws.

A press censorship was planned by the commission at the suggestion of Philip Patchin, state department.

The commission designed a system of food control and selected Herbert Hoover as director.

Such "unprecedented and illimitable powers were assumed by the commission" that several cabinet members protested.

The work of the commission was such that federal bureaus were bidding against each other, thus increasing the price of supplies.

The commission had secret meetings four months before the United States entered the war to discuss war plans.

Woman Called Dead May Now Recover

Paris, Texas.—Relatives of Mrs. F. P. Baker the other day put away their mourning while making arrangements for her funeral. Following a report from Stratford, Okla., that she was dead there another message came saying Mrs. Baker "suddenly came to life." Physicians had pronounced her dead but later discovered she was breathing. It is now believed she will recover.

Home Addresses of Soldiers Killed By Bolsheviks Given

Washington, July 7.—(U. P.)—Home addresses of American soldiers killed or wounded in a Bolshevik attack at Romanovka, Siberia, June 25, were given today by the war department. The names include:

KILLED
Dart A. Balch, Turlock, Cal.
SLIGHTLY WOUNDED
Corporal George W. Starham, 410 Warren avenue, Butte, Mont.
Private Louis G. Camini, Stockton, Cal.

General Pershing has issued orders that the censorship of soldiers' mail and telegrams be abolished immediately.

Explosives Blow Up Company's Building; Strikers Arrested

Butte, Montana, July 7.—High explosives, placed in the entrance to offices of the Anaconda Copper Mining company's building here today, wrecked the entrance of the building and caused several thousand dollars loss within a radius of a block. The explosion marked the second day of the Mooney strike. No connection has been established by officials as yet between the explosion and the strike, but W. P. Peoples and John Dugan, strikers, were arrested and released on bonds of $150 each. They are alleged to be openly in sympathy with such tactics.

Large Allied Loans Will Mature Soon

Allied government loans outstanding at present are $1,091,237,000, against a total of $1,478,123,000 on January 1, 1918, a decrease of $386,886,000 in the last 18 months. During the current year and the next several large issues will mature. The most important one maturing in the near future is the American Foreign Securities company's three-year 5 per cent collateral notes, which are due August 1, 1919, amounting to $94,510,000. This corporation was organized in July, 1916, for the purpose of loaning the government of France $100,000,000. On November 1, 1919, the bonds of the City of Bordeaux, City of Marseilles and the City of Lyons, each for $12,000,000 and all bearing 6 per cent, will fall due. These loans were floated November 1, 1916. They are a direct obligation on the cities issuing them, but are not secured by mortgages. They are, however, the only external loans issued by those cities.

Will Address Credit Men

O'Brien Atkinson of the New York office of the mercantile agency of R. G. Dun & Co., an expert on credits, is at present in the city and will address the credit men of Portland at a dinner given at the crystal room, Benson hotel, at 6 o'clock this evening.
