Drawing upon the prowess of two male riends and a son, W. E. Robbins, whose wife is said to be suing him for divorce, was routed from the family home at 6803 Forty-sixth avenue southeast on Saturday under the combined attack of Mrs. Robbins and George Goff, her son by a previous marriage. The family riot, as reported by Pa-trolman P. C. Anderson, who was called to investigate, started when Robbins and his aldes entered the Robbins home through a window and were met by Mrs. Robbins and her son. The young man is said by the patrolman to have been felled by a blow apparently delivered with brass knuckles. Thereupon Robbins is said to have retreated. Robbins is a realty dealer with an office at 6611 Foster road, and his wife is said to seek control of his property in the divorce action, which is though to have inspired Robbins' attack. Unless Robbins sought to eject his wife from the home, there is not a known motive for his action. Officer Anderson declares.
