

Miss Citron and Dr. Ralph Falk To Wed July 23

The marriage of Miss Marion Citron to Dr. Ralph Falk of Boise, Idaho, will be one of the important social events of next week. Wednesday evening, July 23, has been chosen by the bride-elect for the wedding date. The service will be read by Dr. John B. Wiss at 7 o'clock in the room of the Benson hotel. Miss Carol Citron, sister of the bride-elect, has been chosen as maid of honor, and Lee Falk, brother of the bridegroom, will be best man.

Since the announcement of the engagement a short time ago, Miss Citron has been the inspiration for much entertainment, as she is a girl of unusual popularity. This week, however, she has accepted no invitations for her entertainment. Miss Citron will leave Portland following her marriage to make her home in Boise, where her fiancé is one of the most prominent surgeons in the state of Idaho.

The July dancing party of the O.W. R. & N. Employees' club will be a moonlight excursion on the floating pavilion "Swan" on the evening of July 18. In addition to a delightful ride on the Willamette, the excursionists will dance at will in the open and be given an opportunity to enjoy the cool river breezes. The boat leaves the foot of Jefferson street at 8:30.

MRS. CLYDE LEONARD WALTER, a recent bride, who has come to Portland from Ohio. Mrs. J. C. Super (Myrtle Emogen McClellan), whose marriage was an event of Wednesday evening.

MRS. CLYDE LEONARD WALTER

Grove Photos

their home. Mr. Walter has recently received his discharge from service overseas with the 316th sanitary train of the 31st division, during which he was stationed in the Argonne and at Lys-Scheldt river in Belgium. Mrs. Walter was formerly Miss Katherine M. Leslie and made her home in Ohio.

Mrs. Donald M. Kirby of 600 Mountain boulevard, Portland Heights, has as her guest her sister, Miss Gertrude Morrison of Bryn Mawr. Miss Morrison is an artist of note and has studied much abroad and has been a lecturer on art subjects in New York city. Miss Morrison is now attached to the faculty of the art department of Bryn Mawr. She is expected to spend the summer in Portland.

Miss Mabel J. Wild and Frank J. Cattuzo, both of Seaside, were married Saturday afternoon at the Methodist Episcopal church in Astoria, the Rev. A. Heist officiating. Only immediate relatives of the bride were present. The bride is a former Portland girl and a graduate of Lincoln high school, and has many friends here. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wild. The bridegroom is employed at the S. P. & S. depot in Seaside. The young couple will make their home in Seaside.

Miss Florence L. Smith became the bride of Chester C. Kenney on Wednesday, at the residence of the Rev. J. Bowersox, who officiated. The service was read in the presence of a few close friends of the bridal couple. They will make their home in Portland.

groom's attendant. The bride was dressed in white satin with crepe georgette and silver sequin. Her flowers were white roses. Miss Super's gown was of yellow georgette over pink silk. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Super departed for an extended honeymoon trip.

Peter A. Porter circle, Ladies of G. A. P., will give a "500" party at Baker hall, corner Killingsworth and Albina avenues, Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde L. Walter have arrived in Portland from Ohio to make their home.

WHO DINE HERE DINE WELL

Whether you drop in at noon-time for a lunch with a customer or a business associate, or come at the day's end for dinner with your family, you will enjoy to the full the well-prepared food, the cheerful environment, the trained service, at this famed grill.

Noon Lunch 11 to 2, 50c

Daily Table d'Hote Dinner, 5:30 to 9, $1.35

Dancing

Service a la Carte 11 A. M. to 1 A. M.

Sunday Dinner 5:30 to 9, $1.25

Fine Orchestral Concert Sunday Evenings

Ye Oregon Grill

Broadway at Stark

Miss McCusker And Omer Mills To Be Married

ANNOUNCEMENT was made last week of the engagement of Miss Helen McCusker and Omer Mills. Miss McCusker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCusker of this city. She is a graduate of the Portland Academy and is a member of the Junior League. During the war period Miss McCusker was active in war work and had devoted special attention to the work of the War Camp Community service and to the Red Cross Motor corps. Mr. Mills is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Mills of Wall, S. D. He was in service with the machine gun battalion during the recent war and held the rank of first lieutenant. The wedding will probably be an event of early August, and the young couple will make their home in South Dakota.

Dr. Byron E. Miller gave an alumni dinner Tuesday at the Imperial hotel. His guests were Mrs. Miller, Dr. and Mrs. H. F. Staples, Dr. H. D. Champlin of Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. Alice Bliss of Salt Lake City, who is the house guest of Dr. and Mrs. Miller and Dr. A. L. Canfield. The doctors are all graduates of the Cleveland Honorable College, and all members of the American Institute of Homeopathy of which Dr. Miller is a past president.

The Cleveland party witnessed them as they were delighted with the climate of Oregon and the beauty of the highways surrounding the city.

Marguerite Camp Coterie club held its last meeting at the home of Mrs. Blanche Hoffman, 565 Mulberry street. Luncheon was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Flynn, Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Wilson. Mrs. Ingold, Mrs. Donnelly and Mrs. Wierckien were prize winners in the different contests. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Katherine Fairfax, 700 East Ankeny street, Thursday, at 10 o'clock. All resident and sojourning Royal Neighbors and friends are welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sparks were hosts for a delightful card party at their home in East Eleventh street north on Tuesday evening, honoring a number of their friends. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Singer, Mr. and Mrs. C. Lamoreux, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Doyle, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Helms, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ladd, Mrs. N. E. Bourg, Mrs. De Fountaine, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sparks.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Delahunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Ross and Miss Lucile Delahunt enjoyed a delightful motor trip to Tacoma, where they went to attend the automobile races. After a couple of days spent in Tacoma at the Tacoma hotel, they motored to Seattle, spending a few days at the Washington hotel.

Winslow Meade circle No. 7, Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic, will postpone their regular card party and will meet at the home of Mrs. Jennie Barnes at 2150 East Gilman street, (Montavilla car to Eighty-sixth street) on Monday for a basket luncheon.

Miss Maude I. Meyer and Frank A. Martin were married on Thursday at their new home on Minnesota avenue, the Rev. J. Bowersox officiating. In the presence of a number of friends and relatives of the bridal couple.

Mrs. A. T. Bonney and daughter, Marion, left Thursday night for San Francisco and Santa Rosa, Cal., where they will visit Mrs. Bonney's mother. They will be away from Portland six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Amme and daughter have opened their cottage for the summer season at Seaview, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Morris and son Robert will spend the summer with them.

Miss Irene Evelyn Joyce became the bride of Lew Elwyn Cornell on Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Joyce on Nineteenth street north. The service was read by Dr. E. H. Pence, pastor of Westminster Presbyterian church, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bridal couple. The bride was dressed in white crepe de chine, with the tulle veil held in place with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses and white sweet peas. Miss Katherine Hammer, as maid of honor, was dressed in electric blue georgette crepe. Theodore Joyce, brother of the bride, attended the bridegroom. An informal reception followed the ceremony and was attended by about 150 guests. Alfred Wright presided at the piano while refreshments were served. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Joyce of 208 East Nineteenth street north. Mr. Cornell is the son of Mrs. E. W. Phillips of 803 East Yamhill street and grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Colburn Barrell, pioneers of Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Cornell will make their home in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. William Blinding of Milwaukee, Wis., are visitors in the city and are the inspiration for informal entertaining. On Thursday they were the guests of honor on a motor trip up Columbia river highway.

Winslow Meade circle, Ladies of the G. A. R., will have a social dinner at the home of Mrs. Jennie Barnes, 2150 East Gilman street, on Monday. Take car to Eighty-sixth street.

Dr. and Mrs. Roy McDaniell and Miss Dorothy Hunnaker have taken the residence of Dr. Robert Karkeet on Buena Vista, Kings Heights, for the summer months.

Miss Gertrude Wilson, who has been visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. A. S. Guit, in Honolulu for the past eight months, has returned to her home in Portland.

John A. McQuinn left Portland Wednesday for Seattle to sail for Latouche, Alaska. He will be away from the city six weeks.

The Iowa state society will hold its annual picnic at Laurelhurst park Monday afternoon, July 21.

Miss Rose Helen German became the bride of Owen Hollenbeck on Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. German, on Upper Drive. The service was read in the presence of about 100 friends of the bridal couple at 5:30 o'clock. Miss Velma Gouley, dressed in white satin and carrying a wreath of sweet peas, was bridesmaid, and Charles Curtin was the bridegroom's only attendant. The bride was dressed in white satin elaborated with silver lace and her flowers were a shower bouquet of opelia roses and sweet peas. Following the ceremony a wedding reception was held, after which the young couple left for a trip to Victoria, B. C.

Miss Adelaide Smith and niece, Mary Reynolds of Berkeley, Cal., are visiting at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Robert C. Wright, for a few weeks. After graduating from Wellesley college, Miss Smith traveled for several years in Europe and Africa. She was the founder of the Wellesley school in Berkeley and is a teacher in Miss Murlison's private school for girls in San Francisco. Mrs. Wright was hostess for an informal tea in honor of her sister on Thursday afternoon, the guests including a number of Miss Smith's former associates at Wellesley.

Of interest to Portland friends is the announcement of the marriage of Lieutenant Milton Carlson of Magfield to Miss Meg Carruthers, daughter of Brigadier General R. A. Carruthers of Surrey, Eng., which occurred June 16, in England. Lieutenant Carlson was a student at the Marshfield high school and later entered Annapolis, where he gained his commission. He was in service in European waters during the war and only recently returned from Archangel, where he was in service with the American forces.

Mrs. A. B. Richeson is in San Francisco for an indefinite stay so that she may visit her husband, Major Richeson, U. S. A., who is still confined at Letterman General hospital recovering from a severe wound received in service with the Ninety-first division in France.

Pink ramblers roses and potted plants, arranged artistically about the room, made a charming setting for the wedding of Miss Mildred Woodruff, who became the bride of Lynn Pratt, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Woodruff, on Mallory avenue on Wednesday evening. The service was read by the Rev. Arthur L. Hutchison in the presence of about 60 of the friends and relatives of the bridal couple. Miss Elvira Thurlow, dressed in yellow organdy and carrying a bouquet of lavender sweet peas, was maid of honor and Fred Packwood was best man. The bride was charming in a smart frock of white crepe georgette elaborated with lace and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and Cecil Brunner buds. The bridegroom was sung by Leah Perkins Wyatt. Following the ceremony an informal reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Farr left immediately following the ceremony for a brief trip to mountain resorts after which they will go to Elma, Wash., where Mr. Farr is to be principal of the high school for the coming year. Both young people are graduates of the University of Oregon and have a wide circle of friends in the city. Mrs. Farr is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority and Mr. Farr is a Delta Tau Delta man.

Today will be the occasion of the annual picnic and reunion of past and present residents of Josephine county and their friends at Laurelhurst park. A business session will be held at 1 o'clock and lunch will be served at 2 o'clock. Coffee, cream and sugar will be furnished. Those attending are asked to bring well-filled lunch baskets and to come and renew old acquaintances.

Announcement was made of the engagement of Miss Wida G. Parker to Victor H. Roman at a party given recently at the home of Miss Parker. The guest list included 38 relatives and friends of the young couple. Miss Berche Jones of Hillsboro entertained with musical selections.

Mrs. Forrest Fisher was hostess on Wednesday evening for an informal dancing party at her home, honoring the Misses Louise and Elizabeth Boyd who will leave July 17 with their father to make their home in Chicago.

Mrs. William N. Akers has returned from a fortnight's stay at the Akers ranch near Mosier.

Spokane, Wash., July 12.—The wedding of Miss Helen McCormack of Spokane and George T. Colton of Portland will take place Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McCormack, 1021 Eighth avenue, Spokane. The attendants will be Miss Marion Griebel and Miss Gretchen Colton of Portland as bridesmaids, with Mr. and Mrs. Philip Brooks of Spokane as best man and matron of honor. J. K. McCormack is vice president and general manager of the Union Securities company, which operates over 20 banks in the inland Empire. The McCormacks are an old Scotch family that settled in Salem, Or., and who now make their home in Spokane.

Mrs. Haddon Manners and D. V. Manners are here from Underwood, Wash. They have joined Mrs. W. S. Manners of Montclair, N. J., and O. M. Hummel of Bloomfield, N. J., for a visit at the Hotel Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. James T. Barron, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Fitzpatrick and two children and Miss Anna Munly left Seattle on Saturday for Alaska, where they will spend the summer months at Funt Bay.

Mrs. Stuart Zimmerman was hostess for a charming tea at her home in Melrose Drive on Tuesday honoring her sister, Mrs. Hal Davis, who is in Portland, from Nashville, Tenn.

Marjorie Joy McCallum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. McCallum of San Francisco, is a guest in Portland at the home of Miss Bernadine Kane of Irvington.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Nelmeyer of St. Paul, Minn., have taken a house at 180 Laurelhurst avenue and will be at home at that address after July 25.

Mrs. William B. Sinnott and little son, Billy, returned this week from a fortnight's stay at Mount Hood and nearby mountain resorts.

Dr. Kenneth A. J. Mackenzie and Miss Jean Mackenzie returned to Portland last week after five weeks' stay at Del Monte and in Yosemite valley.

Mrs. Clarence Davis of San Francisco is the guest of her mother, Mrs. W. O. Fouch, for a fortnight.

New Merchandise Makes Still More Attractive

The Semi-Annual Clearance Sale

—at Liebes'

A Propitious Beginning for the Second Week Is This First Big Wash Dress Sale of the Season in Which

350 Wash Dresses

Are Featured at $11.75

In the various lots that are included there are usually but one or two of a kind. Many are displayed tomorrow for the first time—most recent arrivals from the east. Values that are easily worth double the price asked are frequent. Choosing will be easy from the wide variety of

Crisp Organdies
Cool Pretty Nets
Figured and Plain Voiles
Checked and Plain Gingham
All Popular Summer Shades Including White

The Dresses at $23.75, $33.75 and $39.75

Include Dresses and Frocks for Street and Afternoon Wear

The assortment of materials is very fortunate for a clearance sale, including as it does such wanted fabrics as tricotine, georgette in figured, printed, beaded or embroidered patterns, crepe de chine, plain dotted or figured, foulards, taffetas, serge, and jersey. You will find one or more dresses to exactly suit your needs, and the economy of buying now should not be overlooked.

Sports Apparel at Clearance Prices

Sports and Tailored Suits

$18.50, $22.50, $24.50, $28.50

Aside from the wool jersey and linen sport suits, one may choose from these groups smart serge, moire, tulle and tricotine suits in tailored, semi-tailored, belted and box models which have been greatly reduced in price to insure immediate disposal. Colors of navy, tan, and most all the sport shades in jersey are shown. In many instances there are but one and two of a kind, and the sizes are broken.

Sport Coats, Capes, Dolmans

$19.75, $26.75, $37.75

Wool jersey, baronette satins, Paul-ettes, velvet, faille, velour, serge, tricotine, silverstone, and many novelties are the wide range of fabrics these wraps are featured in. At these reduced prices selling will be rapid. Sport shades as well as navy, tan, henna and rookie are in favor. Many are fancy silk lined.

300 Tub Skirts for Vacation And Outing Wear

$2.50 $3.95 $5.95

of tricotine, bedford cord, pique and whipcord, also many novelty materials. Smart belts, patch or slash pockets, and pearl buttons are the trimmings, and at these prices women will surely take advantage of the Clearance and buy two or three skirts in various styles. Assorted waist measures.

New Lingerie Blouses

Clearance Price $3.95

Graceful blouses of polka dot, dimity, finished with frill of white batiste. Semi-tailored models of checked voile, vest collar and cuffs of white voile. Round neck, collarless models; square-neck lace-trimmed models; high and V necks. Tailored or lace trimmed styles.

Overblouses

Of the two models illustrated, one is an oyster white Ragtex elaborately trimmed with handmade cluny lace. $39.50

The other blouse is of white net, beautifully embroidered and beaded, and finished at waist $29.50 with narrow ribbon.

Smart Summer

See the Windows
Doors Open at 9 A. M.

H. Liebes & Co.

Established 1864 FURS
149-151 BROADWAY

No Approvals
No Exchanges
No C. O. D.'s
No Mail Orders

Photos Enlarged

Portraits made from any photo in sepia, black, white and water color. Prompt service. Moderate prices.

Don't give your photos to any agents or solicitors, but bring them to our studio, as we do not employ any agents.

Bruno Art Studio

406 1/2 Morrison Street, Bet. 10th and 11th

Store Your Winter Furs

Steady, cold temperature, as in the natural habitat of the fur-bearing animals, is essential to the proper storage of your winter furs.

Liebes' vaults, maintained constantly at 20 degrees below freezing, are especially constructed for the storage of highest grade furs. Your furs have the attention of EXPERT FURRIERS. Phone Marshall 785 or A-6141 and our auto will call.

Sprightly Styles in Diminutive FURS For Summer

Fascinating little neck pieces and chokers in such appropriate furs as Mole, Sable, Squirrel, Stone - Marten, Mink, Hudson Seal, Kolinsky, Etc.

Furs Re-styled at Summer Rates

H. Liebes & Co.

Established 1864 FURS
149-151 BROADWAY