Tabby Strayed? He May Be in The City Pound

If your favorite tabby does not appear at home for a spare place of liver any more, he may be in the Oregon Humane society's pound.

A report by President Albert Cooperall shows that on July 7 there were on hand 224 cats of the 26 picked up, 24 are still on hand.

The report shows that among other stray animals one horse was still on hand, the other five of the six that were in the pound during the month have been redeemed.

A total of 68 dogs were in the pound during the month, and of these, one escaped, six were sold, 12 were killed and 13 are still on hand.

Mostly stray numerous cruelty cases, most of them being for cruelty to horses, overworking or underfeeding. Many whips were seized from drivers and a couple of slingshots was taken from young boys who were killing birds.

Five Years' Service Together Terminated For Marine Brothers

Sergeants Owen A. and Charles R. Griffith of the marine recruiting station, after five years spent together in the service, have been separated.

Owen A. Griffith was in charge of a station in Eugene and Sergeant Charles was at Pendleton.

The Griffith brothers have had a series of lively experiences starting when they left home one night and walked 14 miles to the railroad station, enlisting at Los Angeles the next day.

They were for three months at Mars Island, and then they cruised on the U. S. S. South Dakota in Mexican waters. In 1915 they served in the honor guard at the fair in San Francisco.

From there they returned to Mexico, later going to Santo Domingo. There Charles R. Griffith was one of 22 men chosen to seize a fort which was in the possession of 200 rebels.

The party entered the fort after 30 minutes of fighting, with no men killed and none wounded. Charles Griffith received a commendatory letter from the secretary of the navy for his participation in this engagement.

Marine Corps Wants Aviation Recruits And Also Mechanics
The marine corps aviation section is open for enlistments. Applications may be made to any recruiting station or postmaster.

Transportation to Portland will be paid upon passing the physical examination. Recruits are also needed for service as gas engine mechanics, machine shop mechanics, electricians, wireworkers, woodworkers, welders and blacksmiths.

Training is given at the expense of the government, and mechanics who entered at the beginning of the war with qualifications allowing them to earn only $2 or $3 a day in civil life are now receiving $10 to $12 a day in military life.

Further information may be obtained from the United States Marine Corps recruiting station in the Panama building.

Montrose Park to Be Opened Today; Has Many Features

Montrose park, "45 minutes from Broadway," will open to the public today under the sponsorship of Montrose Ringer, Portland dancing master, as a pleasure resort for dancing and picnic parties.

A two story pavilion, the upper floor finished in hard maple for dancing and the lower floor equipped for bathers, is the central building in the park and will be surrounded by a constant zone, according to Mr. Ringer.

The park contains 13 acres, is two miles from Troutdale, is equipped with modern park facilities, such as an electric lighting system and constantly running well water. There will be no admission. Picnic tables and fireplaces have been provided. Invitations to clubs and societies to make use of the park have been distributed by Mr. Ringer.

More than 100 names were submitted to Mr. Ringer in a 245 price contest, but a group of his friends applied to select the best name rejected all and named the park themselves.

Buy Silverware Now
The scarcity of high-class silverware, both plated and sterling, should prompt many to make early selection.

From every authentic source comes word of an impending shortage of silverware for some time to come. In fact, that shortage to some extent already exists.

Many leading manufacturers of silverware are even at this time refusing to accept orders. These very manufacturers predict that for the next seven years at least the price of silverware will not be lower than at present.

The fact that so much silver has been withdrawn for coinage purposes by the nations of the world accounts for this condition. We advise early selection on the part of those who have given some thought to selection of silverware, be it sterling or plated.

Our various lines at this time offer satisfactory assortment for timely selection. The Popular "PRINCESS" Pattern in Silver-Plated Ware is Popularly Priced.
