

A WOMAN WHO HIRES AND DIRECTS 10,000 MEN AND WOMEN

HER name is Henrita F. Ried, and 10,000 men and women are under her direction. Imagine it—a woman managing director of one of the largest organizations in the world and vice-president of all its subsidiary companies! A woman consulted on all the company's affairs! A woman who moves quietly, unassumingly among men of Big Business, asking no favors but commanding respect and admiration for her unusual ability.

The rise of Henrita Ried sounds like a fairy story. How did this brilliant Kentucky girl get her start? What is there in this wonderful woman's story which will help you to make a greater success in your present position?

You will find the answers to your questions in Helen Christine Bennett's inspiring account in Pictorial Review for August. She calls it "A Woman of Big Business." It is another of Pictorial Review's big fact-stories of successful American women.
