FOREST GROVE HIT BY FIRE THAT DOES $80,000 DAMAGE

Blaze Breaks Out About Noon on Sunday, and Many Buildings of Business Blocks Are Razed.

PORTLAND EQUIPMENT SENT

Fire Fighters From Neighboring Towns Are Rushed to Scene in Great Effort to Stop Flames.

Forest Grove, July 21.—Fire of unknown origin completely wiped out $80,000 worth of business property here Sunday afternoon, and the whole business section would have been destroyed but for the heroic fighting of the fire departments of Forest Grove, Hillsboro and Cornelius.

The greatest losses were suffered by the destruction of the Odd Fellows hall, valued at $20,000, the First Congregational church, $15,000; M. S. Allen's hardware stock, in Odd Fellows building, $15,000; Roger's City library, $5000; Dr. C. L. Large's brick building, occupied by Taylor Brothers' garage, $5000, and the O. M. Sanford second-hand store, $3000.

SPREADS WITH WIND

The fire is supposed to have started back of the Sanford second-hand store. Mrs. Ernest Brown said she noticed a small fire burning there on her return from church about 12:30 o'clock. Shortly after that the fire bell sounded and the whole building was ablaze. Flames, driven by a high northwest wind, spread with lightning rapidity over the roofs of the buildings from the Odd Fellows' hall to the city library at the corner of First avenue and College street and leaped across to the Congregational church on the Church square.

The local fire fighters and their brothers from Hillsboro and Cornelius, and many service men fought with the heroism of the trenches, and Tony Mort, a lad of 17 years and a member of the local department, barely escaped death through suffocation and is in bed threatened with pneumonia.

BUILDINGS BURN RAPIDLY

So dry were the buildings from the long arid weather, that the fire, fed by oil in the hardware store and gasoline in the garage, could not be checked with water.

While the Roger's library and Congregational church were in a mass of flames without, men were busy saving the most valuable books and the furniture.

Other lossese were:

Dr. C. L. Large bazaar building, occupied by the K. N. Staehr music house and A. Bryan, photographer.

The Staehr stock was practically all saved, but Bryant lost his photographic supplies and equipment valued at $1000.

The Belle Darling photographic studio equipment $1000, and the J. N. Hoffman building, which it occupies, $1000.

The Wheelock Marsh building $1000, and the millinery stock of Mrs. C. H. Adams, which occupied the same building.

The Jacob Shearer building $500, occupied by Thomas Littlehales, real estate.

COTTAGE STREET LOSSES

On College street were destroyed the Thompson property, formerly occupied by H. Wells; a feed store, the A. B. Thomas' three-story dwelling $3000, which was formerly owned by A. R. Leabo of Portland, and the K. N. Staehr bungalow, loss $2500.

On Main street, adjoining the Sanford building, the stable of James Tumbleson was destroyed and two mules were burned to death. The M. Petersen building, also occupied by Mr. Sanford, was destroyed.

Fires were started all over the business section by falling embers, and flames broke out back of the city hall, imperiling that part of the city. On Pacific avenue fires were started in the Schultz building and the Cady repair shop. All of the plate glass windows in the Caples building on Main street and First avenue were broken by the heat from the Odd Fellows' hall.

Mrs. Louis Humburg of this city made a record run in her machine to Cornelius and brought the firemen and their equipment here. Firemen were summoned from Portland, but by the time they had arrived the flames were controlled.

HISTORIC CHURCH BURNS

The Congregational church was erected in 1904. The congregation was organized over 60 years ago and was one of the pioneer churches of the West, being closely identified with Pacific university, located here, and which was founded in 1847. Last March the fiftieth anniversary of the receiving of a class of 12 into church membership was celebrated. Four living members who belonged to that class are: Cyrus Walker, the oldest living white person born in Oregon, whose home is at Albany; J. D. Bates of Gaston; J. E. Walker, Sheaw China and Sarah Lynch, all of Portland. This church has had many eminent members and pastors. The present pastor is Walter Blair, who came recently from Minneapolis.

Among victims of the fire who did not carry insurance were Dr. C. L. Large, O. M. Sanford, former mayor; and Belle Darling. Others had their property protected by insurance. The library building was a gift to the city by Mrs. G. O. Rogers, for years a resident of China, and who is well known in this state.

Dr. C. L. Large will begin next Monday the erection of a new brick garage for the Taylor brothers, formerly of the Palace garage of Portland. The Odd Fellows will soon decide whether or not they will rebuild. M. S. Allen, the hardware man who occupied the building, will resume business.

FORMER STUDENTS OF IOWA STATE COLLEGE ENTERTAIN DEAN HERE

Dr. and Mrs. Stanton Guests at Banquet and Are Taken on Trip Over Columbia Highway.

The past, present and future of Iowa State college of Ames, Iowa, were happily and interestingly discussed Saturday evening at the banquet given by the Oregon chapter of the Iowa State College Alumnae in the blue room of the Hotel Portland in honor of E. W. Stanton, dead of the college, and Mrs. Stanton, who are returning East after a two months' visit in California. Covers were placed for 30. E. E. Faville, president of the chapter, presided.

Dean Stanton was graduated from the college with the first class, 1872, and since that time he has been continuously connected with the institution, first as professor of mathematics and, later as dean of the junior college. He has seen the college grow from a very small institution with an income of $30,000 to an income of $1,800,000 which, though it seems large, is not sufficient to meet the rapidly growing demands.

HIGH IDEALS UPHELD

In his address Dean Stanton spoke of the very high character of the training given young men and women at the college, declaring that the highest ideals are at all times upheld. "God forbid that Iowa shall ever be a rich man's resort, a loafer's paradise or a Bolshevik camp," he said. There are on the service flag of the college 200 stars and during the period of the war 117 of these were changed to gold.

Those attending the banquet were: H. M. Scott, '76; Mrs. L. A. Gearhart, '75, Astoria; Mrs. Hannah Cadwell, '75, Hillsboro; I. A. Williams, '98; A. A. Kruel, '08; Dr. C. J. McCusker, '98; Mrs. C. J. McCusker, '99; E. E. Faville, '93; Mrs. E. E. Faville, '94; Fred L. Kent, '93; C. C. Buchanan, '03; Dr. Howard Garberson, '04, Miles City, Mont.; George B. Guthrie, '06; Mrs. George B. Guthrie, '05; Dr. V. H. Lytle, '03; Mrs. Lytle, Salem; O. L. LeFevre, '06; Mrs. Le Fevre; H. M. Parks, '03; Mrs. H. M. Parks, '02; M. L. Merritt, '04; Mrs. M. L. Merritt, '04; R. A. Olmstead, '12, and Mrs. R. A. Olmstead, '13, Dundee; Miss Edith Read, '17; Harry K. Porter, '00, and Mrs. Harry K. Porter, '01, Vancouver, Wash.

HIGHWAY TRIP TAKEN

At the conclusion of the banquet Dean Stanton was presented with a copy of Samuel Lancaster's book of the Columbia River Highway. On Sunday Dean and Mrs. Stanton were taken on a trip up the highway. A picnic luncheon was served at Eagle creek. Today Mr. Faville is entertaining with a luncheon for Dean Stanton at the Hazelwood. During their stay in the city Dr. and Mrs. Stanton were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Guthrie. They will leave today for the East.

Hawley to Follow Roosevelt Highway Bill in Committee

Washington, July 21. — (WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE JOURNAL.)— Representative Hawley states it is his purpose to follow up the hearing on his Roosevelt highway bill by interviewing members of the house committee on roads, before which testimony was taken, to further explain the purpose of the measure and to urge a favorable report.

It is in a sense pioneer legislation in two respects. The government has not before voted money for construction of military highways, and it has not agreed to maintain roads which it has built in cooperation with the states.

Hawley says he will wait until printed copies of the hearing, including data presented by B. F. Jones of Newport and other Oregon witnesses, are in the hands of the members of the committee, when he will ask them to study it and consider the question of reporting the bill.

AUTOISTS ARE JAILED AFTER COLLISION WITH FIRE CHIEF'S MACHINE

Liquor Found in Car of Man Who Is Alleged to Have Failed to Give Right-of-Way.

Colliding with an automobile driven by Ben Voturba, Fire Chief Holden's rapidly moving automobile lost both right wheels and was otherwise seriously damaged on Sunday afternoon when the fire officer was racing over the intersection of East Seventh and Clay streets in response to a call for aid from Forest Grove.

Voturba is blamed for the accident because he failed to give right of way to the chief's machine, and as a result he and his companion, Auguste Yeske, were arrested by Motorcycle Officer Schad. The policeman declares the odor of intoxicants was strong after the accident and several bottles of wine were taken from the Voturba car. The driver is held for failure to surrender the right of way and Yeske is charged with violating the prohibition laws.

Riding with his father and mother, Bruce Dilligi, 5, 632 Woodward avenue, was thrown to the ground and badly bruised about 5 p. m. Sunday when the motorcycle on which he was seated became caught in the frog of the street car track near Twenty-third and Thurman streets. Dilligi was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital, but it is thought that his injuries will not prove serious.

A. J. Crawford, 61 North Sixth street, reported to police headquarters that a Maxwell machine, license number 36047, driven by a man who gave his name as Tomlinson, jumped the curb on to the sidewalk and crashed into a plate glass window of Crawford's store. Officer A. O. Anundson, who made a report on the accident, stated that he understood that the machine was the property of a Mr. Buins of 174 Yamhill street, and that J. L. Rutter, 334 Salmon, was in the machine at the time of the accident.

CHILD IS RESCUED WHILE HOME BURNS

Man Carries Little Boy to Safety From Flame Filled Room Just as the Roof Collapses.

James Robertson, 58 Cook street, rescued 4-year-old Joe Rutkowski from an upstairs flame-filled room of the latter's home at 56 Cook street, late Sunday afternoon.

The flames had started when the child, in the absence of his mother, attempted to start a fire by stuffing paper into the kitchen stove and applying a match. A large piece of burning paper fell to the floor and frightened him. He ran upstairs. The flames quickly spread over the house and, when Robertson, a neighbor, discovered the child at an upstairs window, he found all the doors of the house locked. Mrs. Rutkowski stated later that she had left the house only a few minutes and remembers distinctly she left both outside doors open. No explanation of the affair has been found.

Robertson quickly placed a ladder to the upstairs window and attempted to rescue the child. Flames were rapidly eating through the roof and ceiling of the room, and the child drew back from the window as Robertson reached in to grasp him. Losing his balance, Robertson fell into the room, almost into the seething flames. Cascmeng up the child, he climbed out on the ladder, just as the roof and a large part of the framework crashed into the room and jarred the ladder so that it fell, throwing the two to the ground. Robertson suffered several severe burns, bruises and cuts about the face, but no permanent injuries. The child was burned slightly about the head and face and bruised.

The fire spread to nearby houses before apparatus could arrive. Captain Day, assistant fire marshal, placed the total loss between $4000 and $5000. The two houses at 56 and 54 Cook street, burned entirely, were owned by Mrs. Mary Rutkowski, who stated that she had no insurance on them. One was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Benson and Mrs. Benson's sister.

The house owned by Frank Burowski at 58 Cook street was damaged.

The house next door, owned by G. L. Webb, 414 Stark street, which was the only house covered by insurance, and occupied by Louie Geizek and James Robertson, who rescued the boy, was damaged about the roof and upstairs room by water.

An immense crowd watched the fire from the overhanging bluff nearby.

Progressives Are Planning Offensive On Cost of Living

Washington, July 21.—(I. N. S.)—Progressive Republicans are demanding a party offensive on the high cost of living, Senator Capper of Kansas indicated today.

The problem of the high cost of living, Senator Capper said, "is more important to the people than the League of Nations and the party in power must take some definite action before the next election."

Opening the offensive on living costs, the District of Columbia committee of the senate today began an inquiry into conditions in the city of Washington.

"It will not be a local investigation," said Senator Capper, who is devoting almost his entire time to the inquiry. "We are going to try and find out about the spread between the producer and the consumer and what we learn will be of interest and benefit to the entire nation."

BAY CITY LOCALS VOTE TO REMAIN ON STRIKE

San Francisco, July 21.—(I. N. S.)—The telephone strike which has tied up service in every city along the Pacific coast for five weeks officially ended at 8 o'clock this morning. But as a result of the action of the telephone operators and electrical workers in San Francisco, Oakland and several other cities in voting to remain out, the effect of the strike in the Bay district are liable to be felt for some time.

A summary of local union votes in Pacific coast cities, taken yesterday on the proposition to returning to work and ending the strike, follows:

Unions voting to remain on strike: San Francisco, Oakland, Vallejo, Stockton, Modesto, Martinez, Bakersfield, Sacramento and North Yakima, Wash.

Unions voting to return to work this morning: Los Angeles, Seattle, Tacoma, Spokane, Portland, Santa Barbara, San Jose, Fresno, San Diego, Eureka, Eugene, Or., and Bellingham, Wash.

International officers of the Brotherhood of Electrical Workers have ordered the strikers to accept the compromise offer of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company and return to work, but the central strike committee early today issued an order calling on the operators and electrical workers to remain on strike.

Enforced Physical Education Favored At N. E. A. Meeting

Assistant Superintendent E. H. Whitney of the Portland schools has just returned from attending the national education association meeting at Milwaukee, after stopping off for a visit at his old home in the East. Mr. Whitney is submitting a detailed report of the convention to Superintendent D. A. Grout.

The meeting of the association held in Portland in 1917 was chiefly patriotic; the second meeting in Pittsburg brought out the large numbers of illiterates and physical defectives revealed through the draft, but it remained for the Milwaukee meeting to make actual recommendations for the correction of these evils, said Mr. Whitney. The tendency is now toward compulsory physical education.

Mr. Whitney visited Canadian schools at Vancouver and Winnipeg on his way east and found them similar to those of the United States. In fact, most of the teachers are graduates of normal schools, he found.

Validity of Farm Loan Act Attacked At Kansas City

Kansas City, Mo., July 21.—(I. N. S.)—A civil suit to test the constitutionality of the federal farm loan act of 1916 and prevent the Kansas City Title & Trust company from investing its trust and corporate funds in farm loan bonds was filed here today by Charles E. Smith, a heavy stockholder in the corporation and one of the directors.

The suit is the outcome of the belief of Mr. Smith that these farm loan bonds, while not now subject to income or inheritance tax, will be in the future by congressional amendment.

There is now before congress a bill to accomplish that. It is known as the McFadden bill and aims to make future issues of the bonds taxable.
