Mackmen Are Unable to Connect in the Pinches and Drop Hard-Fought Game to Seals

SEALS WIN HARD FOUGHT CONTEST FROM BEAVERS, 2-1

Walter McGredie's Battlers Defeated in Close Game; Mackmen Are Held Helpless in the Pinches; Casey Smith Gets Single That Gives San Francisco the Edge: Don Rader Injured.

AN FRANCISCO, July 24 .- Portland lost a tough battle to be listed in organized baseball. the Seals Wednesday, the count being 2 to 1 after an 11inning contest.

Graham's tossers were held scoreless by "Deacon" Jones for eight inings and it looked as though the Mackmen were going to huddle under, the showers with a 1 to 0 victory, when Zamloch, pinching for Seaton, smashed out a double that scored McKee with the tying run. Two men had been retired at the time, Speas having caught Caveney at the plate with a perfect peg on McKee's single for the second out.

Casey Smith, the Indian heaver, who replaced Seaton, batted n the winning run with a single to left field, which scored Cavency, who reached first when Blue and Baker allowed a pop fly to fall safely. Kamm bunted and McKee was out on a grounder; Sheridan, Or., last Sunday, and it was Smith then cracked out a safe one.

Portland's lone tally was scored in the first inning, on singles by Rader and Blue, and Speas' long sacrifice fly to Hunter. Portland had several other chances to tally, but were unable to put over another tally. In the third Rader reached second on a double but was out at third on Wistersil's grounder. Farmer doubled in the fifth, and reached third on Siglin's out, but he was caught at the plate by a nice throw by Schick. The Beavers had chances to score in the tenth and eleventh but Smith was too much for them in the pinch. Rader and Wisterzil limped through the entire game, Rader injuring his ankle in sliding to third base in the third frame. Score :

Carpentier No Match for Jack Dempsey Will Pass Up "Lights"

By Jack Velock International News Sports Editor NEW YORK, July 24. - Jack Dempsey will be champion of the world for a long, long time.

The new boss of the heavyweights has everything necessary to the successful title holder, from youth to the most wicked punch ever packed by a champion in any division. Twenty-four years old, a two-handed, sure-footed, cool-headed battler from the soles of his feet to the crown of his head, Dempsey possesses all the qualifications that have combined to make champions in the past. Former champs have been noted for this or that virtue as fighters. me have been clever; some have been terrific hitters with at least one hand; some have been superior ring generals, and Willard, they was too hig ROV ber he has beaten decisively is Bombardier Wells. No, Carpentier had better pick up all the loose change in sight before he meets Dempsey. It will be better so.

BILLY MISKE STOOD UP Joe Beckett, the rugged new British champ, is said to be more of a puncher than Carpentier. He is more of the Billy Miske type in build and ability to assimilate punishment., He might linger a bit longer with Jack, but, it is our guess that he would take a terrible beating in any case over any number of rounds.

On this side of the water we have possibly two battlers who may ex-change punches with the new king. One is Willie Meehan, Frisco battler, who once took a four-round decision from Jack and who has been cashing on it ever since. In all likeli-hood Meehan will be Dempsey's next American opt beaten. HAS GREAT DEFENSE

Dempsey is big enough to take care of any opponent they dig up for him. He is clever in his peculiar way, but his great speed in attacking his opponents covers up his cleverness. He has learned from meet-ing all types of battlers and boxers, every hook and crook of offense and defense. Nothing that an opponent can spring on him serves as a surprise and nothing will until some day, when the right bird comes along-the fighter who is to uncrown the new champion. To our way of thinking there is but one opponent in Dempsey's pathway who has a chance with him, Boy, go page Old Kid Bright Lights and ask him how many champions he has beaten. HAS GREAT DEFENSE

The Old Kid, as we were about to say, is the only battler in the world today who has a ghost of a show against Dempsey, and from what we know of Jack, Old Man Bright Lights will get a distinctly cold shoulder. mpsey is a big, happy, friendly boy. He has knocked about the country for a number of years and has had plenty of opportunities to play Old Bright Lights forty ways from a Jack. But he has passed up the gay old bird because he doesn't see anything in that line that appeals. PAPKE BEAT FRENCHMAN

They say Georges Carpentier or Joe Beckett might surprise the new champion. We don't believe it. Carpentier would be in luck to stay three rounds—as long as Willard stayed, with the Dempsey bone-crushing rights and lefts showering him with punishment. Billy Papke, outweighed by Carpentier, beat him when he was supposed to be at the top of his form. Joe Jeanette gave him all he could handle and the only man of title or near-title tim-

Miske, the only battler who has stood up with Dempsey over the ten-round route since Jack came into his own as a scrapper, is a tough egg and may figure as a drawing card with the new champ. But whether or not Miske wants any of Dempsey's game-now that Jack is
