

PORTLAND TAKES TEN INNING SET FROM SEALS, 9-4

Five Runs Scored in Extra Frame After San Francisco Ties the Count With Rally in Ninth Frame; Speas and Wisterzil Grab Bingles in Pinch; Rader Is Back in Game.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 26.—Coming back with five tallies in the tenth inning, after San Francisco had made the count fourall with a three-run rally in the ninth frame, the Beavers defeated the Seals today, 9 to 4. The series now stands 3 to 2 in favor of the Mackmen.

"Sorrel-top" Oldham breezed the horsehide across the plate in great style for eight innings and he suddenly weakened in the ninth, allowing five hits,, which resulted in a trio of tallies. Up to the ninth, the Seals had made but six hits off Oldham's delivery, while the Beavers had pounded Smith for seven hits and four runs until the fatal tenth. Smith was wild and ineffective in the eighth, while errors by his team mates contributed to his downfall.

Maisel injured his leg again and was forced out of the contest. Don Rader got back into the game, taking Maisel's place in the batting order, Siglin going to sec-ond, Farmer to left and Speas to center. He came through with a double in the tenth frame that nelped the Beavers to put the game

The score stood 1-0 in Portland's favor until the sixth inning, when Seals filled the bases, but were only able to put across one run. After Schick had been retired, Fitzgerald beat out an infield tap. Caveney doubled to right field, putting Fitz on third. Koerner was pur-posely passed, filling the bases. Crandall hit to Farmer, who made an error, allowing Fitzgerald to score, but Caveney was nibbed at third base by Baker, and Hunter ended the inning with a popup to

In the eighth frame, the Beavers went into the lead with three runs. Two players were out at the time the runs were scored, Cox ground-ing out and Oldham, who had sin-gled, being forced at second by Speas. Wisterzil was hit by a pitched ball, sending Speas to sec-ond, and Blue followed with a dou-ble that scored Speas. Farmer singled to center and Wisterzil and Blue tallied. Siglin was hit by a pitched ball, but Rader was a pop-out to Crandall.

Zanloch was sent to bat for Hunter in the ninth and he responded with a single, but died at second on Kamm's tap to Wisterzil, Rader covering the keystone bag. Baldwin singled to right, putting Kamm across the plate, and he reached second on the throw-in. Seaton was sent in to run for Baldwin and he moved up to third on Smith's single. Schick struck out and Fitz-gerald followed with a single that scored Seaton. Caveney's hit scored Smith, but Koerner was helpless and was out on a fly to Speas.

SPEAS STARTS RALLY Speas opened the tenth with a single and reached third on Wisterzil's hit. Blue was thrown out at first by Caveney, Speas being held at third, but Wisterzil reached second. Farmer was safe on a fielder's choice, Speas scoring and Wisterzil taking third. Tex counted and Farmer reached third when McKee let the ball get away from him. Siglin grounded out and Farmer scored on the play. Rader smashed double to right and scored on Baker's Texas leaguer. Cox was hit by a pitched ball and Oldham scored Baker with a single. Speas, up for the second time, ended the inning with a long fly to Zamloch, who went to center field at the be-ginning of the inning.

The Seals attempted a rally in the tenth when Zamloch doubled, after Crandall was out. Kamm was safe on Siglin's boot, Zamloch go-ing to third, but Oldham tightened and whiffed both McKee and Smith. PORTLAND AB. R. I Speas, H., cf. 6 3 2 Wisterzil, 3b. . . . 4 2 3

OH! BOY, IF THESE PLAYERS WERE ONLY WITH US THIS YEAR

Quintet of former Portland players who are figuring in the hottest pennant races the major leagues have had in many seasons. Reading from the left, they are: Above-Allan Sothoron, St. Louis Americans; "Dutch" Reuther, Cincinnati Nationals, and Stanley Coveleskie, Cleveland Americans. Below-On the left, Ken Williams, St. Louis Amerieans, and on the right, Roger Peckinpaugh, New York Americans.

PORTLAND PLAYERS HANGING UP MARKS IN MAJOR LEAGUES

"Dutch" Reuther Tops National League Hurlers and Coveleskie and Sothoron Are Among Leaders in the American Circuit; Roger Peckinpaugh Develops Into Heavy Hitter.

By George Bertz

FORMER Portland Beavers are carving a niche for themselves in baseball's hall of fame by their great pitching and batting in the major

Latest unofficial averages of the majors reveal that "Dutch" Reuther, who is with Pat Moran's Cincinnati Reds, leads the National league pitchers with 10 victories and two defeats, and that Allan Sothoron of the St. Louis Browns and Stanley Coveleskie of the Cleveland Indians are well up in the American league pitching column.

REUTHER HEADS NATIONAL LEAGUERS

There are two twirlers in front of Reuther, Gene Dubuc of the Giants and Carter of the Cubs, but neither of these can be considered leaders, as they have not participated in enough games. Reuther has southpawed the Reds to about nine straight victories. Sothoron has won 11 and lost four games, ranking second to Eddie Cicotte of the White Hose. Coveleskie has annexed-12 victories and has been charged with five defeats. Between Sothoron and Coveleskie is "Lefty" Williams, former Salt Lake hurler, with 15 wins and six losses.

Roger Peckinpaugh, who shorted for Portland several seasons ago. topped the American league in batting for a couple of weeks and then dropped off a trifle, but at the present time he is still among the leaders, with an average of .348. Joe Jackson leads the league with an average of Doubleheaders to .352. Cobb is second, with .346, and Veach of Detroit is third, two points

WILLIAMS HITTING THE BALL

Peckinpaugh has sepred the greatest number of runs, having crossed the plate 52 times in 67 games.

Ken Williams, who outfielded for the Beavers in 1916, is hitting .323 for the St. Louis Browns, having made 30 hits in 93 trips to the plate. Other former Coast leaguers are up among the leaders in pitching and batting this year, and it is more than likely that some of them will cut a

Be Scheduled Here For Rest of Season

Under a ruling issued by Presdent Baum of the Pacific Coast league, doubleheaders will be played in Portland for the balance of the 1919 season. Two games will also be staged in Salt Lake and Seattle.

The ruling was adopted by the league directors to equalize the schedule with Los Angeles and San Francisco, where two games were played every Sunday.

The Beavers will play Billy Sullivan's Newberg team at Newberg, Monday, August 18, according to word received from Judge McCredle. The Beavers will be entertained royally by the former White Sox catcher.

PORTLAND CLUBS MAY NOT ENTER IN BIG TENNIS PLAY

Net Association Officials to Determine Whether Players Will Be Sent to International Events; Neer Will Go to Forest Hills, N. Y., Early Next Month; Local Wielders to Play.

WHETHER local tennis clubs will be represented in the re-newal of the Pacific Northwest International Lawn Tennis association championships this year will be determined at a meeting of the Portland Lawn Tennis association Wednesday. The international events—canceled in 1914 on account of the world war-will be staged August 18, 19 and 20 on the courts of the Seattle Tennis club. Vancouver, Victoria, Spokane and Tacoma clubs will enter players. The Seattle club is making great preparations for the inter-national matches, as they will be the first in which British Columbia players have entered since 1914. It is not likely that either Vancouver or Victoria players will make a great showing this season, as the result of being without big tournament competition for four years.

Catlin Wolfard, state champion and holder of the Ralph W. Wilbur trophy, would be Portland's logical entry in the singles event, but it is hardly likely that he will be able NEER TO START EARLY In order to become accustomed to grass courts at Forest Hills, N. Y., where the national junior cham-pionships will be decided during the week of August 25, Phil Neer, winner of the Northwest junior cham-pionship title, will leave for the East August 9. He will be accompanied by Walter A. Goss, sectional delegate of the Northwest district of the United States National Lawn Tennis association.

Neer plans to do a great deal of serving while playing in practice matches between now and the time he takes to the court in his first match in the national event. During play in the state and junior events at Laurelhurst Neer's serving was away off color. WILL PLAY IN SOUTH

The local sensation was away off color in this department of the game. It was not caused by trying to put too much stuff on the ball—just a natural slump. When right Neer serves a terrific ball, which is difficult to return.

He plans on entering the Victoria championships to be staged this week. He may also enter the California state championships to be staged in September. If he plays in this tourney he will be paired with Miss Gertrude Schreiner of Seattle, who worked her way into the finals of the Oregon tourney, in the mixed doubles.

MAY PLAY AT BREAKERS A large number of Portland play-ers plan to participate in the Northwest championships to be decided on the courts of the Tacoma Lawn Tennis club during the week of August 4. Henry Stevens, who with Catlin Wolfard annexed the state doubles championship, and Deo Mallett, will play in the doubles, Miss Stella Fording, Miss Irene Campbell and Mrs. W. I. Northup will be among the entrants.

Indications are that the Breakers, Wash., invitational tourney will be resumed next year. This event was called off on account of the war, but there seems to be a general request OREGON STATE CHAMPIONSHIPS Bees Continue to

The 1920 Oregon state championships will be staged on the courts of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club. The "Winged M" officials hope to make this event the biggest ever held in the state and hope to secure a number of Californians to participate in the event. Several years ago local tennis fans had the pleasure of seeing some of the best the Golden state produced in action. The city championships will be staged on the Multnomah club some time during the latter part of August. The exact dates will be determined this week.

'Father of Golf' In America Dies In Brighton Home

Boston, July 26,-Samuel Mac-Donald, known as the "father" of golf in America, died at his home in Brighton, Mass., recently. On December 10, 1890, MacDonald went to Franklin park with George Wright, Fred Mansfield and B. E. B. Mitchell and played the first game of golf in America. A few days later MacDonald played a golf match with several friends on Revere beach while the tide was out.

MacDonald was one of the best known and most popular men in the market district for the past 30 years. He was 75 years old.
