BEAVERS CRUSHED BY LOS ANGELES, 4-1 BUTWALTPROTESTS

Paul Fittery Touched Bates as He Was Rounding Third in the Eighth, and Thereby Hangs a Protest.

OS ANGELES, July 31.—Portland lost the second game of the series to Los Angeles here Wednesday afternoon, but Manager Walter Henry McCredie is not satisfied with the way it was won and as a result he has sent in a protest. It all happened in the eighth inning, when the Angels scored three runs and broke the 1 to 1 tie. The final count was 4 to 1.

In the questioned eighth, Bates walked and was safe at second when Rader dropped Oldham's throw on Fabrique's grounder to the pitcher. Fournier was safe at first on Blue's error, Bates scoring and Fabrique going to second. It was as a result of Bates' scoring that the big Beaver boss let out the whoop 'n everything. McCredie claimed that Paul Fittery, who was coaching on third, stepped out of the box and touched Bates as he was rounding third. This is absolutely against all rules and regulations of nice ball players-that, is, unless they can get away with it.

Anyway the game continued, Crawford forcing Fabrique at third. Fournier and Crawford double stole and both registered when Boles poled out a long single to right. The Beavers had every chance in the world to make a few runs in the sixth canto when Don Rader opened up with a triple. "Red" Oldham, who did the twirling for the Ducks, fanned and Billy Speas was walked purposely. Tex Wisterzil then singled to right, scoring Rader, Speas going to third, but the fleet-footed Beaver outfielder died on the torrid corner when both Blue and Farmer failed to give him an opportunity of getting his foot off the bag.

The Cherubs scored in the second inning as a result of Blue's error when he dropped a perfect throw from Rader. Crawford was the lucky man and he was the first one up. Boles singled and Crawford went to second. Both Kenworthy and Ellie flied out to Cox, the runners being held, but Niehoff came through with a single and Wahoo Sam nicked the home plate.
"Curly" Brown allowed but four hits and his only dangerous point was the sixth canto which he maneuvered with only but one lonely marker. Rader's triple was the only extra base hit of the afternoon, Oldham holding the seven against him to singles, but they were enough to do the damage.

The result of the game evened up the series and Los Angeles managed to gain on the league, leading Vernon Tigers who lost to Oakland for the second time. The score:

BIG MEET PLANNED FOR CREWS

Elaborate Program of Sports Being Arranged in California on Arrival of Big Fleet.

Daily News. (Copyright, 1919, by Chicago Daily News Co.) A BOARD the U. S. S. New York With the Pacific Fleet off Cape Maysi, Cuba, Tuesday evening, July 22.—(De-layed.) — The athletic officers on the various dreadnaughts are preparing an elaborate program of aquatic and land sports, including boat and swimming races, baseball and boxing in anticipation of the first halt in the cruise. The old men were mustered out before the voyage began and most of the athletic teams lack men. Their hope is in the recruits who are being canvassed for the most likely candidates. Weight machines have been installed on the after decks to provide training facilities. A change in the schedule spoiled some of the plans for tryouts ashore.

While the fleet is at Los Angeles and San Francisco the athletes will be busy IN FORM, BESTS SEALS in training and in carrying out a series of contests between the various ships before the New York leaves for a cruise Sacramento, July 31 .- Mails held San to Hawaii. This was Sacsign Ingram, stroke oar of this year's ramento's second straight from the naval academy crew, which was a strong one. Ensign Blakeslee, captain of the Annapolis baseball team, and Ensign Hibbs, captain of the academy track team, are also on this ship. Naval athletic rules are different from those in the army and they prohibit more than one officer from playing on any of the teams. It is possible that the Pacific fleet athletic committee will modify the rules, permitting an unlimited number White Sox Manager Says His Team Is Confident of Taking League Championship.

NEW YORK, July 31.—(I. N. S.)—

"We're out in front, holding just a comfortable lead and the boys are confident. I'm not saying we won't have a hard fight on our hands, but I don't think we can be stopped now if we get our share of the breaks. "The Sox fight tooth and nail for
