

If Three Pitchers Can Hold Seattle to One Lone Hit, How Many Will Oldham Give?

PURPLE SOX WIN WEIRD EXHIBITION 5 TO 1 WITH 1 HIT

Clymer Absent, Mullen Inactive, a Single Caress of the Old Horsehide, Marks Seattle Victory Over Beavers After Twenty-two Straight Defeats.

SEATTLE, Aug. 7.—Let us pause and examine into a situation peculiar to say the least.

In the first place, Seattle won a bum game Wednesday.

In the second place, it was the third ball game won in 22 of the blaméd things.

In the third place, Bill Clymer, who resigned the management the previous evening, was not around the park.

In the fourth place, Charley Mullen, the tentative manager, sat on the Seattle bench in Pike street habiliments because he did not receive word of his release to Seattle from Toledo until toward the end of the game.

In the fifth place, dropping back to short sentences, which our quondam language teacher told were the most effective—he now selling tombstones—he won the old ball game in one lonely hit. You can count the games won on a single hit in the Coast league on your west knee.

FRENCH WAS IT

In the sixth place, Ray French, who had not connected for a safe hit in some three dozen preceding attempts at bat, plumped out the two-bagger that won and broke up the contest.

In the seventh place the score was 5 to 1.

In the eighth place—yep, brother, you said a tongueful—that's it and that's just about where we'll finish if some ball players are not slickered and brought into the old branding corral.

And, for amplification, a cracking good crowd turned out to see the two trailing clubs perform at the national pasture, much to the joy of the "39's."

HOT GAME BOTH WAYS

And it was hot out there; yea, man, it was so hot you could fry an egg on Bill Klepper's bald pate.

But Charlie and his new charges are thankful for all favors. They count just as same in percentage column, whether they come in on line drives, errors or walks. We apprehend a good deal of fun for Charlie, especially now that he can spoon himself into a new uniform.

One doubts if Cholly will have Bill's old uni cut down, because somehow one has a hankering that Cholly thinks Bill's uni is full of misfortune. No, Jim and Bill and Doc and the boys will have to provide Cholly with some new equipment.

BEAVER RUN IN FIRST

Portland put over the first run in the opener with the ancient and honorable Will Spears going around. Spears singled over third and Watterzil walked, followed by Blue's sacrifice. Spears beat the throw home on Farmer's ground ball to Thomas.

The Mullengars made their first flock of runs in the first frame through the generosity of Deacon Jones, who, as it were, passed the plate around and the Rainiers merely dipped their digits in when he wasn't looking.

Jones started by walking Compton. Knight followed with a sacrifice, then the pillar of McCredie's meeting house soaked Lapan and Murphy, filling the bases.

THIRD STRIKE GOOD

This brought French up. The kid hadn't made a hit in seven times up. Jones began working on the boy. He had two inside strikes and three balls on French when the latter pulled one for a double inside third base, scoring Compton and Lapan. Murphy reached third, whence he scored on Thomas' long sacrifice fly to Spears.

McCredie had "Suds" Sutherland, hero of the "no hit" game against the Seals, warming up and shot him into the tracks in the third. Suds went along nicely for two innings, when he bubbled over. He, too, let the Rainiers make the merry-go-round twice, and went a single. Cunningham and Wares walked. Walsh popped to Siglin. Compton forced Wares, putting Bill on third, and the pair got away with a double steal, due to the fact that Compton started down while Suds was whirling the ball around in his paws.

Then he turned and winged it wide to Siglin. By this time Cunningham had dashed for the plate and did not have to extend himself to beat Siglin's pivot throw.

COMPTON BURGLARIZES

Encouraged by his thievery, Pietro made a dash for third and drew a low leg from Baker, which hit in the dirt and bounded away from Watterzil, allowing Compton to come home. In one game without managerial restraint, Compton thus took it upon himself to get away with some of the fleet stuff and added a trio to his short string.

Hot Off the Bat YOUNGSTERS TO COMPETE SATURDAY

THE Cards massaged the delivery of Fred Toney to the extent of 12 safeties, one a homer by Hornsby, and the Giants lost a chance to gain on the Reds.

Two hits made by Leon Cadore, which drove in two runs, were just half of the number of hits he allowed the Reds. Brooklyn won easily by pounding Sale to all corners of the lot.

Bunched hits in the second inning gave the Tigers three runs off Harper. Leonard held Washington safe, keeping 10 hits well scattered.

Mayer, erstwhile Philly player, has been released by Pittsburgh to the White Sox under the waiver rule.

Wednesday's hero: Ray Keating. The Braves pitcher poked a hole in the fence of Chicago for a home run and the Braves locked Alexander, 2 to 0.

The Dodgers meretriciously romped all over the Reds with a 4 to 1 score.

The Giants met the Cardinals again and failed to gain on the leaders, losing 8 to 4.

SEMI-PROS ANXIOUS FOR CLASH

City Championship on August Street Grounds Sunday Afternoon Is Big Attraction.

WITH 11 straight victories claimed for his McDougal-Overmire baseball team, Manager Andrew Feichtinger is lining up all the available material around Portland so that his aggregation will be ready to battle for the 1919 city championship against the G. M. Standifer shipbuilders on the Vaughn street grounds next Sunday afternoon. Last Sunday the Standifers won their right to play in the titled affair by trimming the Hesse-Martin contingent 2 to 1 and the McDougal-Overmire representatives won from Columbia park 5 to 1.

Some of the best known players around the city are lined up with the two teams who have decided that they are the best of the semi-pros in these parts. To the winner will go a trip to various parts of the state and this is one of the incentives that will assure the spectators of a great battle.

Herman Pillet and Gus Fisher, lately with the Sacramento Yippers will form the battery for Feichtinger's outfit while Wayne Francis Lewis will depend on his old standbys, Jocky Frause and Bob Marshall. The contest will start promptly at 2:30 o'clock with Ed Rankin and Ray Kennedy as the umpires.

SCOUTS WILL BE OUT

One of the players of the McDougal-Overmire nine who will be watched with interest is third baseman Eddie Huesing. Huesing has been making a great showing of late and he is expected to shine like a new dime around the torred corner. He has ambition of lining up with organized ball next season and his showing Sunday will be looked over by several scouts.

New York, Aug. 7.—(I. N. S.)—Manager Huggins of the Yankees was prepared to use Pitcher Carl Mays against the St. Louis Browns today in one game of a double header. Murky weather, however, threatened to prevent the New York club from taking advantage of a temporary injunction, secured last night, restraining Ban Johnson or his umpires from keeping Mays out of the game.

Silcott to Work Out With Rainiers

Seattle, Aug. 7.—(U. P.)—Lloyd Silcott, former Northwestern league star, who has returned home after army service, will work out with the Seattle club here today. He is a good stickler and may land a job with the local crew.

Contains more Turkish than any other "Turkish blend" cigarette

YOU don't want too much Turkish tobacco in your cigarette. "Too much" keeps you worrying about how many cigarettes you can smoke.

But you do want ENOUGH Turkish.

The extra large proportion of Turkish in Fatimas gives smokers that delicious Turkish taste. But blended with it is just the right selection of Domestic tobaccos, carefully proportioned to offset entirely that over-richness so characteristic of straight unmixed Turkish.

That is why—even if a man smokes more Fatimas than usual—they leave him feeling just as he should feel—fine and fit for his work.

The Real Thing in Cigarette Packages

Some smokers are just beginning to realize that the fancy-colored, expensive pasteboard box is no longer the popular cigarette package.

At nearly all of the big fashionable clubs and hotels, as well as among those smokers who go to French Lick, to Atlantic City and Palm Beach, and even to Newport itself, the one package most frequently seen is this sensible "soft" yellow package that carries twenty Fatimas.
