FALKENBERG PUTS ACROSS SHUTOUT WITH TWIST BALL

Beavers Get but Three Bngles, While Oaks Chalk Up 11 Hits and 6 Runs: Opportunities of First and Last Frames Slip From Duck, Playing in Hard Luck.

By George Bertz

LIPPING over an underhanded ball with extraordinary control-but taking his time about it-Cy Falkenberg shut out the Beavers Friday afternoon with three lonely bingles, two of which were registered by George Maisel. The Oaks amassed 11 hits off "Lefty" Schroeder and Joe Dailey for a total of six runs. The only chances McCredie's men had to score came in the first and last innings, but the punch was not there. Cy just flipped and flipped and the Beavers hit 'em right into somebody's hands all through the contest. Fortune was with the visitors at the outset and was anything but fickle.

Grover's double to center, Cooper's bunt down the third base line and Guisto's single through short gave the Oaks a marker in the first. Rader had started over to cover econd, thinking Cooper was going to steal, and Louis smashed one through Don's field. OAKS CLIMB STEADILY

Murphy's hit to Kingdon, followed by Bohne's sacrifice, Elliott's out, Falkenburg's walk and Lane's single scored run No. 2 in the second, and Bohne's hit. Elliott's crack over second. Rader's muff of Kingdon's toss and a double steal chalked up anothr for the Oaks in the seventh. There were two strikes on Lane when Bohne and Elliott started to steal and on the next ball Lane whiffed. Kingdon's return throw, however, was high, and there was no chance to get Bohne.

Schroeder was taken out to allow Siglin to bat for him in the eighth, but the best Paddy could do was fan. Dailey pitched the ninth and Murphy's hit to Wisterzil, followed by Bohne's crash down the first base line, Elliott's double over Farmer's head and a wild pitch, gave the Acorns three in the ninth. RADER IS BALKED

Portland had a great chane to score in the first, when Rader reached second on Grover's high throw to first and took third on Wisterzil's sacrifice, but he was caught between third and home on Farmer's grounder to Guisto. Maisel was passed, but Speas popped out on a foul to Murphy.

In the ninth, Koehler doubled to left with two down and went to third when Grover booted Baker's grounder. Del stole second and Kingdon made the final out on a pop fly.

The Beavers pulled a pretty piece of playing in the eighth, when Cooper was caught flatfooted off third in an attempted double steal. The score:

New Yorkers Are Convinced That Reds Will Annex

New York, Aug. 16,—(I. N. S.)— Forty odd thousand New York base-ball fans were today convinced that Pat Moran's Redlegs from Cincinnati are going to win the National league pennant this year. The fans were the ones who were able to jam their way into the Polo Grounds yester-day and watch the Reds mail the Giants in the last two games of the New York-Cincinnati series.

Nothing short of a miracle will keep Moran's men away from the National league championship. They are now six and one half games ahead of the Glants. The Reds go across the Brooklyn bridge today to mingle with the Dodgers. The Cubs who right now are playing their strongest game of the year, come to the Pole Grounds today for a series with the Glants.

RED LEGS CLIMB OUT IN FRONT BY DOUBLE WIN

Pat Moran's Cincinnati Tossers Defeat Giants in Double Bill and Lead by Six and a Half Games; Wild Scenes at the Polo Grounds When Attendance Mark Is Shattered.

By Damon Runyon

TEW YORK, Aug. 16 .- This thing at the Polo grounds Friday. when the New York Giants again fell before the Cincinnati Reds in the battle of the National league, was midsummer basezball madness.

It was frenzy more highly developed than ever before in the history of the game noted for its frantic periods. It seized all Manhattan island.

I am well aware that I am playing upon a very old and a very thin string when I strike that "than-ever-before-in-the-history-ofthe-game" note, but the statement stands. This was a sort of hysterical high tide in the displaying of emotion and interest in America's national sport.

Forty thousand people again jammed into the bowl in the lee of Cogans Bluffs, up in Harlem, and made a terrific vocal din as the Reds beat the Giants in both games of a double header by scores of 4 to 3 and 4 to 0.

Fifteen thousand more turned back in disappointment as the gates were slammed in their faces. Thousands and thousands of others packed in around the score boards down town to watch the progress of the game, vicariously, so to speak. And out in Cincinnati, they said, an entire city stood still awaiting the returns.

BOTTLES PEGGED AT REDS The proceedings inside the old ball yard were a conglomeration of baseball, wild excitement, heated feelings, accidents and pop bottle throwings. For the first time in years the New York police were called in to the park, arriving after the first game, when bottles were being pegged at the Cincinnati players by the furious fans.

The crowd pushed out upon the field and for a time Eddie Rousch, the outfielder of the Reds, was completely enveloped. The city and special policemen finally shoved the www back and the game was finished under ground rules. ELLER BIG HERO

The story of the baseball side of the doings is quickly told. "Hod" Eller, the Cincinnati pitcher, who has perfected a "shine" ball to an amazing degree, held the big town hitters in the hollow of his greasy old glove in the first game, with the exception of the seventh inning. In the fourth inning, Eller himself knocked the ball into the left field bleachers for a home run with two

BUNCHED HITS OFF BENTON Released by the New York Amerigan leagues because it was felt that his days of pitching usefulness were over, the schoolmaster hurled magnificently against Rube Benton, the left handed star of McGraw's forces. It was the fifth time the Giants have been shut out this sea-

Benton also pitched well, and all of Cincinnati's hits off him were lumped in the sixth inning, when Fisher drew a walk, after one was out, and Rath, Daubert, Groh and Rousch followed with singles. The hits of Rath and Groh were Neale scored on Jean Dubuc in the ninth, when he walked, and then stole second, third and home. The latter steal was in conjunction with a two-ply plifer with "Shorry' Magee on the other end.

Plestina Signed To_Meet Freiburg

Boise, Idaho, Aug. 16.—(U. P.)—Marin Plestina, claimant to the world's heavyweight wrestling championship, has been signed to meet John Freiburg in a finish match here on August 26,

BARNES' STRING BROKEN

So passed a series that will go down into the annals of baseball as one of the most exciting ever con-tested by big league clubs; so passed, too, in all probability, the chances of the Glants winning the national league pennant this year. They are again six games and a half behind the flying Reds, and the latter are playing with courage and confidence. It is something to come into your rival's home town and lift four out of six games from before hostile crowds.

In beating the Cliants in the first game today the Reds also beat the best right handed pitcher in the National league. They beat the gritty Jess Barnes, who had won 10 consecutive games.
