"Wee Willie" Mitchell Allows Portland Beavers But Two Lonely Hits in Fast Contest

WILLIE MITCHELL ESCORTS BINGLING BENGALS TO WIN

Walks Rader and Wisterzil in First, Then Seals Lid on Beavers for Victory of 5 to 2; Schroeder Crowds 'Em Until Sixth, When Tigers Hit on All Four.

By George Bertz

"WEE WILLIE" MITCHELL, former American league pitcher, let Portland down with two hits—singles by Lew Blue in the first and Paddy Siglin in the seventh—in Wednesday's battle, the Tigers walking off with the second straight, 5 to 2. After the first inning, the Tiger southpaw was invincible, only two Portlanders reaching first base. In the first inning Mitchell walked Rader and Wisterzil, giving the Mackmen their two tallies.

"Lefty" Schroeder hurled a great game for Portland, until the Tigers rushed their heavy artillery into the battle in the sixth inning. Singles by Willie Mitchell in the third and by Meusel in the fourth were the only hits registered off the local boy until Chester Chadbourne shook the right field fence with a two base smash. Schroeder was taken out in the eighth to allow Speas to bat, Sutherland finishing the game.

Umpire Jimmy Toman pulled two close ones against the Beavers during the battle, which, if Jimmy had been on top of the plays, might have made a difference in the final result. In the first inning, after Rader and Blue had walked, Schaller dumped the ball between the pitcher's box and third base, and beat Meusel's throw to first, Fisher stepping off the bag in order to catch the ball, but Toman called him out. In the third inning, Brooks hit a liner through Schroeder, which Rader grabbed and kicked second base, and then threw Brooks out at first, but Jimmy ruled Edington safe.

FAST FIELDING EXHIBIT

The Mackmen played a snappy fielding game, despite the fact that three errors were charged against them. In the first inning, they pulled off a double play after J. Mitchell reached first on Rader's boot and Chadbourne sacrificed, Blue catching Mitchell off second with a snap throw to Rader.

Portland's two runs were made on passes to Rader and Wisterzil, Schaller's sacrifice, which should really have been a hit, and Blue's smash to center. Mitchell fanned Siglin, Baker and Schroeder in the second inning.

Rader's boot, Brooks' infield out and W. Mitchell's single scored the Tigers' first run in the third. Maisel cut off Meusel at the plate in the fifth with a nice peg to Baker.

TIGERS ROLL UP THREE

The Tigers rushed off three in the sixth in a hurry, Chadbourne doubling to right and crossing on a two bagger by Meusel. Borton followed with a home run. After High had skied out, Fisher singled, but Siglin—back in the lineup after an absence of over a week—speared a line drive from Edington's bat, closing the inning.

Meusel's single, Borton's sacrifice and Fisher's single in the eighth gave Vernon another score in the eighth. A double play in the ninth after the Tigers filled the bags prevented further scoring. Sutherland, who replaced Schroeder, whipping Chadbourne's grounder to the plate, forcing Brooks and Baker doubling Chet at first. Meusel forced Maisel to go to the center field fence to get his long fly.

BOXING

CENTRALIA, Aug. 21.—There will be four fast bouts at the smoker to be staged in the Liberty theatre on the evening of Labor day under the auspices of the Grant Hodge post of American legion, according to an announcement yesterday by Preston McDonald, who has donated his services as manager for the smoker. The main event will be a four-round go between Harold Jones of Tacoma and Bobby Revel of Tono, two of the speediest lightweights in Southwest Washington. The semi-windup will be furnished by Eddie Quinn of Camp Lewis and Young Farron of Yakima. The two boys each weigh 130 pounds. The second preliminary will be a four-round go between Morgan Jones of Tacoma and George Rooney of Portland, 115-pounders, while Fred Stoy of Chehalis and Young Farrell of Tenino, 75-pounders, will furnish the curtain-raiser.

Seattle, Aug. 21.—(U. P.)—Willie Meehan, the fat boy from San Francisco, got a draw from Ole Anderson, a big, green kid from Tacoma, at the local arena last night. Willie hit Anderson many times in the ribs and stomach with his side arm slap which made a lot of noise but did no damage. Anderson lunged and banged his way to an even verdict. The decision was given by local sport writers, as Meehan refused to fight with the referee giving the verdict.

NORMAN ARENZ of Irvington and Henry Neer of the same park will determine between themselves which is to be the 1919 boys' singles tennis champion of the Portland public playgrounds, and the main event will be staged on the Washington park courts this afternoon at 3 o'clock. One hour later, at the same place, Gladys Noren of Kenton park and Maryann Bishop of Irvington will meet in the finals of the girls 15 years and under.

In the junior boys' singles Ben Bigelow of Mount Tabor will battle John Faust of Washington at 6:30 o'clock this evening, and at 7 o'clock Lucile Langerman of Washington will meet her playmate, Alice Richard, from the same park, in the junior girls' finals.

Norman Arenz was forced to take two matches Wednesday in order to work his way to the finals in the boys' 15 years and under division. Henry Neer was idle and took advantage of his day of rest. The contests between the two little fellows this afternoon promises to be one of the stellar attractions of the tournament.

Following are the results of Wednesday's semi-finals:

Boys' singles, 15 years and under—Norman Arenz, Irvington, beat Howard Wilson, Washington, 6-2, 6-3; Norman Arenz, Irvington, beat Nat Gamble, Washington, 6-3, 6-2.

OUIMET IS NATIONAL FAVORITE

Former Champion Beats Title-holder in Sensational Golf Match at Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 21.—(I. N. S.)—Francis Ouimet today stood out as the strong favorite to win the National Amateur Golf championship, which is being contested on the course at Oakmont.

In the historic match yesterday when he eliminated the title-holder, Chick Evans of Chicago, the young Boston player's work was remarkable. Evans was at the top of his form and played brilliantly. Steadiness and confidence marked every stroke of Ouimet's game, and to win it was necessary for him to hole a 10-foot putt at the home hole.

Bobby Jones has a host of admirers, too, by the sensational manner in which he disposed of Bob Gardner of Chicago, a former champion, 5 and 4. Wood Platt of Philadelphia defeated Paul Tewksbury, Philadelphia, 3 up and George Hoffner, Philadelphia, won from Grant Peacock, Oakmont, 1 up 37 holes.

The pairings are:

Bobby Jones, Atlanta, vs. R. E. Knepper, Sioux City.

G. W. Hoffner, Philadelphia, vs. W. C. Fownes Jr., Pittsburg.

W. J. Thompson, Canada, vs. Donaldson Herron, Pittsburg.

J. Wood Platt, North Hills, vs. Francis Ouimet, Boston.

Hot Off the Bat

WEDNESDAY'S winners: Oakland, Vernon, Salt Lake, Los Angeles. Home runs: Wolter, Sacramento; Borton, Vernon.

• • •

The Angels avenged their fall from league leadership by nicking the Yip winfest in time to prevent the wild men landing in the first division. Wolter's home run saved a whitewash for Sacramento, the final score being 2 to 1.

• • •

Loss of yet another game leaving them teetering tipsily on the line between first and second division standing was not the only hard luck the Seals suffered in the Bees' 9-3 win. Tom Seaton and Manager Graham were both clubhoused for kicking on decisions.

• • •

Heavy hitting won for the Oaks over Seattle, 7 to 2, in a listless game.

• • •

Now that the Giants' chance of winning the pennant seems hopeless, they have started an offensive for second honors, inaugurated by a double victory over the Cardinals.

• • •

Having vanquished everything in sight, the Cincinnati top-notchers are having some fun with Boston. The Reds drubbed the Hub City contingent 10 to 3.

• • •

After catching 72 consecutive games for Cleveland, O'Neil failed to get in the game with Boston.

• • •

Pittsburg made better use of eight hits than Brooklyn did of 10, so the Pirates won.

• • •

The most useless thing to say is "The Athletics lost again."

• • •

Ty Cobb dropped three points in his batting average and "Baby Doll" Jacobson gained one, but the mighty Detroit stickman still leads the American league.

• • •

The Philadelphia Nationals and the Cubs split a doube bill.

Murphy in the opening day's racing of the 1919 grand circuit meeting here yesterday and there was but one other event in which he had any entries. Heavy rains of the past few days made the track rather heavy and as a result no records weer in danger. Murphy drove Royal Mac and Direct C. Kenilworth Park Boys Win Five Foot Six Championship

Boys from Kenilworth park won the 5-foot 6 inches class championship in playground ball when they defeated the Lincoln park aggregation on the Laurelhurst park grounds Wednesday afternoon. The final count was 18 to 5 and it was mainly through the heavy hitting on the part of the winners that the score was so large.

Zimmerman, Wasco and Ratzhen each found the delivery of Kriger for a home run while Freck of Lincoln was the most dangerous batter for the losers. The 4-foot 10 inches and the unlimited classes have yet to settle the championship of Portland for the 1919 playground ball season, but William Howard Knapp, supervisor of the playground work, expects the title events to be held within the next week or 10 days.

DEMPSEY WILL NOT FIGHT SOON

FOR some time we had an idea that Jack Dempsey might appear in the east against some strong young man, but now our hopes are blasted. Larney Litchtenstein, the old fight manager, is now advance man for the de luxe vaudeville show which Dempsey heads and says that Jack will be here very soon with the layout.

It's tough that New Yorkers won't have a chance to see the great Dempsey fight, but then again he may tire of the John Drew thing and start in the socking game again.

FAVORITE POEMS

GUSSIE FLANNAGAN writes in to say that he has a favorite poem. Gussie reads bales of them, but none of them struck him like this one:

His girl is rich and handsome,
While mine is poor, you know;
His girl wears silks and satins
But mine wears calico;
His girl has rigs and horses
And lives as rich girls should.
D'ye think I'd change MY GIRL FOR HIS?
YOU BET YOUR LIFE I WOULD!

A WORD FROM "OVER THERE"

LEON ERROL, the famous "drunk" of stage life, who is now in Merry England, scampers across the parchment to tell of his impressions of the Wilde-Moore battlee. Here is what Leon says:

Dear Tad:

Just have got to write you an angle of the Pal Moore-Jimmy Wilde fight that will never appear in America via the columns of the English press.

The boys over here who backed Moore were simply rolled for their money. The boys should have known better than to place any money up at all, considering the fact that the referee who officiated at the famous Ritchie-Welsh fight was in the ring. Pal handed Jimmy a broken nose, a cut lip and, in short, had him covered with blood from head to foot, yet the decision was given against him. Pal didn't have a scratch. The referee said something about Pal using an open glove and warned him during the progress of the fight, but you know the story, Tad, so what's the use of commenting further?

Intend to stock up a lifeboat on the vessel I sail home on so that I can anchor it three miles out from the Statue of Liberty and have a midnight party for my pals. Are you a swimmer?

Hope all is well with you, and remember me to the gang. As they say over here, Cherio ole bean and That's That. Sincerely, LEON ERROL.

THE IRISH LEAD AGAIN

DID you know that the Irish have the upper hand in the fight game again? Yes, sir, once again! There was a time years ago when the Germans had Wolgast and Papke helping them, and later the Hebrews, with Lewis, Leonard, Attell and Al McCoy, led the race; but it's all changed again. Today the Irish lead in four classes. We have Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion; Jack Britton, welterweight champion; Mike O'Dowd, middleweight champion, and Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion. We almost had Joe Lynch, bantamweight champ, but Wilde sort of stopped him.

THE REUNION OF CHAMPS

OUT IN Toledo, on July 4, the greatest array of lightweights ever seen was around the Secor hotel.

There was Jack McAuliffe, retired lightweight champ; George Lavigne, who took the title when McAuliffe quit; Freddie Welsh, who won the title from Ritchie; Battling Nelson, who beat Gans for the crown, and Bennie Leonard, who took it from Welsh. Quite a bunch, we say.
