German Brides Are Cause of Strike

French Waitresses Refuse to Serve Enemy Girls; Now Wives of Yankees.

GERMAN brides of American soldiers are on their way to the United States. They are precipitating a strike among the French waitresses at Hotel Petrograd, the Y. W. C. A. hostess house in Paris, and causing more or less of a tumult in Brest.

Scarcely before the peace treaty was signed 140 American doughboys were married to as many German women despite the rigid rules against fraternizing with the enemy which had held, supposedly, up to that minute and the next day 22 brides were on their way to Brest via Paris, escorted by a lieutenant, and accompanied by two husbands—both sergeants.

Miss Eleanor Wood, in charge of the Y. W. C. A. bureau for war brides in Paris, met the brides at the station to take them and their luggage to Hotel Petrograd, the largest Y. W. C. A. hostess house in Paris, where she tried to arrange for their passports.

Arrived at the hostess house the brides were taken into breakfast. Suddenly one of the maids heard the enemy tongue. She sent the news around. The maids struck. They would not serve one of the enemy though peace had been declared the day before. Service was suspended for five minutes while the brides ate on—placidity. Finally the strike leader was suspended and peace restored. That night they left for Brest.

Henceforth brides from Germany or Luxembourg will be taken straight through to the port and will not stop in Paris.

EA Wee Bit Personal

Jacques Jacard, serial director, has turned to other features temporarily, directing Omar Lockie in his aerial melodrama, "The Winged Trail." George Holt, who has been directing Pete Morrison and Magda Lane in western pictures, has taken Jacard's place temporarily in serial direction.

"Lasca," which is still perhaps the most popular recitation in the country except, maybe, "Dan McGrew" or "Gunga Din," is to be filmed to feature Frank Mayo, who has a rival in the "Brute Breaker." The scenario on "Lasca" is now under preparation and filming will be started in a short time.

Elmo Lincoln will leave serials for a time, as soon as he completes "Elmo the Mighty," and will star in a six reel feature, "The Beach Comber."

Mary MacLaren has just finished "A Bonnie Bonnie Lassie," based on Henry C. Rowland's magazine story. She was directed by Tod Browning.

Law Collins of the Casino theatre, The Dallas, is in Portland arranging his programs for the coming fall.

Local Boys Are on Program at Hip

Earl Mossman, a former Lincoln high school boy, and Ray Vance of Jefferson, who entered a professional vaudeville career here three years ago last spring, are one of the feature numbers of the new vaudeville bill at the Hippodrome theatre. Vance and Mossman had their tryout in Marcus Loew's Empress which occupied the present Hippodrome theatre, and were given the indorsement of Frank McOetigan, now manager of the Orpheum, and Nick Fierong, then manager of the Empress, now manager of the Tacoma Hippodrome. Their first and only professional appearance in Portland was a few weeks later when they appeared on a program which also featured two other Portland numbers, Ray Lawrence, impersonator, who is the son of Judge Samuel White, Portland lawyer, and Esther Sundquist, violinist. Mossman is a son of Mrs. George Bowditch, 644 East Twelfth street. Before going on the stage he was secretary to Guy Talbot, then general manager of the Pacific Light & Power Co. Vance is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Vance, who once held their own on the stage have moved to Vancouver, Wash. Both young men were called to the colors in the same draft last summer. Mossman was rejected because of physical disability, and Vance was accepted. The act was reunited a few weeks ago.

This Pretty Girl Tells How She Defies Age by Using Ordinary Oatmeal to Beautify Her Complexion

New York.—According to Mae Edna Wilder, the "wheels of time" may be turned backward if a little common sense is used in taking care of the skin. Like everything else the skin needs food, care and attention. The pores to do their work properly should be kept open and thoroughly cleaned. They should be fed, to nourish and bring to the skin that beautiful youthful appearance every normal woman craves. Miss Wilder, though well past the time of life when most complexion aids are famous for their beautifying complexion, and when asked how she retains her youthful appearance, said: "It is a simple process to appear youthful. No one comes within ten years of concealing my age. Here is my secret. Use to my grocery store and get ten cents' worth of ordinary oatmeal. Put a small quantity of the oatmeal in a bag of cheesecloth about the size of your hand. Drop on of into the bag 10 drops of dermole, which can be obtained at any up-to-date drug store, and in warm water and use as you would a wash cloth. Wash your face, hands, arms, neck and shoulders, night and morning. Let it remain on the skin for a minute, thus allowing the pores to absorb the best value of the oatmeal. Wash off with warm water, rinse with cold water and dry thoroughly. Then apply dermole will. This is very important. In a short time your skin will undergo a marvelous change. It is very smooth, the cheeks and a baby softness comes to the skin. The very first application will convince you that this combination is the most effective one for beautifying purposes. It is especially recommended for freckles, tan, sunburn, wrinkles, large pores, rough skin, as it freshens and

DOROTHY PHILLIPS has added much to her popularity with Portland audiences by her appearance at the Liberty this week in "Paid in Advance," one of the most successful and entertaining of her pictures.

WITH AUTHOR AND PUBLISHER

Complete files of the Stars and Stripes are few, and already it is next to impossible to get them for love or money. But many of the best stories that appeared in the Stars and Stripes, together with reproductions of many of C. Leroy Lincoln's drawings, will be published within the next few weeks as a book by the Century company, under the title, "The Command Is Forward."

Castor oil has come into its own. The day may even come when one may use the term without making a wry face—due to hatred accumulated from childhood for this unpleasant product.

"Few are aware that it is at present almost an absolute necessity for the high-speed airplane motors," is a statement made in the July number of Commercial America, in an article by John J. MacFarlane on "Fats and Oils in the United States."

In this field China is the chief source of supply. The technical department at the Central library contains the magazine Commercial America, which gives interesting statistics on the importation and exportation of fats and oils in the United States between the years 1914-1918.

James Melvin Lee, who is the director of the department of journalism at New York university, has contributed the fourth volume to the Harper's Opportunity Books in his just published book, "Opportunities in the Newspaper Business." Mr. Lee here tells of the chances held out to young men who wish to take up newspaper work. He deals with every phase of the profession of journalism, showing the opportunities on metropolitan dailies as well as the small city daily and the country paper. "Opportunities in the newspaper business" is a practical guide and handbook to the newspaper work.

beautifies the complexion and makes rough, red hands and arms smooth and white. It gives the skin the appearance of youth and whiteness that anyone had in preserving my complexion I attribute to this oatmeal. It is so simple that anyone can use it. I have used it for many years and I can well afford to spend five or ten minutes a night in caring for my complexion. There is not enough money in the world to cause me to neglect my skin. I have known women over fifty to follow this method and frequently I have seen them for forty years old. Women thirty years of age look like girls in their teens. Just cut this out so you won't forget it. Try it for a week and at the end of that time you will thank me for publishing my formula.

NOTE.—To get the best effect be sure to follow the complete instructions given above. You have only to get dermole and oatmeal. You need nothing else and it's so simple that anyone can use it. It is so inexpensive that any woman can get it. Dermole can be obtained in this city from department stores, and all up-to-date drug stores, including the Owl Drug Co.—Adv.

Wife Defends Masher Hubby Abbreviated Skirts Are Blamed

Chicago, Aug. 22.—(I. N. S.)—"It's the fault of the skirts," indignantly declared Mrs. George Rasmussen, commenting this morning on the arrest of her husband, wealthy head of the George Rasmussen Tea Co., on the charge of being a "masher."

"I'm for my husband and I'm for the other men of Chicago. I can't blame them for looking at the girls, with the short skirts and everything like that.

It's entirely the fault of the women. They make the men flirt." When notified of her husband's arrest, Mrs. Rasmussen immediately prepared to arrange for his bail, but one of his many friends got to the Clark street police station first and secured Rasmussen's release. "The maid of a striking actress was the complainant in the case which, it was stated today, would be dropped.
