Sorreltop Hurler Brings Vernon Down a Notch in the Coast League Pennant Race

OLDHAM CLAIMS PELT OF TIGERS IN FIERCE FRAY

Aside From Brooks' Tally, Vernon Struggles Scorelessly for Nine Innings; Although Seven Bingles Are Taken From Local Hurler, He's Steady in Pinches; Score 2-1.

By George Bertz

TOLDING the Vernon Tigers at bay, with the exception of one inning, when Paddy Siglin pulled one for the book, "Red" Oldham beat Bill Essick's men in a hard fought game Thursday 2 to 1. The defeat pulled the Tigers down to a level with Los Angeles, the Angels defeating Sacramento.

Oldham was touched for seven bingles, while the Beavers made only four blows off "Wheezer" Dell, but the sorrel topped hurler of the locals was invincible in the pinches. "Babe" Borton was struck out three times by Oldham.

Portland's two runs were made in the second inning. Siglin was given a life on Meusel's wide throw to first base, and he scored Hally B and Duroc Hal Capture biggest surprise of the tournament when from first on Del Baker's double down the third base line. Oldham moved Del up with a bunt and the Beaver catcher scored on Kingdon's long fly to Edington.

The game was full of fielding fea- but the former weakened in the thirtures, Kingdon, who replaced Rader at short, Don going to third in place of Wisterzil, who was ill, making a couple of nice stops and throws. Rader made a sensational stop of High's hard bounder in the second. Chadbourne and High each contributed nice catches.

Vernon's run was made in the fifth. Brooks singled after Edington fanned. Dell hit to Siglin, who had Brooks trapped between first and second, but the Beaver captain overlooked one and threw Dell out at first. Mitchell followed with a double, scoring Brooks.

Manager Bill Essick drove his men throughout the entire game, but the Tigers were unable to solve Oldham's curve ball delivery. In the ninth, Essick sent in two pinch hitters, but neither of them was able to hit safely.

It appears as though the Beavers have taken a new lease on life against the Tigers. Their fielding during the last two games has been very good.

Their stick work, however, has not been up to standard, only 13 hits being registered in three games as against 37 for the Tigers. Jones will pitch for the Beavers today and Ross for the Tigers. The score:
