

RETAIL CLOTHIERS OF OREGON TO FORM
STATE ORGANIZATION

Merchants From All Points Are Arriving Daily to Attend Big Convention Next Week.

Organization of retail clothiers of the state will be effected Monday when merchants from all sections of Oregon will meet in the Hotel Portland with Fred Levy, representing the National Association of Retail Clothiers. The new organization will adopt as their name the Oregon Retail Clothiers' association.

Representatives of many of the counties of the state began arriving in Portland this morning, and many others are expected to arrive during the week-end. Gus Kuhn of the Lion Clothing company, who has been in charge of the arrangements for this meeting, has sent out 250 notifications to Oregon retailers. Levy, the national association representative, is expected to arrive in this city Saturday from California, where he has effected similar organizations in Los Angeles and San Francisco. He will be the guest of M. A. Mayer of Fleischner, Mayer & Co. during his stay here. From Portland he will go to Seattle to continue his organization plans.

"With the formation of a state organization affiliated with the national association," says Kuhn, "merchants will be heading a real need in Oregon. Clothiers will no longer handle their complaints individually. Certain styles of apparel which manufacturers make with the trade in view are not acceptable for the Pacific coast trade and an association is likely to settle such difficulties more satisfactorily than the individual."

Business sessions will begin at 10 o'clock Monday morning, and will continue, after a noon recess, all day.

Daughter of Filipino Chief and Princess Of Sulu, Homesick

Seattle, Aug. 22.—(U. P.)—Princess Tarhata Kiram, daughter of the Sultan of Sulu, and Miss Carmen Aguineldo, whose father led the Filipino insurgents in Los Angeles and San Francisco, today after their first day in the United States spent her Thursday.

It was a day in wonderland. They saw their first department store and went on a tour of exploration within, gazing in open-eyed astonishment.

"Just like a bear cub," murmured the princess, and Miss Aguineldo agreed. The princess is 17, her companion 19. "And just like sisters, only closer," they confided.

With them are five other Filipino girls, all going to Chicago. They will study at the University of Illinois at the expense of their government.

They left Seattle tired and homesick. After four years they will return to their dark-skinned relatives on the islands of the tropics—unless, as Miss Aguineldo said, "we change our minds. We are so lonesome."

City Office Filled From Labor's Ranks

San Francisco, Aug. 22.—(U. P.)—Another important city office was filled from the ranks of labor today. Today when Mayor Ralph selected Daniel C. Murphy, president of the State Federation of Labor, to succeed George E. Gallagher, resigned as president of the board of education. The resignation of Gallagher and appointment of Murphy become effective September 1. Gallagher gave the highest commendation and need for a higher salary as his cause for resigning.

SHE WAS TOLD BY HER DOCTOR TO TAKE TANLAC

Los Angeles Woman Had Almost Given Up Hope—"Just What I Needed."

"Just when I had about given up all hope of ever getting well again, my physician told me to begin taking Tanlac, and it turned out to be the very medicine I needed, for it overcame my troubles and I am now enjoying splendid health again," said Mrs. Ed Kempf, who lives at 4238 Louisiana street, Los Angeles, the other day.

"My trouble began about three months ago," continued Mrs. Kempf, "and was diagnosed as intestinal poisoning. I was confined to my bed the entire time, and the awful pain and misery I underwent can never be told in words. Of course I was under the best of treatment, but nothing seemed to do me any good at all and I was finally ordered to the hospital for an operation. After getting to the hospital I decided that I would not submit to an operation, and after staying there a week I went back home. I was certainly a sick woman when I got home, and it was then that my doctor put me on Tanlac.

"In three or four days after I commenced taking Tanlac I surprised my mother by telling her that I was hungry, and wanted something to eat. Now that was the first time I had wanted anything to eat since I had been attacked of this trouble. Well, to my great surprise and delight, I didn't suffer a particle afterwards, and from that time on I just picked up until I am now up and about and enjoying good health once more. All my friends and neighbors are talking about my wonderful recovery, and they know that Tanlac is responsible for it, too. During the time my health was so bad, I went down in weight from one hundred and fifty to one hundred and twenty-nine pounds, but I have almost gotten it back, and if I continue to gain as I am now doing I will soon weigh more than I ever did. I can easily take care of my five children and do all my housework with perfect ease. My husband says that he is the happiest man in the world because Tanlac has so wonderfully restored my health, and we are both anxious to tell the world about my experience.

Tanlac is sold in Portland by The Owl Drug Co.—Adv.
