

Water McCredie Puts Sand on Greased Side and Beavers Capture Doubleheader

PORTLAND GRABS DOUBBLE VICTORY FROM THE TIGERS

Bill Esbeck's Pennant Chasers Halted in Their Winning Streak by Harstad and Penner; Mackmen Start for Home to Finish Season; Farmer Leaves Team for Louisiana Ranch.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 15.—After dropping six straight games, Walter McCredie's Mackmen came back strong against the Tigers and captured both Sunday games from the Vernon team, 5 to 3 and 3 to 2.

In the morning game, the Beavers pounded Dell, Dawson and Ross for 11 bingles, while Oscar Harstad held the Tigers well in hand until the eighth inning, when he was replaced by "Red" Oldham. Ken Penner twirled the afternoon victory for the Beavers, keeping his hits well scattered after the second inning.

The Beavers clinched the morning game by putting across three runs in the seventh inning. Don Rader's bat playing an important part in the victory.

Vernon got off to a two-run lead in the second inning of the afternoon contest but the Mackmen battled hard and succeeded in tying the score in the sixth inning. The winning run was scored in the eighth, walks and misplays aiding in putting over the tally.

The Mackmen left for home immediately after the second game, where they will finish the season. Outfielder Farmer left the Beavers for a farm in Louisiana.

The score: First game: PORTLAND, AB. R. H. O. A. E. Spies, rf., 3 1 1 0 0 0; Farmer, lf., 4 0 0 0 0 0; Mangel, cf., 4 0 0 0 0 0; Bus, 1b., 4 0 0 0 0 0; Nighl, 2b., 4 0 0 0 0 0; Baker, c., 3 1 4 3 4 0; Harstad, p., 3 0 0 0 0 0; Oldham, p., 0 0 0 0 0 0. Total: 32 5 11 27 14 1.

Second game: PORTLAND, AB. R. H. O. A. E. Spies, rf., 3 1 1 0 0 0; Farmer, lf., 4 0 0 0 0 0; Mangel, cf., 4 0 0 0 0 0; Bus, 1b., 4 0 0 0 0 0; Nighl, 2b., 4 0 0 0 0 0; Baker, c., 3 1 4 3 4 0; Harstad, p., 3 0 0 0 0 0; Oldham, p., 0 0 0 0 0 0. Total: 32 5 11 27 14 1.

Score by innings: First game: P. 1, V. 2, P. 3, V. 4, P. 5, V. 6, P. 7, V. 8, P. 9, V. 10, P. 11, V. 12. Second game: P. 1, V. 2, P. 3, V. 4, P. 5, V. 6, P. 7, V. 8, P. 9, V. 10, P. 11, V. 12.

Summary: First game: Runs—Killefer, 2; Fournier, 2; Crawford, 4; Hildebrand, 4; Miller, 3; Holley, 2; Erwin, 2; Fabrice, 2; B. B. B. 2; Hildebrand, 2; Fournier, 2; Crawford, 2; Miller, 2; Holley, 2; Erwin, 2; Fabrice, 2; B. B. B. 2. Hits—Killefer, 3; Fournier, 3; Crawford, 3; Miller, 3; Holley, 3; Erwin, 3; Fabrice, 3; B. B. B. 3. Errors—Killefer, 1; Fournier, 1; Crawford, 1; Miller, 1; Holley, 1; Erwin, 1; Fabrice, 1; B. B. B. 1. Umpires—Fry and Phyle.

Second game: Runs—Killefer, 2; Fournier, 2; Crawford, 4; Hildebrand, 4; Miller, 3; Holley, 2; Erwin, 2; Fabrice, 2; B. B. B. 2; Hildebrand, 2; Fournier, 2; Crawford, 2; Miller, 2; Holley, 2; Erwin, 2; Fabrice, 2; B. B. B. 2. Hits—Killefer, 3; Fournier, 3; Crawford, 3; Miller, 3; Holley, 3; Erwin, 3; Fabrice, 3; B. B. B. 3. Errors—Killefer, 1; Fournier, 1; Crawford, 1; Miller, 1; Holley, 1; Erwin, 1; Fabrice, 1; B. B. B. 1. Umpires—Fry and Phyle.

San Francisco Splits Series with Salt Lake. Salt Lake, Sept. 15.—By dividing Sunday's double header, San Francisco and Salt Lake made it four for the series. Salt Lake took the first game today, 10 to 7, but the Giants won the second, 7 to 5, batting out five of their runs off Stroud in the third inning. The score: First game: S.F. 10, S.L. 7. Second game: S.F. 7, S.L. 5.

Yips Again Trim Seattle 6 to 4; Game is Errorless. Sacramento, Sept. 15.—Sacramento trounced Seattle, 6 to 4, again Sunday afternoon. The visitors outbit the locals, but Sacramento made their hit count. Both teams played errorless ball. The score: Sacramento 6, Seattle 4.

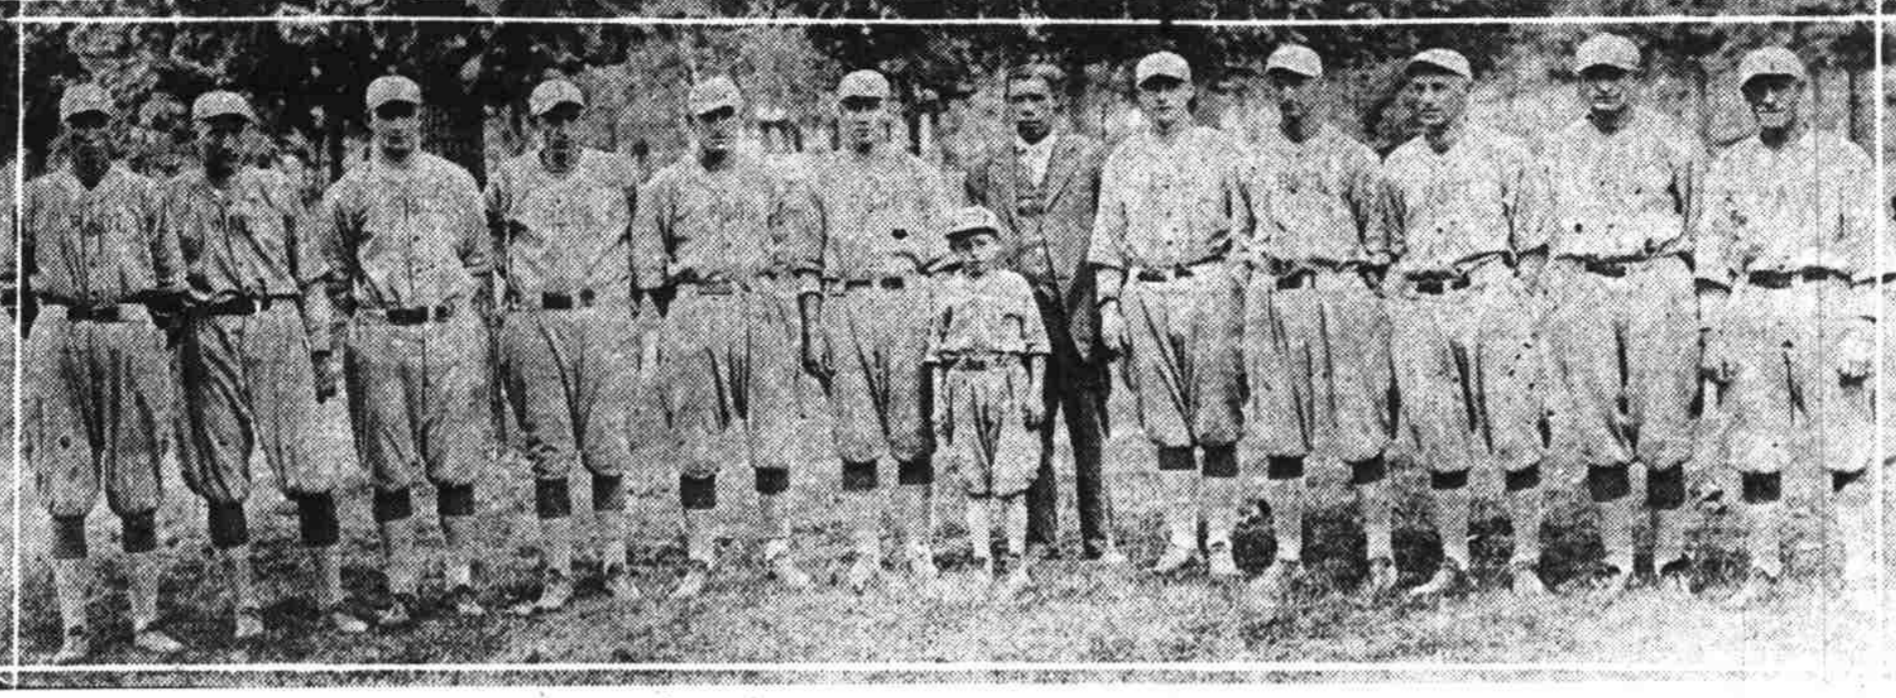

Manager Cravath Hails Bancroft as King of Shortstops. Manager Cravath of the Philadelphia Athletics has the kind of all shortstops in Dave Bancroft. This of course will be disputed by different managers in the National League, especially Fred Mitchell, John McGraw, George Stallings and Branch Rickey.

Field Trials Title Events Start Today. Lebanon, Or., Sept. 15.—The Oregon Field Trials club championships, together with the Pacific coast title events, will start today. Dogs from all parts of the country are entered in the game, and competition is expected to be very keen. Birds are reported as being plentiful.

Game Reserve in Polk County. Dallas, Sept. 15.—Papers were filed for record with the county clerk this week placing 2183 acres of farm land in the northern part of Polk county in a state game reserve for a period of five years. Included in the reserve are the farms of Fred Stump, A. J. Richardson, J. H. Thurston, Martin V. Fraher and M. H. Fraher.

St. Joe Wins W. L. Pennant. Omaha, Neb., Sept. 15.—The closest pennant race in the history of the Western league came to a close Sunday with St. Joseph winner of the championship title. Only 23 points separated the first and last teams.

LOCAL BALLTOSSERS ON CRACK TEAM IN IDAHO LEAGUE

The Paul club of the Southern Idaho league, which Art Bartholemey, local catcher, has up among the leaders in the circuit. The players, reading from the left, are: Campbell, second base; Swartz, pitcher; Lodell, third base; Alexander, pitcher; Bourq, first base; Bartholemey, manager and catcher; Kelly, mascot; "Wild Bill" Larsen, president; Burke, shortstop; Riepl, third base; Williams, center field; Hartman, left field; and Lind, right field. With the exception of Campbell, Alexander and Hartman, all the players are Portlanders.

HOWLS MAY RESULT IN NEW RULE

Purchase of Players to Bolster Team After Mid-Season May Be Halted.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—(U. P.)—Howls raised by several clubs and fans all over the country that the Giants were trying to buy the National league pennant this winter to curtail the purchasing privilege of the major league clubs.

The proposal has come from several of the objecting clubs that all purchases or trades of players within the league be barred after July 1. They point out that this would make it impossible for a club to open its purse strings and rake in reinforcements during the heat of a spirited pennant drive.

Ban Johnson, big boss of the American league, is said to favor the plan, but so far "Prexy" Heydler of the older circuit, has maintained a status like silence. Outside of New York, Chicago and Boston, where the expenditure of a paltry $10,000 or $15,000 doesn't put a crimp in the club coffers, the magnates are expected to line up in support of the measure.

The big howl came this season when McGraw landed catcher Snyder in a trade for drift wood on the team. Later fans claimed he got all the best of it when he worked the Cubs for Phil Douglas and then Cincinnati yelled to the skies that the league was all for the Giants when McGraw bought Pitcher Neff for an outlay that was said to represent $40,000.

Meanwhile Pat Moran was almost on his knees for an outfielder that would release Pitcher Bressler from work in the gardens and enable him to take a regular turn in the box. When he had to go to the minor to get Outfielders See and Duncan, the Cincinnati folks charged loudly that the Giants got all the sweets in the league and that the other clubs wouldn't help the Reds even if Herrmann was able to spend the fortune that is always available for anything that McGraw wants.

San Francisco Splits Series with Salt Lake. Salt Lake, Sept. 15.—By dividing Sunday's double header, San Francisco and Salt Lake made it four for the series. Salt Lake took the first game today, 10 to 7, but the Giants won the second, 7 to 5, batting out five of their runs off Stroud in the third inning. The score: First game: S.F. 10, S.L. 7. Second game: S.F. 7, S.L. 5.

Yips Again Trim Seattle 6 to 4; Game is Errorless. Sacramento, Sept. 15.—Sacramento trounced Seattle, 6 to 4, again Sunday afternoon. The visitors outbit the locals, but Sacramento made their hit count. Both teams played errorless ball. The score: Sacramento 6, Seattle 4.

Manager Cravath Hails Bancroft as King of Shortstops. Manager Cravath of the Philadelphia Athletics has the kind of all shortstops in Dave Bancroft. This of course will be disputed by different managers in the National League, especially Fred Mitchell, John McGraw, George Stallings and Branch Rickey.

Field Trials Title Events Start Today. Lebanon, Or., Sept. 15.—The Oregon Field Trials club championships, together with the Pacific coast title events, will start today. Dogs from all parts of the country are entered in the game, and competition is expected to be very keen. Birds are reported as being plentiful.

Game Reserve in Polk County. Dallas, Sept. 15.—Papers were filed for record with the county clerk this week placing 2183 acres of farm land in the northern part of Polk county in a state game reserve for a period of five years. Included in the reserve are the farms of Fred Stump, A. J. Richardson, J. H. Thurston, Martin V. Fraher and M. H. Fraher.

St. Joe Wins W. L. Pennant. Omaha, Neb., Sept. 15.—The closest pennant race in the history of the Western league came to a close Sunday with St. Joseph winner of the championship title. Only 23 points separated the first and last teams.

Plan World's Boxing Center

Prominent Men With New Club

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—(U. P.)—The International Sporting club of New York, headed by Major Anthony J. Drexel Biddle and sponsored by many of the best known athletic and sporting authorities of the country, hopes to establish the world's boxing center here.

RICKARD WILL AID. This was the feature of the comprehensive announcement made today regarding plans for the new club, which expects to have its clubhouse completed and ready for operation by the end of the year.

Major Biddle, Walter Camp, Dr. Joseph E. Raycroft, Frederick W. Ruben of the A. A. U., with which the new club will be affiliated, George L. ("Tex") Rickard, General Coleman, Du Pont, Hon. Harry S. New and many other prominent men, most of whom are connected with the army, navy and civilian board of boxing control, are the heads of committees which will conduct the affairs of the club.

FIRST BOUTS IN FEBRUARY. It is pointed out that seven out of the eight world boxing championships are held in this country. Jimmy Wilde being the only foreign contender, and it is the plan of the club to stage elimination contests and hang up belts emblematic of the various titles in boxing and wrestling. The first championship belt, to cost $20,000, has already been ordered, and will be presented to Jack Dempsey.

The first bouts under the auspices of the new club will be held February 3, when the club proposes to open its doors, with Jimmy Wilde, the flyweight champion, meeting an opponent to be selected later.

The flyweight eliminations starting March 23, will bring together Frankie Tremaine and Frankie Mason, Joe Dillon against a selection. The winner will meet Jimmy Wilde, champion of the world. Wilde has announced that he will accept a bantamweight in America on the night of December 3, Major Drexel Biddle, president of the International Sporting club, announced today.

Standifer Team Wins The Interstate Title From Local Club. The Standifer Shipbuilders won the undisputed interstate baseball championship when they trimmed the McDougall-Overmire aggregation 7 to 3 on the Vaughn street grounds Sunday afternoon. Manager Wayne F. Lewis' delegation started out to win in the first two innings, scoring one in the opening cant and five in the second, while the Andy Felchtinger's boys put across a marker in the third and two in the ninth. It looked like another one of those ninth inning rallies, but it was shortlived.

"Spec" Harkness, hero of many a Portland Pacific Coast league game several years ago, was on the firing line for Tom Standifer, and he allowed but six hits as against an even dozen off "Soldier" Anderson, a Japanese photographer, were the onlookers. Bob Newman retained his northwest championship and his teammate, "Red" Coghburn, won most of the honors of the day. Following are the final notes:

Five mile, striped stock—"Red" Coghburn, Indian, first; Harry Brandt, Harley-Davidson, second; "Dusty" Farnum, Indian, third. Time: 13:32.5.

Four mile, striped stock—"Red" Coghburn, Indian, first; Harry Brandt, Harley-Davidson, second; "Dusty" Farnum, Indian, third. Time: 13:32.5.

Three mile, striped stock—"Red" Coghburn, Indian, first; Harry Brandt, Harley-Davidson, second; "Dusty" Farnum, Indian, third. Time: 13:32.5.

Two mile, striped stock—"Red" Coghburn, Indian, first; Harry Brandt, Harley-Davidson, second; "Dusty" Farnum, Indian, third. Time: 13:32.5.

One and one-half mile stant race—Newman, Indian, first; Carter, Harley-Davidson, second. Time: 13:32.5.

Five-mile special race—Newman, Indian, first; Wolfier, Indian, second; Fignos, Excelsior, third. Time: 13:32.5.

Five-mile special race—Newman, Indian, first; Wolfier, Indian, second; Fignos, Excelsior, third. Time: 13:32.5.

Five-mile special race—Newman, Indian, first; Wolfier, Indian, second; Fignos, Excelsior, third. Time: 13:32.5.

Five-mile special race—Newman, Indian, first; Wolfier, Indian, second; Fignos, Excelsior, third. Time: 13:32.5.

Five-mile special race—Newman, Indian, first; Wolfier, Indian, second; Fignos, Excelsior, third. Time: 13:32.5.

Five-mile special race—Newman, Indian, first; Wolfier, Indian, second; Fignos, Excelsior, third. Time: 13:32.5.

Five-mile special race—Newman, Indian, first; Wolfier, Indian, second; Fignos, Excelsior, third. Time: 13:32.5.

Five-mile special race—Newman, Indian, first; Wolfier, Indian, second; Fignos, Excelsior, third. Time: 13:32.5.

Five-mile special race—Newman, Indian, first; Wolfier, Indian, second; Fignos, Excelsior, third. Time: 13:32.5.

RED'S PARK TOO SMALL FOR SERIES

Cincinnati Field Will Not Be Large Enough to Accommodate the Crowds.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—(U. P.)—Cincinnati has practically clinched the National league pennant, but there are a lot of fans in the Ohio city who are worried about the world's series.

There isn't a fan who doubts that the Reds will cop the flag, but there are hundreds of them who are fearful that they will not get to see the series.

Redland field, the home grounds of the Moran crew, will not hold the crowds, they claim. The park is far from a "cheese box" affair, as it has a seating capacity of about 25,000. But it has been filled to overflowing with Sunday crowds during every big series since the Cincinnati prides became a contention. In view of this fact the yard will never hold the world's series throngs, the bugs howl.

Suggestions were made to August Herrmann, president of the Cincinnati club, to stage the series in the mid-field of the Sharnville auto speedway, about 15 miles outside of Cincinnati. It was pointed out that the stadium with a capacity of about 100,000 would be just the thing to accommodate every fan who wanted to see the big set-to.

But the plan did not meet with the favor of the Red chief. Lack of convenient transportation to the speedway and the difficulty of laying out a field perfect enough for the playing of the big classic were given as grounds for his disapproval.

Herrmann as yet hasn't claimed victory for the team. "But if the Reds win they will play on their own grounds," he said.

BRITT MATCHED TO BOX GORDON IN LOCAL SHOW

Oakland Bantamweight Will Be Pitted Against Local Boy in Initial Bout of Smoker.

Eddie Britt, a rugged bantamweight of Oakland, Cal., who has been boxing with great success round Salt Lake, has been substituted for Eddie Gorman in the bout against Sammy Gordon, which marks the opening of the boxing season next Friday night. Britt is a hard hitter, according to information received, and will give the local "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of boxing for a couple of seasons, but has come back strong during the past two months, winning the "Count" Exposito, the former local lightweight, arrived from San Francisco this morning and appears to be in great shape for his eight-round encounter with Freddie Anderson, another of the once-titled "Bud" Anderson. Exposito laid off of