PORTLAND, OREGON, SUNDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 21, 1919.

SHRINERS ALREADY HAVE THEIR EYES CAST ON PORTLAND

27 Temples File Applications for Hotel Accommodations During Convention Next June.

INTEREST IS NATION-WIDE

Estimate Now Says 100,000 Masons Will Be in Rose City to Participate in Gathering.

With 27 temples of the Mystic Shrine already filing applications with the general committee for hotel accommodations here in June of next year, it is declared that Portland has already established a record in the imperial council. It is said that no other city ever received such a number of applications for quarters nine months in advance of the date for holding the biggest show that America puts on for the entertainment of Masons of high degree.

The fact that these applications for hotel space are coming so rapidly is taken as an indication that Portland will next year break all records for attendance at Imperial council meetings, and that the parades will contain more brilliantly uniformed bodies of marching men than ever before appeared anywhere in this country. Every one of them is to bring a band, and some of them will have two or three.

MANY APPLICATIONS COME

Chairman J. P. Jaeger of the hotel and housing committee is in receipt of applications for space from the temples at Dallas, Texas; Buffalo, N. Y.; Kansas City, Helena, Detroit, New York, Duluth, Regina, Sioux City, Tulsa, East St. Louis, Peoria, Pittsburg, Rochester, Austin, Columbus, Reading, Houston, St. Louis, Omaha, Springfield, Mo., and Springfield, Ill.; Calgary, Reno, Shreveport and Des Moines.

Beside these, there will be 450 Pullman cars parked in the area that is to be set aside for the visitors in a quiet section of the city, and there are yet fully 100 temples to be heard from.

Each temple that has sent in requests for hotel space is bringing from 100 to 250 persons, while Tacoma has taken the entire space in the Oregon hotel and will have 1500 nobles here for the week.

Seattle, Spokane, Salt Lake, Helena, Butte, Boise, Los Angeles, San Francisco and a dozen other coast temples will be here in hundreds.

500 NEBRASKANS COMING

Omaha Shriners are to lead a band of 500 Nebraskans into the oasis of Portland, while Oklahoma is bringing nearly as many. Tulsa is already selling accommodations on train number 2.

"I wish Portlanders could realize what a tremendous interest is being aroused all over the country," said William Goldman, the insurance man, who has just returned from an Eastern tour. "It is the most talked of event and Portland is the best advertised city in America today.

"We ought to go around to the committee headquarters and ask them how much money they want to entertain that crowd. It is going to be worth millions to us, and if we spend $250,000 to entertain them it will not be too much. The first thing I did after arriving at home was to go over to the Gasco building and double my subscription. I heard that one other Portlander had got next to how the thing stands and went over there and raised his contribution from $100 to $1000.

POTENTATE IS LIVE ONE

"I had the pleasure of meeting the imperial potentate, Mr. Kendrick, while East, and I want to say there is one live wire. He is now making his official visits over the country, and everywhere he is boosting Portland. He will be here in November.

"At New York I heard a Shriner talking about how Portland does things. He was watching a Mecca temple ceremonial, and turning to his nearest neighbor he said, 'You ought to see how Portland does it. They have the world cheated.'

"We had just as well understand that we are going to have a crowd that will be mighty near 100,000.

"It is the opportunity of a lifetime to put Portland on the map."

Portland Shriners are preparing a great reception for their imperial potentate, W. Freeland Kendrick. He will visit the city November 20, when a ceremonial will be put on in his honor. On the previous day a special session of the Scottish Rite will confer the degrees on candidates to get them ready for the Shrine class.

Forest Grove Will Hold Mass Meeting For Baby Benefit

A mass meeting will be held Tuesday night at Forest Grove in behalf of the abandoned babies of the nursery conducted by the Pacific Coast Rescue and Protective society. Guy F. Phelps, recently back from service overseas, will give an address in the First Methodist church.

Phelps is engaged in social service work now and will tell what the rescue society is doing for the babies. This is one of a series of many meetings that are being held throughout the state. Several substantial donations were added to the fund last week. The headquarters are in the Liberty Temple and W. G. MacLaren is superintendent of the work. A large percentage of the work is done as a free will gift to the cause. Edith Knight Hill has given her services for September publicity work. Mrs. R. E. Bondurant, the president of the nursery, Mrs. W. D. McWaters, Mrs. W. L. Block and many others are giving many hours each day to the work.

Lakes in Calabria are to be utilized in the production of about 200,000 hydro-electric horsepower, which will serve most of southern Italy and Sicily.
