Popular Young Couple Joined In Marriage

MISS ELIZABETH MALBOEUF chose Wednesday evening for her wedding to Frederick Ames Lothrop. The service was read at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Malboeuf, on Willamette Heights, by the Rev. A. A. Morrison.

The bride was charming in a gown of white satin made in simple mode with pearl trimmings. She wore the full wedding veil which was caught with a band of orange blossoms. Her flowers were orchids and bride roses. Miss Charlotte Malboeuf, maid of honor, was gowned in pink crepe de chine with silver. Her flowers were Columbia roses. Mrs. A. A. Phinney of Seattle, a sister of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a smart frock of pink crepe georgette. Little Dorothy McPherson as flower girl wore white tulle and carried a basket of Cecil Brunner roses. Raymond Williams was best man. The bridal music was played by Edward E. Courser.

A brilliant reception for 200 guests followed the ceremony. In the dining room Mrs. Seagle F. Sealy and Miss Helen Haller presided at the supper table, with Mrs. Maurice H. Barnes and Miss Julia Duffy. Those assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Beeche Crofton and the Misses Laura Rand, Eleanor Holman and Margaret Mansfield.

Both young people have a large circle of friends in the city. Mr. Lothrop is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lothrop of Laurelhurst and has recently returned from overseas. Following a brief trip to Sound cities, Mr. and Mrs. Lothrop will make their home in Portland.

Mrs. Richard Fenley Hunter has been the inspiration for a number of small social affairs this week. She is the guest of Mrs. William H. Lines for a short time and is renewing old acquaintances in the city. On Thursday Mrs. Lucius Allen Lewis was hostess for a delightful bride party in honor of the visitor, guests for the occasion including Mrs. Hunter, Mrs. Lines, Mrs. Frank E. Hart, Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. Donald Munro, Mrs. Reade M. Ireland, Mrs. Ferdinand Smith, Mrs. J. R. Bowles, Miss Esther Tucker, Miss Ella Hirsch, Mrs. W. H. Nunn. On Saturday the visitor was again honored at a similar affair for which Mrs. Charles Cheney was hostess.

Miss Adele Lucke of San Francisco, who has been the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McPherson on Summit Drive, will leave the city today for her home. During her stay in Portland Miss Lucke has been extensively entertained.

Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin N. Wade arrived in Portland on Tuesday from the East. Dr. Wade returned from service in France in the early spring.

Miss Parsons' Wedding Event Of Past Week

THE marriage of Miss Dorothy Adams and Thomas Foster Metcalf was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Seely Parsons' on Council Crest on Wednesday evening.

The cathedral candles flickered at either side of the improvised altar which was formed of blue delphinium, white asters and vine maple, before which the service was read by Dean R. T. Hicks of St. Stephens Pro-cathedral. The wedding music was played throughout the ceremony by David B. Campbell. The bridal hymn was sung, preceding the service, by Miss Charlotte Banfield.

Old Ivory satin and rose point lace were used for the wedding gown, which was draped in smart mode, with lace sleeves and a unique headpiece of lace from which the wedding veil fell in filmy folds to the hem of the gown. The bridal bouquet was bride roses. Miss Gretchen Colton and Miss Dorothy Dixon of Eugene carried in frocks of pink and blue organdie were the bridal attendants. Each wore a large picture hat and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses. The Misses Evelyn and Mary Alice Meyer were the dainty ribbon bearers for the bridal procession and were attended by Master Dennison Lawrence and Amos Lawrence. Stanford Anderson was the bridegroom's only attendant. An informal wedding reception followed the ceremony.

The bride has an unusually large circle of friends in the city. She has been a student at the University of Oregon and is a member of Alpha Phi of the University of Oregon chapter. Mr. Metcalf is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Metcalf of Danville, Ky., where he will take his bride to live.

In a charming setting of roses and carnations the marriage of Miss Forrest Geneva Erros and A. F. Fisher, both of Portland, was solemnized at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Thomas Fleming of Forest Grove, on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The bride was gowned in ivory crepe georgette and carried a lovely bouquet of bride roses. Miss Verma Fleming, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown was of peach toned silk and her flowers were roses. W. Freres of Portland attended the bridegroom. The bride was given in marriage by her father, W. H. Erros of Portland. Following the ring ceremony at which the Rev. W. Walter Blair officiated, an informal reception was held at the wedding music was played by Malcolm H. Hawke, son of Dr. Hawke of Forest Grove. The bridegroom is interested in the Western Mineral Federation corporation of Arizona and they expect to leave for San Francisco in a few days to make their home.

A delightful surprise shower in honor of Miss Marie Duback, whose engagement was recently announced, was given Thursday evening by Miss Velma Hays at the latter's home, 536 East Salmon street. The apartment was charmingly decorated with Japanese lanterns, with wreaths of Oregon grape interlaced with lavender chrysanthemums. The guests attired in Japanese kimonos sat on cushions on the floor after being directed to their places by little Japanese-fan place cards. After the guest of honor had discovered many beautiful and useful gifts behind a huge Japanese umbrella, dainty refreshments after the Oriental style were served, including tea in tiny Japanese teacups. The guests included Miss Marie Duback, Mrs. J. D. Duback, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hayes, Mrs. F. M. McBride, the Misses Florence Johnson, Velva and Leita Hays, Nona Becker, Alice Gohlke, Mildred Weeks, Edythe Duback, Helen Duck and Mauna Loa Falls.

Gamma Phi Beta will entertain at a dancing party on Monday at the home of Miss Lenore Blaesing in Rose City Park. Those who have been asked to assist Miss Blaesing and her mother, Mrs. H. J. Blaesing, in receiving are Mrs. Charles Petheran, Mrs. Glen, Mrs. Hamilton White and Miss Irene Strowbridge. About 60 young people have been asked to participate in the affair.

Professor and Mrs. George L. Lawrence of Walla Walla are in the city for a few days and are domiciled at the Hotel Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. James Griggs, prominent residents of Tacoma, are spending several days at the Hotel Portland.

Vogan's MARSHMALLOW WHIP

You'll like it for cake filling and icing

Use direct from the jar and spread on cake which has been allowed to cool. Less expensive than home-made filling and more delicious. Nuts, chopped or crushed fruits, or melted chocolate may be added.

There are ever so many other ways to use Vogan's Marshmallow whip in the home—as a sauce for puddings, with fruit, for sandwich fillings, etc.
