Mr. and Mrs. Ross Celebrate Their 30th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. James Thornburn Ross celebrated their thirtieth wedding anniversary Wednesday. It assumed the form of a dinner party for which the invitation list included: Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Lindsey, William Ross and John F. Ross, who came from Astoria for the occasion; Mrs. J. R. Swinton, Judge and Mrs. McAmant, Miss Cornelia Lamberson, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Hall, Miss Kate Holman, Judge and Mrs. W. B. Gilbert, Dr. and Mrs. J. Hunter Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Linn, Rev. Dr. Robinson of Chicago, Miss Gussie Bartlett and Arthur W. Lenka, both of whom were members of the same household with Mr. Ross in New York city before he came to Portland. The sons, Ensign Lindsey Ross and Ladner Ross, were present, having returned in time for the occasion after long absences. Mrs. Ross wore her wedding gown of soft cream silk crepe trimmed with old family lace, in its original form. The great round table was decked in pastel shades, the prevailing color being pink, as at the long-ago wedding. The centerpiece was of asters in pink, lavender and white, with apearagus and other delicate foliage of white and green. From the pink "marriage bell" chandelier hung delicate vines and these were tied and festooned with illusion in the same soft colors. The placecards as well as the invitations were adorned with clover, the adopted flower of the couple in engagement days and still retained. Soft lights glowed around the room and the table, the beauty of which was greatly enhanced by eight candles burning in tall candlesticks which were later brought from France by a returning soldier. Some of these have been handed down through many generations, yet they were given gladly to one who had gone so far to fight for his country. Reminiscences, music and "marriage admissions" entered into the entertainment. The solo, "All for You," was beautifully sung by Mrs. Fletcher Linn. Mrs. A. C. Dixon and daughter, Miss Dorothy, of Eugene, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Gerlinger in Flanders street. Miss Dixon came to the city to act as bridesmaid at the wedding of Miss Dorothy Parsons and Thomas Foster Metcalf, which was an event of Wednesday evening. News of the engagement of Miss Gertrude Blackmar to William L. Raphael Geisler was made recently in Portland. Miss Blackmar is the daughter of Dean Blackmar of the University of Kansas. She was a graduate from Simmons college in Boston and is a member of Phi Beta Phi Sorority and also of Phi Beta Kappa honorary scholastic fraternity. During her residence in Portland she has been active in collegiate and Pan-hellenic circles. Mr. Geisler, who is a Portland man, has been serving as American vice-consul to Switzerland and is home at present on a month's leave of absence from the department of state. He was a graduate from the University of Oregon and from Columbia university and is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity. The wedding will be an event of early October in New York city. The Rose City Park Community club will open its fall program of social events next Friday evening with a dancing party at the clubhouse on Sandy boulevard. All residents of the community are cordially invited to attend this opening party, which will be complimentary. The 1919-20 season's dances will be held on Friday evenings as usual and card parties will be given on Tuesday evenings. The committee in charge of the opening party is Dr. and Mrs. F. M. Higby, Mr. and Mrs. Chester W. Bourne, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Crout, Mr. and Mrs. Russell H. Stephens and Jess H. Dunlap. The card and dancing party to be given Monday evening in Hibernal hall, 340 Russell street, by the Ladies' auxiliary to Ancient Order of Hibernians, is looked forward to with pleasure by many, especially those who have enjoyed these affairs in past years. The committee in charge has been very active for the past week and reports that all arrangements have been completed. Progressive whist will be played in the early part of the evening and a three piece orchestra will furnish jazz music for the dancers. A special invitation is extended to strangers and visitors in the city. Dr. and Mrs. George F. Wilson and Mrs. and Mrs. Kenneth Beebe left the city on Wednesday for Rainier National park and British Columbia.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ulin of 438 Market street, and the bridegroom is the son of N. D. Crockett of Clackamas. Following a short stay at the beach, Mr. and Mrs. Crockett will make their home at 581 East Sixtieth street north.

A birthday party was given on Tuesday at the home of Mrs. E. J. Hagen for the young friends of her small daughter Marie. The rooms were artistically decorated with flowers in tones of pink. Music and dancing were features of the afternoon's diversion, the little hostess, Marie Hagen, entertaining with special numbers of toe dancing. Those present were: Hermina Franz, Mary Altenhofen, Helen Bird, Anita Brazier, Claire Blazier, Marina Hagen, Clarence Beede, Joseph Sable, Francis Maney, Edward Hawes, Ted Hodges, Ramone Hagen. Miss Cora L. Fox became the bride of James G. Ruhland of Calaveras, Cal., recently at the St. Johns Methodist Episcopal church, on Thursday evening officiating. The ring service of the church was used, Roy F. Thompson and Miss Dora V. Fox, sister of the bride, attending as best man and maid of honor. The bride is one of the most estimable young women. Mr. and Mrs. Ruhland will make their home in St. Johns. A quiet home wedding Wednesday evening was celebrated when R. Grant Ashbey of Canby, Or., and Mrs. Carrie P. Rodgers of this city were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Irvine of the St. Johns Methodist Episcopal church at the home of the bride, 201 West Richmond street. The new immediate friends, the dainty refreshments and the social half hour made the occasion a benediction. General and Mrs. P. J. O'Neil, who have been visitors in the city for a short time, left Portland on Thursday for Cheyenne, Wyo. During their stay in the city they have been the inspiration for much entertaining and their many friends regret their departure. Miss Etta Cummin and James Richards were quietly married early Wednesday morning at the home of the bride on Foster road by Rev. F. H. Mixsell, pastor of Anabel Presbyterian church. They left for Pendleton immediately after the wedding breakfast. The community dancing class, held under the management of the Franklin High school Parent-Teacher association and instructed by George E. Love, will resume activities on next Saturday night at 7:30 o'clock in the school gymnasium. Miss Evangeline Conner of this city became the bride of Eugene Griggs of Corvallis on Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's parents. The service was read by the Rev. F. H. Mixsell. They will make their home in Corvallis. Announcement is made by Mrs. L. Enkelos of the engagement of her daughter, Ethel, to Edward E. Cobb. The wedding date has not yet been chosen. Both of the young people are well known in B'nai B'rith circles. The ladies' annex of the Portland Social Turn Verein will give a dance the last Saturday of each month. The first dance will be given Saturday. All members and their friends are cordially invited to attend. Miss Carolyn S. Simon has returned to Portland after an absence of seven weeks in California. Miss Simon visited as far south as San Diego and spent several weeks in Los Angeles and in San Francisco.

How to Banish Wrinkles and Crow's Feet Quickly If your face is disfigured with wrinkles, no matter what the cause, you can quickly dispel every line, even the most obstinate, by using a simple, home-made wash lotion. Merely dissolve an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half pint with hazel-ingredients found in any drug-store. Bathe the face in this and presto—you scarcely believe your own eyes when you look into your mirror and behold the marvelous transformation! The remarkable astringent action of the saxolite tightens the skin, wrinkles are literally pressed out. Best of all, this result is not purely temporary, for the lotion has a healthful tonic action, which tends to strengthen and tone up the weakened tissue, and added to this, it has a permanent effect. Continued use. Use this once a day for awhile. It cannot injure the most delicate skin. It does not irritate, it leaves no trace—no one guesses the secret of your increasing youthful appearance.—Adv.

Auxiliary of Legion's Dance Is Wednesday

The American Legion auxiliary has completed arrangements for its informal dance and five hundred party to be given at the Multnomah hotel, Wednesday. Excellent music has been secured for the occasion. Proceeds of this dance are to be used for the benefit of soldiers in the various hospitals. A cordial invitation is extended to all those who are interested in the boys who served their country. Most of the boys are without homes or friends in this city and tickets can be secured in the Liberty temple from Mrs. Norris, president, also Mrs. F. H. Wheeler, Mrs. E. L. Dzeneka and Mrs. John Adams. Patrons and patronesses are: Mayor and Mrs. George L. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. George Funk, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Rivers, Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Walker, Major and Mrs. Pecki, Mrs. C. Morris, Mrs. W. A. Elvers, George Faus, Mrs. Minnie Monroe, Mrs. H. F. Wheeler, Mrs. E. L. Dzeneka, Mrs. John Adams. The floor committee includes: Mrs. John Adams, Mrs. Gordon Forbes and two small sons, Gordon Jr. and George William, left Portland on Monday evening for their home in the East. They have been spending the summer with Mrs. Forbes' sister, Mrs. Kenneth Boebe, and Mrs. Arthur Sherwood at Gearhart. Mrs. Forbes will first go to the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. John Forbes, in Morristown, N. J., and will then return to New York. The Travelers' Protective association will give a series of dances throughout the winter at Multnomah hotel. The dances are scheduled for the last Saturday of each month. The first of the series will be an event of Saturday evening, September 27. Mrs. Allen P. Noyes (Greta Butterfield) returned to Portland on Monday, after spending a number of weeks at Hillcrest farm; the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Butterfield. Mrs. Butterfield will return to the city early in October. The Rev. and Mrs. F. H. Mixsell, who have come to Portland to live, were guests of honor at a reception given by the members of Anabel Presbyterian church on Friday evening, in the church parlors. Miss Dorothy E. Middlebrook of Corvallis on the Hudson, New York, is visiting in the city at the home of Mrs. James E. Brophy at Elton Court for a short time. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Harris have taken a home at Oswego for the winter months. They will occupy the residence of the Thomas family, on C street. Lady Ross of Toronto, who has been the house guest of Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Kirby for the past week, left Monday for California where she will spend the winter. Of interest to their many friends is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Lucille Dunn to Gaven C. Dyott, which was quietly solemnized on Wednesday. The service was read in the presence of the immediate families of the bridal couple at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Percival, the Rev. William T. Eliot officiating. Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Dyott left for the Mackenzie river, making the trip by motor, where they will spend a few days. The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dunn of Eugene, is an unusually interesting girl. She was a student at the University of Oregon and during the war period was most active and successful in war work. She was head of the Eugene unit of the Girls' Honor Guard and during the recent influenza epidemic did first aid work with the Red Cross emergency service. She is gifted in music and painting and has enjoyed the advantages of foreign travel. Mr. Dyott is the son of the late Dr. Luther R. Dyott and Mrs. Dyott of Portland. He attended Agrihul academy at Brooklyn, N. Y., and was graduated from Portland academy and the University of Oregon. For the past four years he has been a student in the school of medicine of the University of Oregon and is now completing his senior year. During the summer he has been on duty as an interne in St. Vincent's hospital. He is a member of Kappa Sigma Fraternity and has a wide circle of friends in the city. Mr. and Mrs. Dyott will return to Portland early next week and will make their home in the city. Students and alumni of the Oregon State Agricultural college attended an informal dance given at the Hotel Multnomah Tuesday evening. Patrons and patronesses included Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Myers, Mr. and Mrs. George M. Cornwall, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Irvine and Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Spence. The committee in charge was composed of active and alumni students.
