Aged Native of Maine Passed Away Friday In His Portland Home

Norman Alexander Webb died Friday at his home, 2 East Eighth street north, at the age of 76. He was a native of Maine and had resided in Portland for the past six years. Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 2 p. m. at the Holman parlors, Third and Salmon, under the auspices of the Apostolic Faith. Mr. Webb is survived by his widow, Mrs. Gertrude Webb, and two sons, S. A. Webb of Merida, Idaho, and Earl Webb of Melba, Idaho.

E. W. Hungate for many years a resident of Portland, died on Thursday morning at his home at 1230 Salmon street, where he had been confined for some time. Mr. Hungate, formerly active in business affairs in the city and widely known, had been in failing health for some six years and had sought in vain a restoration of his normal health in California.

Mr. Hungate, aged 42 at the time of his death, is survived by his widow, Mrs. Gertrude Hungate, and two brothers. Funeral services will be conducted on Monday at 2:30 from the Sunnyside Methodist Episcopal church. The Masonic lodge, of which he was a member, will have charge of the services. Mr. Hungate was also a member of the Odd Fellows.

W. H. Hooker for a number of years a resident of Oregon City, died at his Portland home, 607 East Fifty-first street, at 10:30 Friday morning from pneumonia. Mr. Hooker, born in Illinois, spent many years in Oregon and had surrounded himself with a wide circle of friends during an active career. Funeral arrangements uncompleted Saturday provide for burial in Mountain View cemetery, Oregon City, with services at the Holman parlors. Burial will be on Monday.

City Engineer Marx Condemns and Closes Bridge at The Dalles

The Dalles, Sept. 20.—The West Sixth street bridge of The Dalles has been condemned by City Engineer P. W. Marx, and hereafter no vehicles will be permitted to pass over it. Bonds for the construction of a new bridge across Mill creek at this point have been authorized and sold, and the plans for the new structure are now being considered.

Grand Jury Nails Two The Dalles, Sept. 20.—The grand jury has returned two true bills against Sidney Allen, charged with a statutory crime against a 11-year-old girl, and James P. Collins, attempting to pass a worthless check.

Police Commission Advocated Seattle, Wash., Sept. 20.—(U. P.) Mayor Fitzgerald today announced that he would attempt to have a charter amendment ratified creating a police commission here.

Fern Ross Friends of Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Ross of this city will regret to learn of the death of their little daughter, Fern, aged 6, who died at Mare Island, Cal., September 17, where Dr. Ross is in the medical service of the U. S. navy. The funeral was held Saturday from the F. S. Dunning establishment in this city and burial services at the family plot in Rose City cemetery.

Jaeger Bros. have long been known as the Diamond Merchants of Portland—experts in these beautiful stones. We have recently purchased at advantageous prices a fine lot of diamonds, which, added to our already large stock, gives us one of the most comprehensive assortments on the Pacific Coast.

Exquisite gems, varying from the small but lovely stone at $25 to large, finer stones at $100. Other stones $500-$1000-$1500-$2000-$2500

Pearl Necklaces Genuine and Imitation Pearl Necklaces are to be especially favored by society this season, and every one knows that nothing is lovelier than such a necklace, whether it's worn by the tiny maiden, the debutante, or the stately matron.

We are showing a wonderful selection of Orienta and Florette Pearl Necklaces, probably the finest imitation pearls manufactured today. These necklaces come in the following lengths: 10, 18, 20, 24 and 28 inch.

$15 to $250 Some have solid gold clasps, others platinum mounted in diamonds.

The Importance of Looking Successful It is particularly necessary for a young professional man—doctor, lawyer, architect, engineer—to have a successful-looking office. And doubly necessary when he has become famous. The young man must make his clients believe that he is going to be successful, otherwise they will have no confidence in him. Prominent professional and business men have their prestige to protect.
