Japanese Diplomat Says Outbreaks Against His People Are Inspired by Politicians.

Tokio, Sept. 20 .- (U. P.) - "Keep cool!"

was the advice given his countrymen by Kenzo Adachi, the 'Colonel House" of Viscount Kato and credited as one of Japan's shrewdest politicians, when he returned from a tour of Europe and the United States.

Outbreaks against Japan now occurring regularly in the United States, he said, were merely for political effect. with the presidential election in mind. The Republicans in the senate, he said, do not represent the majority of America, and the senate foreign relations committee's Shantung amendment will not be accepted by the senate.

Adachi reminded the Japanese that Americans always speak frankly. As for Irish independence, Adachi said for the Japanese government to consider "would be diplomatically preposter-

City Officials Flee From Drumwright to Escape Fury of Mob

Cushing, Okla., Sept. 23.-(I. N. S.)-Mayor Nicodemus and several of the officials of Drumwright, Ckla., have fled to this place to escape the fury of a mob which late Monday took possession of the town. All wires to Drumwright, according to the telegraph companies, have been taken over or cut by

The mob organized in sympathy with telephone strikers, and, after a picket had been struck by an officer, threats of lynchings were made. The mayor and other officials were given until 10 o'clock Tuesday morning to resign. Before that hour, however, they had escaped from the town after spending a part of the night in jail for their own
