

"Sinister Dick" took the next train out of town without going near the seats who always have their say about George M. Cohn and Steve Reardon, ballyard. He didn't want that kind the way baseball should be played, and who motored out here for the series,

It struck some of the "grandstand

It struck some of the "grandstand managers," the chaps up yonder in the "The Sidewalks of New York," whereat ballyard, He didn't want that kind the way baseball allourd be played, and brought Rought for quite a played the play called the sacrifice.

as he is, he will find the Reds a bad club to tamper with:

player from the Hoosier state, whose invariable opening to a conversation is "Wa'al, now."

"Wa'al, Bill" has divided the catching and Grider featured.

was Sherman Cochran, left tackle, but he was ably assisted by Toole, Girt and Hiatt. Time after time Cochran broke through the opposition and it mainly was through his efforts that Commerce was kept from making any yardage. For Commerce, Munger, Stringham, Johnson 1 C'ningh'm.cf 0 Lapan.c... 1 Schorr.p... 1 Reiger.p... 2 "Sweeney... 1 Thomas... 0 : Mullen... 1 Wash., shortly before 9 o'clock today. according to a telegram received by

in. He was followed by R. Smith, Ed

Totals. SCORE BY INNINGS

Seattle

Sacramento 0-9 Berreth and Joe Schantin on Excel-

EL CAMINO

