RESIDENTS OF WEST TO 'DIG' TO GET ROAD

Petitioners Would Pay $1000 Mile Extra to Connect With Rex-Tigard Section.

Resident petitioners of West Chehaa offer to pay $1000 a mile for a 16oot hard surface road, in addition to heir taxes, licenses, and voted bonds in proposition submitted Thursday to the ounty court. The road, if built, will be miles in length and will be the means of connecting the Rex-Tigard road to the Wapato road.

The road asked for by the residents of West Chehalem, according to those interested in the proposition, will connect three highways leading south, southwest and west from Postland, the much the ind west from Portland, through the Willamette valley to Salem, Tillamook and the proposed coast highway.

If steep grades are eliminated, assurance is given the Yanfhill county court that the state highway commission has promised state aid. The amount of such liberated aid has not been determined.

nancial aid has not been determined. legist that the movement deserves the apport of the farmers and commercial lubs of Yambill county is expressed by he committee in charge of the petition. he plan is to have the county court ace $40,000 in the budget this year. amounts are asked for the 1920 and 1921 budgets, which will be condi-ional on the state aid and donations
