Manager of Beavers Is Cooking Up Deals to Make First Division Club of Beavers-Seeks Outfielder of Ryan Type and Couple of Steady Twirlers.

Beavers. The big fellow has several deals in mind, but is keeping mum on them, for the present at least, but you can bet your "kelly" that Mac will have a team next year that will be hustling all the time.

Mac is looking out for an outfielder—two of them if he can land 'em-of the "Buddy" Ryan type. A couple of steady twirlers, and three if "Red" Oldham is taken over by the Detroit Tigers, are also being sought.

"I got something to build to for next year," said Mac as he cuddled up a little bit closer to the radiator in his "palace," "and it will not be as hard to round out a good squad. Last spring we started with but two ball players and built up a pretty fair ag-gregation, and if we had had Wisterzil and Rader or Kingdon at the start we would have been up a little higher And then, there's the jinx that was camping on my trail all season. Willamette Eleven Play Tie Game With Strong Alumni Squad Willamette University, Salem, Oct. 11. By holding an all-star alumni team to a tie score of 3 to 3 in the initial game of the season, played on Sweetland field today, the Willamette eleven showed themselves to be in excellent trim for a successful season. Stars from varsity teams since 1912 represented the alumni but they were unable to score until in the last four minutes. 'Pruney" Francis, who has been playing for Multnomah since his graduation, succeeded in place kicking for three points from the 38 yard line.

PULLMAN EXPECTS A HARDGAME

Coach Welsh Expects Multnomah Team to Put Up Great Fight Against Washington Staters.

WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE, Pullman, Oct. 11.—All hope for the return of Fred Glover, the brilliant halfback on the 1917 state college eleven, has been given up by Athletic Director Bohler. Although Glover registered last Monday he has failed to report to classes and is reported to have returned to his ranch.

The line is fast showing form . with Duniap at center, the King brothers at guard, Herreld and Hamilton at tackle and Roy Hanley and Bert, Brooks at end. Captain Dick Hanley continues calling signals, with McIvor as understudy. The latter promises to make pos-sible the shifting of the captain to halfback, which would strengthen the backfield considerably with Gillis at fulback and Mike Moran and Jenne for the other halves.

The student assembly today voted to send the college hand to Spokane on October 18 when the locals meet Multnomah at the Interstate fairgrounds. A special train will be run earrying the contingent of State college which will accompany the team.

"I hardly expect to win the Mult-nomah game," said Coach Welsh to-night, "for I realize that the club will nave great advantage in experience." He added that he expected to use many substitutes in order to discover ma-terial for replacements. The team is fast counding into excellent physical condi-
