

COMMUTERS FORM BIGGEST NUMBER OF ARMY STORE BUYERS

Automobiles in Evidence Parked Near Salesrooms at Local Supply Place, However.

Limoine customers aren't buying out the government store at Fourth and Pine streets. Neither are jitneys. P. R. L.
& P. G. centers seem to be getting the biggest share of the bargains.

"Sorry, lady, but you can't park your corned beef here," the exit guard admonished Saturday afternoon, as a woman began piling up cases of canned goods just outside the door.

"Well, where can I put them?" the housewife inquired. She had come to town on a street car and forgotten transportation limitations under stress of bargaining.

Sitting on the curbstone any day now may be seen scores of family purchasing agents.

One hundred motor cars were parked in the vicinity of the Marshall-Wells building when a count was made at 3 p. m. Saturday. Jitneys predominated.
Here and there a sandwich board between the fliers were heavier and costlier cars.

Mail order sales last week totalled $20,000, according to First lieutenant Joe Joplin, in charge of that department. Shipments were made to all parts of Oregon and the southern part of Idaho.

Shoes are beginning to arrive in Portland, and with underwear, will be placed on sale perhaps Wednesday morning, when additional floor space will be available.

Reed Students Get Real Money For "Acting"

Reed college supplied a rosters' section of cheering football fans for the American Lithograph company Saturday at Multnomah field, where several scenes in the "Golden Trail" are being filmed.
Entering the professional movie field with considerable eclat, the Reed crowd appeared in snappy togs, with white, hats, banners, megaphones, and all the paraphernalia necessary for football "atmosphere." Several hundred feet of film were turned off, and the rosters were given instructions to show anxiety, disgust or exultation as the imaginary ball traveled back and forth across the field.

Most of the young actors are members of the Reed College Drama club, and several of them starred in last year's production of a Reed college movie. Following two hours of filming, a pay line was formed, and the budding screen artists received their first "stage money." They all agreed that $3 was big pay for a morning party before the camera, and it is possible that some of the young ladies who were given special parts during the performance will interpret the act as an invitation to life careers as movie stars.

Commercial Uses Of Wires Advised

Planning for an education campaign to acquaint the public with greater commercial uses of the telegraph, a three-day conference of Western Union officials ended Saturday night. Present were M. T. Cook, general manager of the Pacific division, and C. F. Newson, district commercial manager, both of San Francisco; General Commercial Agent Kaufman of New York city; P.
C. Cole of Seattle, district commercial superintendent; W. R. Williams, local manager, and W. A. Robb, local commercial manager. Nine Oregon branch office managers were here also.

J. A. Parcel 2800th Student to Enroll

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Oct. 13.—To James A. Parcel of Berkeley, Cal., goes the distinction of being the 2800th student regularly to enroll in the institution. Parcel finished his sophomore year in the school of pharmacy at Oregon Agricultural college, later attending the Oakland Medical school. Upon being discharged from the army in January, Parcel went to Alaska, having charge of the dispensary and dressing room for the Alaska Packing association. A slow sailing ship made it impossible for Parcel to arrive at the opening of the school year.
