Junior League To Present Lectures

Funds Will Go to Benefit of Woman's Building of The U. of O.

By Helen H. Hutchison
 AN ANNOUNCEMENT of interest for the near future is that of the lecture course to be given again this year under the auspices of the Junior League. The lectures will be given this year to raise funds for the benefit of the Woman's building of the University of Oregon and as the course given last year was more than a success and much enjoyed by those who attended, the members of the league are enthusiastic in planning for the work again this year. The lectures will be given Friday mornings at 11 o'clock at the Presbyterian church house. Tickets will be sold for the course by members of the league and a large number of society matrons have promised to lend their support to make the sale a success. Six lectures will be given before Christmas and six following the holidays. Those who will give the lectures include Dr. George Rebec of the University of Oregon, Dr. Franklin Thomas, Dr. C. W. DeBusk, Dr. E. C. Robbins and Dr. Joseph Shafer. The topics chosen will include current history and subjects of interest at the present time. The first lecture will be given about the first of November.

Song and Drill Entertain P.T.A.

Lectures by Y. W. C. A. Worker And University Also on the Program; Club News.

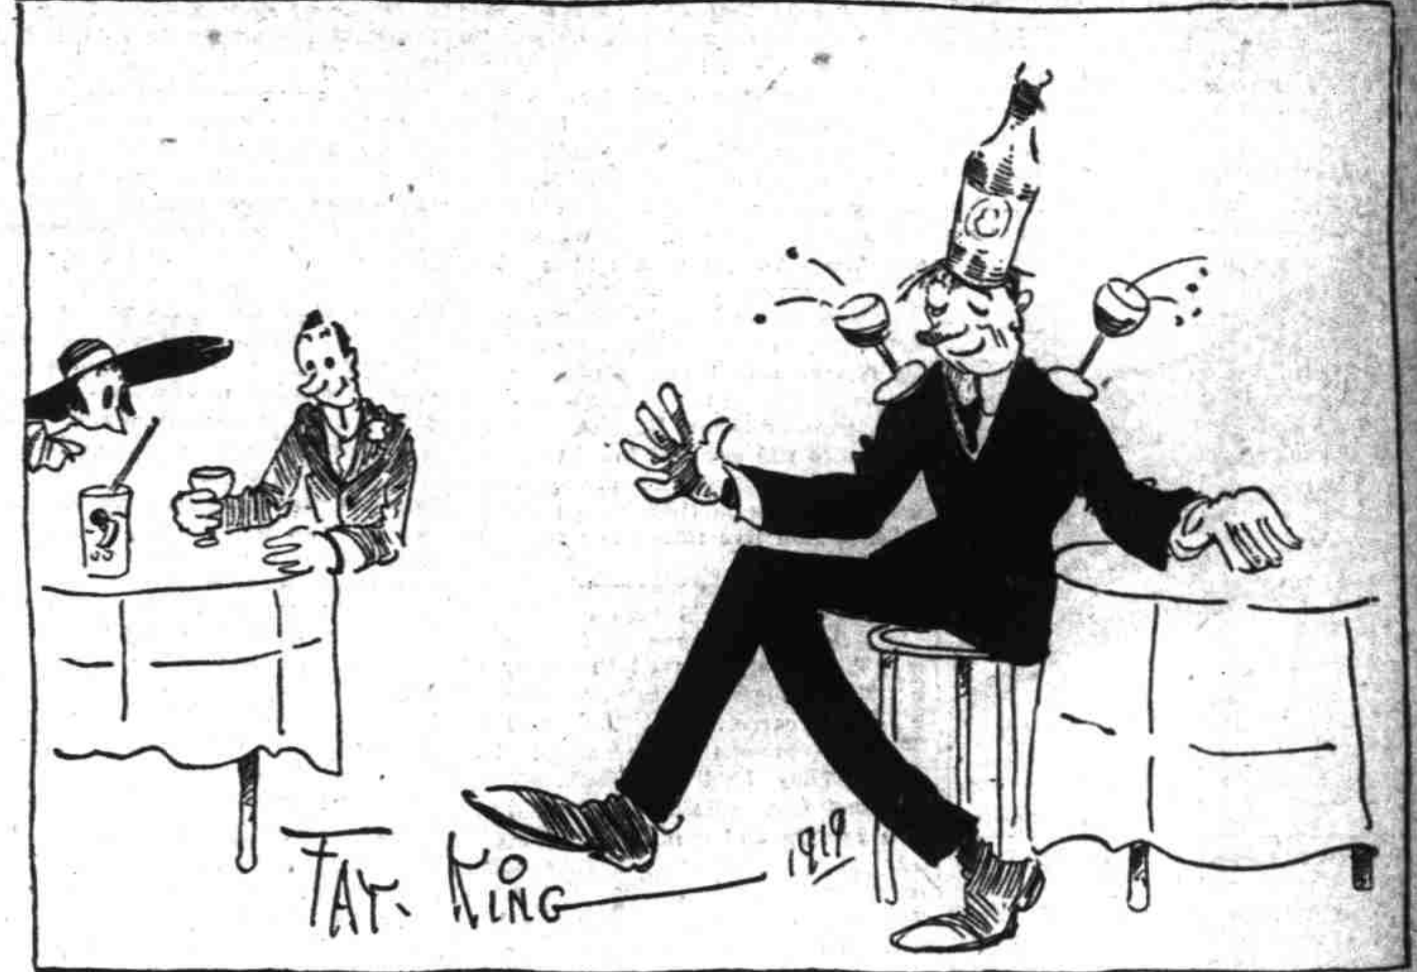

By Vella Winner
 THE Clinton Kelly Parent-Teacher circle met Thursday, October 9, at the school. After a song by Miss Basford's pupils and an excellent gymnastic drill by Miss Hulda Schneider's class, the circle was given a brief talk by Miss Elsie Wible of the Young Women's Christian association, on industrial club work, a form of community service which is being inaugurated in Portland. Miss Wible also spoke of the girl reserves, an organization which is designed to be of help to the younger girls from 10 to 18. Dr. Thomas of the University of Oregon gave an address on community center work. Its aim, he stated, is to attain the maximum of social efficiency for the community. This can be secured by "training in cooperation, which is the only way to arrive at true democracy." The program concluded with a violin solo by Howard Raber, who was accompanied by his small sister, Margaret. A short business session closed the afternoon.

entry, will hold its final meeting Thursday at 1 p. m., in room 201, courthouse. All members are requested to be present and have a voice in the decision as to the disposition of the funds remaining in the treasury. The matter of joining a permanent organization in a body will also be discussed.

Woodstock W. C. T. U. will meet Tuesday afternoon, October 14, at the home of Mrs. E. R. Body, 5721 Woodstock avenue.
 The Cathedral Parent-Teacher association announces its annual theatre party to be given at the Alkazar theatre on Tuesday night. These parties have been very successful social affairs for the last few years, and it is expected that next Tuesday's event will be the most largely attended of any that have been given. Several line and box parties have been arranged for the evening. "Have a Heart," one of the most successful musical comedies of recent years, will be the offering. Among the city ones who will represent the Pacific coast at the International Congress of Working Women to be held in Washington, D. C., October 19 to 22, just preceding the International Labor congress, this young woman is Miss Magdalene Beck, who is employed at Neustadter Brothers' garment factory, where the local Y. W. C. A. some years ago held group gatherings and good time parties with the girls employed there. These two hundred or more girls one noon last week elected Miss Beck as the person who could most ably represent them at this congress, which is the very first of its kind to be called. It was very evident that Miss Beck was chosen because of her sterling qualities of reliability and her oneness with and interest in both the girls and her employer's business. The Neustadter girls have also expressed a live interest in the prospect of forming an industrial club under the direction of the new Y. W. C. A. industrial secretary, Miss Wible, for they are to be the first group to select their own representative on the provisional council. Such a club anticipates meeting weekly for fun, fellowship and study. Miss Beck is being sent to Washington by the national board of the Young Women's Christian Association, and will be accorded the pleasure of attending a part of the International Labor congress, as well as the whole of the International Congress of Working Women. Miss Constance MacCorkle, national Y. W. C. A. secretary, who has been working with the local association during the past week, will also be a delegate.

A rare privilege has recently been given the Portland Young Women's Christian Association, that of finding among the industrially employed young women of the city one who will represent the Pacific coast at the International Congress of Working Women to be held in Washington, D. C., October 19 to 22, just preceding the International Labor congress, this young woman is Miss Magdalene Beck, who is employed at Neustadter Brothers' garment factory, where the local Y. W. C. FAY KING SAYS BAN ON BOOZE TAKES COMEDY OUT OF SOME GUYS

By Fay King
 (Miss King is a Portland girl, whose first newspaper work was published in The Journal several years ago. She now is located in New York.)
 When they scratched booze from the track they took all the comedy out of some guys.
 And if the cocktail clown only knew it, it's the best thing they ever did for him.
 A guy that had to pour a barrel of booze in his system before he could be funny had to get the gang just that full, too, before they could appreciate his humor.

I guess the guy that pulled the table cloth off and broke all the dishes thought that was funny. The fact of the matter is, all that saved him from getting his jaw cayed was the fact that no man would bother to smash a drunk or an idiot; and just as long as he had a roll of green to peel bills off of they'd stand for any other little "fun" he might think of.
 Now that he is pulling those stunts off in his own cellar, we don't have to have him spill our evening.

 It certainly is a relief not to find a sot at the next table picking a fight with a waiter or pal, and bouncing bottles off the ceiling.
 Sounds like a joint—but it wasn't always the bum cafes that had to put up with that sort of stuff. Many a bird with platinum cuff links gets a meaner jag on than the little fellow that has to remember that he can't pay for damages.

detail. Mrs. Walter Eakin was elected president of the club. The meetings will be held at the homes of the various members.
 The Couch Parent-Teacher association will meet Wednesday at 3 p. m. Miss Dorothy Elliott of Reed college will speak on "Physical Defects and Their Correction." Miss Gertrude Hoerber will sing, and Miss Isa Bolton will give piano numbers.

"Famous Players" In Portland to Make Some Scenes

On their tour of the United States, in course of which nearly every place of scenic and historic interest will be visited and photographed, a party of motion picture players, cameramen and assistants are in Portland this week. They are representing the Famous Players-Lasky corporation and are engaged in the making of a scenic serial, "So This is America." Beauty spots in and about Portland will be photographed during the week for inclusion in the serial. Leading player with the visitors is Jack Gardner, well-known stage, screen and vaudeville actor. Others in the party are Miss Viola Dapfel, leading woman; A. E. Gillstrom, director; Rob Eddy, assistant director; Don Kenower, flake Kirby, Budd Ross and George Myers, cameramen.
 Mrs. Gardner is Louise Dressler, actress.

Daily Fashion Hint

Feminine Grace Marks New Evening Gowns

THE fascinating model to the left is made of Algerian red satin in figure and plain effect. The straight tunic is tucked at the lower edge and gathered at the waist. A narrow peplum finishes the simple bodice with square neck. Gros grain ribbon is used for the belt, tied in bows at one side. Medium size requires four and one half yards 36 inch figured and one and one half yards 36 inch plain satin with one and one half yards lining for gores.
 Satin brocade is charming for a gown developed after the second model. Both skirt and waist are draped in one piece effect and the short train falls in a point at the back. A bit of silver lace forms the vest and there are no sleeves. Medium size requires five yards 40 inch satin with three and three quarters yards 36 inch lining.
 First model: Pictorial Review waist No. 8263. Sizes 34 to 44 inches bust. Price 25 cents. Skirt No. 8492. Sizes 24 to 38 inches waist. Price 25 cents.
 Second model: Costume No. 8487. Sizes 34 to 42 inches bust. Price 35 cents.

Mint Jell

Try Mint Jiffy-Jell with roast lamb or cold meats. It is vastly better than mint sauce. Try Jiffy-Jell desserts with their real fruit flavors in essence form, in vials. Each is so rich in condensed fruit juice that it makes a real fruit dainty. Yet they cost no more than old-style gelatine desserts.

KIDDIES

Three Theatres Are Taken Over by Hunts

Medford, Oct. 12.—It is announced here that Mr. and Mrs. George Hunt, former managers of the Page theatre, have taken over the Liberty theatre in Medford from the Jensen & Von Herberg syndicate, which recently acquired it, and the Oregon and Star theatres of Grants Pass, and henceforth will conduct them. Henry Harcke, manager of the Liberty, will be retained and will either manage the Liberty or the two theatres at Grants Pass.

The Dutch government has extended the time of the visit of the former crown prince of Germany to his father, the former kaiser.
