

FATAL COLLISION OCCURS IN FOG

Boy Motorcyclist Dives Into Heavy Truck at Sharp Turn and Is Instantly Killed.

Blinded by a low hanging fog, Daniel Schnell of Tigard, 19 years old, crashed head-on into a heavy truck operated by the Willamette Valley Transportation company and was instantly killed at Ryan place, one half mile from Muttomann station, about 6:30 this morning.

Schnell, on his motorcycle, was on his way to work at the Northwest Steel company. While speeding into a sharp turn his cycle lurched into the big truck and the rider was thrown several feet to the side of the road. Schnell suffered a compound fracture of the skull.

N. D. Lichtenthaler, driver of the truck, had been advised of blame. He declares that Schnell had crashed into his machine entirely without warning. Witnesses declare Schnell was traveling more than 40 miles an hour when his machine struck the truck cutting off its speedometer as though by a pair of shears. Schnell's head struck a corner of the truck bed and is said to have torn off the crown of his skull.

The driver of the big truck, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Schnell of Tigard. His body is at the morgue. Lichtenthaler is said to have had a bad accident near the same spot several months ago. He was accused of monopolizing the road with his truck and hit a small machine and knocked it off the road and down a bank. The driver of the small machine was pinned beneath it and badly hurt.
