Plant of Alsea River Lumber Co. Designed to Cut as High as Fifty Million Feet Yearly.

TIMBER HOLDINGS LARGE

Railroad Seven Miles in Length Being Built and River Is Being Dammed.

The huge modern sawmill which is being built at Glenbrook, Benton county, is the property of the Alsea River Lumber company. The company is capitalized at $1,000,000 and owns more than a billion feet of standing timber in Benton county. The new mill will have a capacity of 50,000,000 feet of lumber annually.

A railroad seven miles in length is being built from Glenbrook into the timber holdings of the Alsea river concern by the Bowditch-Miller-Crier company of Portland. Several miles of highway and a number of bridges will also be constructed in the Glenbrook project by this company.

The Alsea river is being dammed at Glenbrook to form a mill pond and supply electrical energy for the operation of the mill. Several hundred men are at work on the project. Machinery and other equipment for the mill is arriving daily and it is planned to have the plant in operation within a few months.

Permanent buildings for business purposes and dwellings for officers and employees of the Alsea River Lumber company are being constructed at Glenbrook. The town is located on the Corvallis & Alpine branch of the Southern Pacific about 20 miles northwest of Eugene. Plans of the lumber company include the erection of a modern school house, installation of water and electric lighting systems and other public improvements.

Officers of the Alsea River Lumber company are: E. B. Kingman of Columbus, Mont., president; M. Nash of Eugene, recently of New York city, vice president; L. M. Butnam of Jamestown, N. Y., treasurer; T. O. Russell of Eugene, manager. E. L. Knapp of Jamestown, N. Y., and W. W. Snyder of Rockford, Ill., are also heavily interested in the project.

The Alsea River Lumber company recently acquired the property of the Napa River Lumber company from George M. Duncan and has other holdings in Oregon besides its Glenbrook property.

Klamath Falls Post Opposes Lane's View

Klamath Falls, Oct. 15.—As a result of the attitude of Secretary of the Interior Lane on the leasing of 10,000 acres of government land in Klamath county to Dook & Brown of San Francisco, Klamath post No. 8, American Legion, will meet tonight to prepare an answer to his letter, in which he speaks of engineering difficulties in reclamation of the land for homestead use and concludes that "the department is handling the matter according to the demands of good government and in the public interest."

WEDDING REVEALS ROMANCE

Mrs. Charles S. Rudeen, who, until last Monday, was Miss Agnes Klupeneger, pretty 21-year-old stenographer in her husband's office. Mr. and Mrs. Rudeen are touring California, out of reach of surprised friends.

Romance, enacted quietly within the parish house of Sacred Heart church, rather than the sort that is written for fiction stories, had its climax last Monday in the marriage of Agnes Klupeneger, 21-year-old stenographer, and her employer, Charles S. Rudeen, proprietor of the Alder Market, and Rose Festival official.

It was Mrs. Theresa Klupeneger, 435 Eugene street, mother of the bride, who revealed the pretty story that has been carried into California by the happy honeymoon party.

Rev. Fainer bias read the marriage ceremony in the presence of immediate relatives last Monday night. It marked the termination of a courtship extending over seven months. It is said, and was "just what we expected," relatives declare.

"They were inseparable, although Mr. Rudeen is much the senior of Agnes," sister Mildred said. "I was certain they would be married before long."

Miss Klupeneger's home is in McMinnville, she having come to Portland about two years ago. She had been employed as Mr. Rudeen's stenographer for the last eight months. Mr. and Mrs. Rudeen will return to Portland within the next six weeks and make their home here.

Inspectors Maloney, Howell and Tackaberry, acting on information from the Michigan authorities. He claimed there was no evidence warranting extradition, and protested against the arrest and removal on a warrant furnished by Smoke, who came to Portland when notified by local authorities that English was in custody.

YANKEES COME BACK WITH COUNTER BILL AGAINST MINE HOST

Paris Hotel Man Told American Peace Delegation Taught Foreigners U. S. Methods.

London, Oct. 15.—(I. N. S.)—Now that the American peace delegation is winding up its activities in Paris, it has been confronted with a bill by the proprietor of the Hotel Crillon, American peace headquarters, according to a report reaching London.

Over and above the rent agreed upon when the hotel was requisitioned for the housing of the American plenipotentiaries and their staff, the following charges were included in the bill:

To loss of clientele, $30,000.

To demoralization of staff and by having accustomed them to receiving wages above the ordinary standard, $45,000.

To these demands the American peace delegation has not replied directly, but they in turn sent in a bill to the proprietor of the Hotel Crillon, the main items being:

To advertisement of hotel by making it American headquarters, $30,000.

To improvement of staff by teaching them American methods of work, $45,000.

So far the hotel proprietor has not found a reply to this counter from the Yankees.

Final Warning Is Given Auto Owners By Traffic Officers

Drivers of automobiles in the business district of the city who are making a souvenir collection of police tags, had better take the matter a little more seriously from now on, as Lieutenant H. A. Lewis of the traffic department is on the war path.

Looking over records Tuesday morning he found that 15 persons had three or more tags against them. A letter was addressed to each of the 15 by Lewis warning them against further infractions of the law.

"The next offense means a trip to the court room," he said.

In her absence the work of her department has been carried on with the aid of three assistants, all advanced students, Miss Gene Sevy of Milton, Miss Lucille Tucker of Salem and Orvil C. Miller of Salem.

Chas. Carlson Found Dead in His Room

Lying on a bed in a room on the third floor of a rooming house at 80 1/2 Grand avenue north, the body of Charles Carlson, 42, a laborer employed by the Portland Railway, Light & Power company, was found dead about 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. C. Knutson, proprietor of the place, was the first to discover the body. He notified the police and Motorcycle Officer Schal and Chief Deputy Coroner Leo Gosch were summoned. From the appearance of the body it is thought that the man died about three days ago from natural causes. Carlson was a bachelor and is thought to have an uncle living in Portland by the same name.

Merchant Arrested; Sent Bad Eggs Here

Sheriff Hurlbut has received word that a warrant issued out of his office was served Saturday upon Sh. Kahah, Eugene commission merchant, who is charged with shipping imperfect eggs to Portland. It is said that 1050 dozen eggs were shipped as "strictly fresh," and that 12 dozen of the lot were entirely bad. Four hundred dozen more were not fit for use.

Cabinet Shoulders Presidents Duties

Washington, Oct. 15.—The cabinet met Tuesday and prepared to assume as many as possible of the responsibilities of President Wilson for the remainder of the period of his illness and confinement. This means, in short, cabinet operation of the executive branches of the government until the president is well enough to resume his duties, or at least sufficiently recovered to guide the cabinet.

Delay Enforcement Of Trust Law Act

Washington, Oct. 15.—(I. N. S.)—The judiciary committee of the senate has reported favorably on a resolution by Senator Kellogg of Minnesota, to extend until July 1, 1920, the time for going into effect of a provision of the Clayton anti-trust law, which would forbid common carriers from making purchases from their subsidiary corporations.

Pendleton Dealers In Realty Start New County Association

Pendleton, Oct. 15.—Twelve Pendleton real estate men have organized the Umatilla County Realty association for the purpose of including all licensed dealers in the county. The association aims to be of mutual benefit to dealers, to build better relations between dealers and buyers and to guard themselves and the public against unscrupulous dealers. E. T. Wade is president, J. H. Egan, vice president, and J. C. Snow, secretary-treasurer. An executive committee of four was appointed.

County Nurse Resigns
Pendleton, Oct. 15.—Miss Agnes Flanagan, county health nurse, Tuesday resigned after one month's service. Illness of Miss Flanagan's mother caused her to resign. She is succeeded by Miss Florence Smiley, who arrived from Seattle Monday. The physical examinations among school children and other campaigns planned by Miss Flanagan will be continued by Miss Smiley.

League Expected to Settle Peru-Chile Conflict Amicably

Lima, Peru, Oct. 15.—(U. P.)—Provisional President Leguia, in an address from the balcony of the presidential palace today, expressed the hope that the League of Nations would solve the conflict between Peru and Chile.

"The cruel manner in which Chile has demonstrated her hostility toward Peru is deplorable," he said. "Seemingly she is working to provoke new conflicts, but it is not to be expected that the present situation can continue any longer."

Leguia said he hoped the League of Nations, in solving the trouble, would listen to the truth and render justice.
