

CEREMONIAL OF DOKEYS PYTHIAN LODGE FEATURE

Spectacular and Crowning Event Draws Large Attendance to Local Temple.

STREET PARADE LIVELY

Pythian Sisters Meet; Mrs. Alice E. Garley, Grand Chief, Presides at Session.

Julien A. Hurley

The ceremonial of the "Dokeys" was the spectacular and crowning feature of the two days of Pythian festivities this week attending the Grand Lodge. It was given by Abd-Ugl-Atief temple, No. 117, Dramatic Order Knights of Khorassan, Tuesday night at the Masonic temple.

This order is the shrine of the K. of P. and the largest auditorium of the Masonic Temple was packed tight with members and visitors. The street parade started from the K. of P. hall and was headed by the D. O. K. K. band, flanked by the team of brigades under command of T. C. Friberg, and escorting Grand Vizier Martin Larsen, mercenary potentate of the realm.

More than 1000 captives followed in his train. Fezzed "Dokeys" brought up the rear to the number of several hundred.

Magnificently attired divan of officers and the well-arranged array of musical talent under Frank Maughan, leader, attracted the attention of the thousands of spectators along the streets until they passed within the mysterious portals of the Masonic Temple. After the ceremonial had been perpetrated a banquet at the Hotel Benson terminated the festivity.

INSTRUCTOR POINTS OUT HOW HOUSEWIVES COULD CUT EXPENSES

Mrs. C. W. Batterson, Domestic Science Expert, Shows Way to Defeat Profiteer.

Housewives could effect a great saving in the cost of living by making their vacations profitable, says Mrs. C. W. Batterson, domestic science instructor at the Girls' Polytechnic school. At the seashore fish, clams and crabs might be canned for winter use. In the mountains fish and wild berries are abundant, and a trip to the country should result in a store of fruit and berries. Thousands Attend Jewish Services in Honor of Holidays

Thousands of worshippers fill the auditorium and gallery of the Shaarei Torah synagogue, corner First and Hill streets, at each service during the high holidays that started on the evening of September 25 and will end October 17. From reform, conservative and orthodox congregations, worshippers come to Shaarei Torah synagogue. Beautiful sacred music artistically presented marks each service. Rabbi Herman Marchein performs a difficult role, that of cantor and choir director. Tears dimmed the eyes of his listeners. To the old he revived fond memories of their homes and their own traditional chants, and to the young he brought a promise of what an orthodox service properly conducted might mean to Jewish youth, members of his congregation declare.

The choir, consisting of 16 male voices, sang through the long ritual with ease and understanding, showing careful training on the part of the director.

Warning Is Issued Against Spread of Counterfeit Stamps

Counterfeit war savings stamps, cleverly designed in replica of the regular government issue, have been discovered in the hands of dealers in the East, and to ward off a possible invasion by the spurious securities of the Pacific Coast, the federal reserve bank of San Francisco has issued a coastwise warning.

The counterfeit stamps are of the 1918 issue, it is said. The stamps are photographic reproductions in gold, color, blue ink, but the fine lines behind the portrait in the genuine appear in solid color in the counterfeit. The perforations of the genuine stamp appear photographed on the counterfeit.

Barber Gives Recipe for Gray Hair

Mr. A. E. O'Brien, who has been a barber in New York City for many years, made the following statement: "Gray, streaked or faded hair can be immediately made black, brown or light brown, whichever shade you desire, by the use of the following remedy that you can make at home:

"Merely get a box of Orlex powder at any drug store. It costs very little and no extras to buy. Dissolve it in 4 oz. of distilled or rain water and comb it through the hair. Full directions for use and a gold bond guarantee come in each box. One box will last you for months. "It is safe, does not rub off, is not sticky or gummy and leaves the hair fluffy. It will make a gray-haired person look 20 years younger."—Adv.
