

Advertisement for an independent newspaper, including subscription rates and contact information for the publisher.

BEATEN

The bankrupt leadership of Mr. Lodge was displayed in the senate yesterday, when 14 of his Republican colleagues repudiated the madcap assault of himself and his foreign relations committee on the League of Nations.

A BIG QUESTION

The discussion of the labor contract now in session at Washington seems to be narrowing down to the question of whether or not workers should be represented by outside agencies.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Communications sent to the Journal for publication in this department should be on only one side of the paper, should not exceed 500 words in length, and should be accompanied by the name and address of the writer.

HOME-OWNED SUGAR FACTORIES

Athens, Oct. 16.—To the Editor of the Journal.—In North Dakota the farmers have a similar situation to that of the Non-Partisan League, for the sale of their products.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

There are 500,000 women working continually as farm laborers in the United States, and there are 400,000 more who own and work their farms.

one who believes in the economic interpretation of everything and everybody. If his cream soups, it is due to class interest; if he fails to get a letter, capital has been intriguing against him; if he stubs his toe, it is due to "those labor disturbances."

THE RED MOTORS

The mistake which seems to have been made by many who have come to America recently from other parts of the world is this: They affect to believe that the general movement for better conditions in life in other parts of the world must have its counterpart in method in this newer world.

THE PEOPLE FOR THE LEAGUE

Portland, Oct. 13.—To the Editor of the Journal.—The opponents of the League of Nations are stirring up strife among people both at home and abroad, and certain Republicans are wailing loud and long against any and all things democratic.

THE FARMER'S PROFITS

Portland, Oct. 13.—To the Editor of the Journal.—I noticed an article in the Sunday Journal of the 10th inst. concerning the high cost of living and the big profits in farming.

COURT OF CONCILIATION

Washington, Oct. 16.—A conference of the industrial peace conference now in session at Washington David Lawrence says: All groups seem to be agreed on the principle of a court of conciliation in which disputes can be carried out.

SENATORS WILL TALK

While other nations are ratifying the treaty of peace the United States senate continues to talk. The treaty is still unfinished business, taken up after the senators' private bills are disposed of.

SINGLE TRACK MINDS

EFFORTS to reduce the high cost of living are an attempt to make political capital for Wilson and the Democratic party, suggests Dr. H. F. Ong, landlord accused by the housewives' council of profiteering.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

There are 500,000 women working continually as farm laborers in the United States, and there are 400,000 more who own and work their farms.

BURLESON LANDS ON HIS CRITICS

Washington, Oct. 17.—Postmaster-General Burleson has given an answer to charges made by former Commissioner Galloway of the civil service commission that Burleson has not been fair in the appointment of first, second and third class postmasters, and his statement shows that since the merit system was applied by executive order on March 31, 1187 postmasters have been appointed on the basis of merit.

SAFE OR UNSAFE?

SOME authorities say the Morrison and Burnside bridges are not safe for heavy traffic. Other authorities say they are.

THE FARMER'S PROFITS

Portland, Oct. 13.—To the Editor of the Journal.—I noticed an article in the Sunday Journal of the 10th inst. concerning the high cost of living and the big profits in farming.

COURT OF CONCILIATION

Washington, Oct. 16.—A conference of the industrial peace conference now in session at Washington David Lawrence says: All groups seem to be agreed on the principle of a court of conciliation in which disputes can be carried out.

SENATORS WILL TALK

While other nations are ratifying the treaty of peace the United States senate continues to talk. The treaty is still unfinished business, taken up after the senators' private bills are disposed of.

SINGLE TRACK MINDS

EFFORTS to reduce the high cost of living are an attempt to make political capital for Wilson and the Democratic party, suggests Dr. H. F. Ong, landlord accused by the housewives' council of profiteering.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

There are 500,000 women working continually as farm laborers in the United States, and there are 400,000 more who own and work their farms.

BURLESON LANDS ON HIS CRITICS

Washington, Oct. 17.—Postmaster-General Burleson has given an answer to charges made by former Commissioner Galloway of the civil service commission that Burleson has not been fair in the appointment of first, second and third class postmasters, and his statement shows that since the merit system was applied by executive order on March 31, 1187 postmasters have been appointed on the basis of merit.

SAFE OR UNSAFE?

SOME authorities say the Morrison and Burnside bridges are not safe for heavy traffic. Other authorities say they are.

THE FARMER'S PROFITS

Portland, Oct. 13.—To the Editor of the Journal.—I noticed an article in the Sunday Journal of the 10th inst. concerning the high cost of living and the big profits in farming.

COURT OF CONCILIATION

Washington, Oct. 16.—A conference of the industrial peace conference now in session at Washington David Lawrence says: All groups seem to be agreed on the principle of a court of conciliation in which disputes can be carried out.

SENATORS WILL TALK

While other nations are ratifying the treaty of peace the United States senate continues to talk. The treaty is still unfinished business, taken up after the senators' private bills are disposed of.

SINGLE TRACK MINDS

EFFORTS to reduce the high cost of living are an attempt to make political capital for Wilson and the Democratic party, suggests Dr. H. F. Ong, landlord accused by the housewives' council of profiteering.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

There are 500,000 women working continually as farm laborers in the United States, and there are 400,000 more who own and work their farms.

BURLESON LANDS ON HIS CRITICS

Washington, Oct. 17.—Postmaster-General Burleson has given an answer to charges made by former Commissioner Galloway of the civil service commission that Burleson has not been fair in the appointment of first, second and third class postmasters, and his statement shows that since the merit system was applied by executive order on March 31, 1187 postmasters have been appointed on the basis of merit.

SAFE OR UNSAFE?

SOME authorities say the Morrison and Burnside bridges are not safe for heavy traffic. Other authorities say they are.

THE FARMER'S PROFITS

Portland, Oct. 13.—To the Editor of the Journal.—I noticed an article in the Sunday Journal of the 10th inst. concerning the high cost of living and the big profits in farming.

COURT OF CONCILIATION

Washington, Oct. 16.—A conference of the industrial peace conference now in session at Washington David Lawrence says: All groups seem to be agreed on the principle of a court of conciliation in which disputes can be carried out.

SENATORS WILL TALK

While other nations are ratifying the treaty of peace the United States senate continues to talk. The treaty is still unfinished business, taken up after the senators' private bills are disposed of.

SINGLE TRACK MINDS

EFFORTS to reduce the high cost of living are an attempt to make political capital for Wilson and the Democratic party, suggests Dr. H. F. Ong, landlord accused by the housewives' council of profiteering.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

There are 500,000 women working continually as farm laborers in the United States, and there are 400,000 more who own and work their farms.

COMMENT AND NEWS IN BRIEF

SMALL CHANGE: Shantung is due soon to stop its waging. BAKER NOTES: The executive council of the county agricultural council has decided on the position of county agricultural agent.

IMPRESSIONS AND OBSERVATIONS OF THE JOURNAL MAN

By Fred Lockley: The year 1909 was a grand old year for me, for it was the year that I was born. It was a year of great changes and great hopes.

OLDEN OREGON

Early Oregon History Largely International Boundary Dispute. During 25 years prior to June, 1846, the history of Oregon included as its principal theme the dispute between the United States and Great Britain as to where the boundary line should be located.

OLDEN OREGON

From the Coquille Sentinel: We have had occasion several times during the past few years to feel proud of Coquille. In war work, in furnishing both men and means for the world struggle against German autocracy and feudalism, Coquille and the neighboring districts measured up to the full standard of Oregon patriotism.

UNCLE JEFF SNOW SAYS

Soldiers don't strike very often, but when they do things happen fast. A chipmunk ain't much of a fighter, but he can bite into your finger and mebbe give you blood poisoning.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

There are 500,000 women working continually as farm laborers in the United States, and there are 400,000 more who own and work their farms.

The Oregon Country

Northwest Exposition in Brief For the Busy Reader: Snow and miniature blizzards have hit the Santiam national forest, and very little land can be planted this fall.

WASHINGTON

Between 1000 and 1200 people are now engaged on the 1919 apple crop in the Willamette valley. Seven contracts, amounting to $112,082.45, were awarded this week for paving portions of a number of Tappanish streets.

WASHINGTON

The new telephone cable between Tacoma and Vancouver is now in working order. The cable is 11.6 miles long, weighs 35 tons and cost $22,000.

WASHINGTON

The public utility commission of Idaho has denied the request of the operators of the Guley ferry for an increase in rates. The commission has ordered the company to maintain a continuous day and night service.

WASHINGTON

The price of certified milk has advanced in San Francisco to 21 cents a quart. Savage fighting is still going on in the city of Riga between Lithuanian and Russian troops.

WASHINGTON

There are 500,000 women working continually as farm laborers in the United States, and there are 400,000 more who own and work their farms.