ODDS AND ENDS IN THE NEWS OF TRAVELERS AND HOMEFOLK

Are Afraid of Rain Tourist travel over the Columbia high-way has fallen off about 50 per cent within the last week or more, says J. O. Wright, who runs one of the big sightseeing cars. "People are afraid of the rain," said Wright, "This makes the season here awfully short. As soon as people get the notion out of their heads that it rains every day in Portland and that what rain we have is necessary for the growth of our plant life, sightseeing travel will be heavier. But they walk out of the hotel, look around and see a out of the hotel, look around and see a few clouds and say, 'Is it going to rain?' I tell them I don't think so and they say, 'But we have been told it rains every day in Portland." Knights of Columbus The Knights of Columbus will open their club room headquarters, pending the completion of their new building at Park and Taylor streets, in room 8 A of the Multnomah, formerly occupied by the Bankers' club, beginning October 20. Secretary John R. Murphy and his assistant, Dan Kellaher, will be on hand from 8 a. m. 10.10

Salem-Portland Road

"The road between Portland and Salem, on the east side, is open now, with only two short detours, and contractors on this section will finish their work this year," said Charles H. Whitmore of the state highway office at Salem this morning. Whitmore has just been over-seeing the commencement of work upon seeing the commencement of work upon the paving between Hillsboro and For-est Grove. The best road to McMinn-ville, he says is to Newberg and ther via Carlton. The road between Newberg and McMinnville via Dayton is under construction, and is bad in wet weather Whitmore is staying at the Imperial. hitmore is staying at the Imperial.

Pendleton Conditions Good Conditions are in very good shape in Pendleton, says J. M. Maloney, head of the new Inland Empire bank which opened its doors in July. "Pendleton stands second in the state in bank deposits, with something over $8,000,000. The Inland Empire bank has resources The Inland Empire bank has resources of $1,000,000." Maloney has been attending the Knights of Pythias grand lodge of which he has been acting as grand master for the last 30 years and to which position he was reelected. Accompanied by Mrs. Maloney he left for Corvallia the morning to visit a few Corvallis this morning to visit a few days before returning to Eastern Oregon.
