SOCIAL CALENDAR

Dinner dance at Waverley Country club.

Box party for which Mrs. C. H. Farrington will entertain in honor for daughter Janet.

A Daily Feature for Children in The Journal

Whomen's Clubs and Society

CLUB CALENDAR

Oregon Civic League luncheon at the Hotel Benson at 12 o'clock ubject, "Home Service of the American Red Cross." Speakers: tewart Rice, director of the bureau of education; Mrs. Fay T. Catha, branch supervisor; Miss Margaret Creech, executive secretary.

Leigh Bennett

Wedding Ceremony to Be Held at Home of Bride's Parents.

By Helen H. Hutchison THE event of importance on the so-cial calendar for today is the wed-ding of Miss Sadie Noyes who will be-come the bride of Leigh S. Bennett of Hood River this evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Noyes on North Twenty-second street. The service will be read by the Rev. Levi Johnson of the First Presbyterian church in the presence of a large aschurch in the presence of a large as-sembly of guests.

The bride will be attended by Miss Velma Wilkinson of Hood River and little Priscilia House will lead the bridal ion. The wedding music will be played by Miss Janet House. Ralph Bennett, brother of the bridegroom, will be best man. Following the ceremony a wedding reception will be held.

The bride has an unusually large circle of friends in the city and she has been much entertained since the an-nouncement of her engagement. One of the last of the many social courtesies paid to the popular bride-elect was an informal luncheon for a few of her close friends for which Mrs. Elliott Haversham was hostess on Wednesday.

Portland friends of Mrs. James G. Gauld and Miss Isabella Gauld will be sorry to learn of their departure for Southern California on Thursday evening where they will spend the entire winter. Mrs. Gauld and her daughter will go to El Encanto, Santa Barbara, where they will remain until spring.

Miss Janet Farrington will be hostess or a delightful birthday party on Saturday on the occasion of her eighth birthday anniversary. A group of her little friends have been invited to attend a box party at a local theatre and with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Farrington, they will enjoy the after-

Miss Emma Lower is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Morrison of Pendleton for an indefinite period.

Mrs. Benjamin F. Weaver was hostess for a smart luncheon and bridge party on Wednesday at the Multnomah hotel where she makes her home. Luncheon was served in the gold room at a table decked with a lovely centerpiece of pink cosmos and graceful fernery. Dainty place cards marked the places for 18 guests. Following the luncheon the company enjoyed a game of bridge in Mrs. Wesver's apartments in the hotel. Guests for the occasion included Mrs. Orange M. Clark, Mrs. William McBride, Mrs. ninth street north, left the city on Monclub will enjoy an informal dancing J. C. Costello, Mrs. C. Lewis Mead, Mrs. day for her home in the South. Mrs. party this evening at the club house. A J. C. Costello, Mrs. C. Lewis mean, 2013. Day for the little parties will be for the women of St. Davids Episcopal Mrs. Cora Pfuffer, Mrs. M. J. De La-1914, and was much interested in the up for the evening, hostesses for one church are preparing for a rummage sale of "high will be the Misses Jane and church are preparing for a rummage sale to be held in the Hotel Lenox building. R. D. Inman, Mrs. E. H. Miller and Mrs.

Miss Anne Shannon Monroe was the guest of honor at the meeting of the Commonwealth club held at the Commer-cial club in Tacoma Tuesday evening.

Miss Josephine Stipe and Lieutenan Harold Mercer Sharp were quietly married Sunday afternoon at the parsonage of the Sunnyside Congregational church, the Rev. J. J. Staub officiating.

Mrs. G. W. Ford of East Sixteenth street north, Irvington, left Portland Tuesday evening for Los Angeles, where she will visit relatives and friends and spend the winter in Southern California.

Ga., who has been a visitor for the Holland. past fortnight at the home of Mrs. James Nelson Rice at 330 East Thirty- Junior Miss Noyes to Mrs. W. E. GIBBONS, who was before her marriage Become Bride of Mrs. W. E. GIBBONS, who was before her marriage their marriage has just been made public. Mrs. Gibbons is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Hacker.

County Parent-Teacher association will meet on Saturday at 11 o'clock at the Russelville Grange hall on the Base Line road. Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock and a good program will fol-nformal dancing party for junior mem-pers of the club. Mrs. J. L. Bowman is chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements for the event and will be assisted by Mrs. Frank Collinson, Mrs. Charles L. Dick and Mrs. E. G.

the house guest of Dr. and Mrs. C. J. has just returned from Belgium, where Mrs. Howard C. Motley of Atlanta, ing the war period Mrs. Moens lived in she made her home for eight years. Dur-

Junior members of Portland Heights near Tacoma.

SOME FOUNTAIN PENS

FAY KING THINKS MUZZLES NEEDED

The eighty-sixth birthday of Mrs. Emily Arrington of the New Christian church was made the occasion of a delightful surprise last Friday afternoon by her friends. She received a number Irvington club will be the scene of an of loving remembrances and expressions of congratulations. Mrs. Arrington has twice tramped the Multnomah trail during the past year. She is planning to again make this three mile mountain climb in the near future.

Leihy. This evening will be guest night.

Many reservations by persons prominent socially and musically have already been made for the Dent Mowrey recital, which will take place Saturday. Smith for a short time. Mrs. Moens November 1, in the Multnomah hotel

> Mr. and Mrs. J. Depenning of Portland are visitors for a short time at the served. Hotel Hesperides at Titlow's beach, > > HEY!

GUARD FOR

American Music Lectures to Be Given

Monday Musical Club Plans Series of Recitals in Different High Schools.

UNDER the auspices of the Monday Mrs. Frederick W. Leadbetter, Mrs. Walter F. Burrell, Mrs. Daniel A. Shindler citals will be given in the different high schools of the city on American music. This is a continuation of the series of programs given last year on Russian, French and Scandinavian music, which were hightly appreciated by the students and teachers in the schools. The first of the American programs will be given at the Franklin high school, October 29, by William Robinson Boone. Mrs. John Hollister, as chairman of the public chool committee of the Monday Musical club, has this work in charge and is assisted by Mrs. A. R. Mattingly.

Talks on music before the parentteacher associations are also being arranged by the same department of the club. The subjects of these talks will be: "What Kind of Music Children Should Study," and "The Question of School Credits for Music Study." The first of these talks was given before the Franklin High School Parent-Teacher association October 14 by Lucien E. Becker. Presidents of the various parent-teacher associations who desire these talks before their circles are invited to communicate with Mrs. J. R. Hollister, 1077 East Fortleth street. Tel-sphone Sellwood 284.

The Mayflower club will hold a card party in the blue room of the Portland hotel on Monday evening. Five hun-dred will be played. Card tables will be placed for the game at 8:15 o'clock be placed for the game at 8:15 o'clock and refreshments will be served at 10:30 o'clock. Those attending are asked to telephone for reservations to East 3696 or Sellwood 2911. Reservations must be made by 2:30 o'clock on Monday.

The Overlook club will meet at the home of Mrs. E. W. Butterworth at 894 Capitol avenue, Friday afternoon.

Lincoln Garfield Relief corps will meet for special sewing at the courthouse on Friday afternoon and the regular business meeting will be held at 7:30 o'clock

The East Side Lavender club will meet Friday at the home of Mrs. M. J. Blowers, 940 East Main street, between Thirty-first and Thirty-second streets.

The Woodlawn Improvement club met in the schoolhouse Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. All people of that community are invited.

The woman's free gymnasium class of the Hawthorne school began its season's work Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the gymnasium of the Washington high work Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the gymnasium of the Washington high to be held in the Hotel Lenox building, Third and Main streets, October 22 to 25, inclusive. Anyone having clothing, shoes, household furnishings, etc., to donate will notify Mrs. S. E. Josephi, East 36, or Mrs. E. E. Miller, East 8278, and their bundles will be called for; or else leave at the parish house, East Morrison street at East Twelfth street.

The Highland Parent-Teacher association, of which Mrs. William Holbrook is president, will meet Friday at 2:30 p. m. Following the business session, Miss Ethel Mitchell, girls secretary of the Y. W. C. A., will speak on the work of the girl reserves. The Rev. Edward A. Comstant will speak on "Response to Duty's Call," and Professor Charles A. Boyd, principal of the Highland school, will tell of some of the aims and aspirations for the coming school year. Tea will be

P. E. O. met at the home of Mrs. Ekie Bidwell of Island City near La Grande. Mrs. Emma McCaw of Portland, state organizer of the sisterhood, was present for the purpose of inspecting the sisterhood. After the business session closed, she told the members many interesting things pertaining to the supreme convention, which met in Denver this fall, and from which place she had just returned. Chapter I compliments itself on having in attendance at the supreme convention, Mrs. E. E. Kiddle, president of the local chapter, who will, at the next meeting, give the chapter a detailed report of the

The Woman's College club of the Rogue river valley met Saturday after-noon at the home of Mrs. F. J. Newman in Medford. On account of the reg-ularly elected president. Mrs. Glin Aru-spiger, leaving Medford, Mrs. F. D. Wagner of Ashland becomes the next president and Mrs. E. E. Kelly vice president. Mrs. W. D. West had charge man in Medford. On account of the regof the program, the subject of which was "The War Expressed Through Sculpture and Painting." Mrs. West gave a very interesting paper especially de-scribing the work of the cartoonists in making posters for all branches of war work, and also describing the works of those artists assigned to different armies. Her paper was illustrated by pictures and books. Refreshments were erved by the following committee: Mrs. Robert Stearns, chairman, assisted by Miss Carkin, Dr. Eva Carlow and Mrs. Harris Janes. The club maintains a oan fund to assist girls through college and is doing much good work along this line. All college women are eligible to join this club. The Ashland women who were present at the meeting Sat-urday were Mrs. F. D. Wagner, Miss Letts, Mrs. G. O. Jarvis and Mrs. Ralph

The regular meeting of the Vernon Parent-Teacher association was held in the assembly hall of the Vernon school Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The meeting was well attended and an especially meeting was well attended and an especially interesting program was given. The 5A class, under the direction of Mrs. Lena Peters, presented a delightful march and song, "The Carousel," and Miss Helen Bennet sang two numbers. Mrs. Works, president of the organization, gave an inspiring report of the annual convention of Oregon Parent-Teacher acsociations, to which she was delegate. Following this, Mr. Gilber of South Mount Tabor made an enthusiastic talk on the social center work as conducted at the Joseph Kellogg school. Much interest in the plan was shown by many of those present and a social center committee was appointed to formulate plans for a community Hallowsen party.

C. E. Holliday Co. Cloaks-Suits-Frocks

383 Washington St.

Miss Evelyn Cormack's room was awarded the plant given to the room having the largest representation at the

Mrs. J. B. Montgomery presided over an informal luncheon party at the Anne Davenport tea house on Mount Zlon crossroads on Tuesday, honoring Mrs. Fred A. Jacobs, who left Pertland on Wednesday evening for California. Additional guests for the occasion included Mrs. Frederick W. Leadbetter, Mrs. Waland Mrs. John K. Kollock.

The Employes' club of the O-W. R. & N. will meet for its regular dancing party this evening at Cotillion hall. The winter season of parties is meeting with

Gather at Luncheon

Important Social Affair to Be Given by U. of O. Graduates Saturday.

A MONG the important social affairs for Saturday will be the luncheon of the Alumni of the University of Oregon, which will be held in the crystal room addresses were available, but many, esof the Benson hotel at 12:15 o'clock. The luncheon has been arranged by Arthur not on this list. Any member of the Geary of Portland, president. Speakers Alumni who has not received a notice

Miss Charlie Fenton, alumni secretary, who will come up from Eugene for the uncheon; Colin V. Dyment, just returned from overseas and now a member of the faculty, and the Portland extension executive secretary, Dean John Straub, beloved of all students of the university and one of the few men who have been with the university since its founding; Colonel John Leader, former head of the rest of the college will judge as to military training at Eugene. Frank Who Married a Dumb Wife" and "How on the program will include Mrs. George is asked to telephone for a reservation hotel, Park and Alder streets, 11 a. to 5 p. m.; 7:30 to 9 p. m. One week or

Reed College to Present Dramatics

Reed; college dramatists will present their first public production Friday eve-ning in the college assembly hall. After several weeks of dramatic study the college actors will practice some of the theories they have been studying and Branch Riley, who is to give his lecture He Lied to Her" will be presented as on "The Lure of the Great Northwest" initial offerings. The last Friday in the penerit of the Woman's building every month, beginning with November, for the penetit of the Woman's building on October 34, will tell of his experiences while giving this lecture in the East.

Invitations to the luncheon have been sent to all the Alumni in Portland whose addresses were available, but many, es-

Reviewing Saturday-Misses Day-with Pencil mr Sketchbook

ontendrangen der general g

Here's a Black Beauty of a Frock

-- with basque bodice and graduated draped tunic that the slender miss can wear so well light sleeves -- a love of a tucked yeargette-and-lace collar- and that's the story at -- only

-- one may go ento rhapsodies over tuck ings and stitchings as applied to beorgette-and net blouses like this one but after all a pretty finishing touch goes a long way. Its

Wilight is the Name of the Newest Police

The warmth of this coloring in winter weight Subvisione forms a longly background for deep Sealine coller and suffs. a luturious look, vinvaciously styled and richly lined—that really looks more than its 18500.

and so full of appeal to the Miss whose him foncies do not run in ordinary chann fashion foncies do not run in ordinary channels. Double lobb panels and circular pockets give such affair to check velous $5900 doesn't begin to express its distinction

Whit of Jush about the Lace of It

-- along with its engaging youthfulness.

makes you want this blouse for your own...

you know at a glance at its youthful caller other it should button down the back -- and so it sees. I new 17:50 number

That's as much as one could ask of any suit in this one the moternal is particularly line quality and the lining is of excellent suck. That the style feature carefully—and consider your good fortune—at $45

Specialized Mail Order Service

H. Liebes 860

Business Hours 9:30 a. m. to 6 p. m.

By Fay King dies King is a Portland girl, whose first news-paper work was published in The Journal ser-oral years ago. She now is located in New York.) Whoever the guy is that is so busy passing out muzzles to toy poodles and Pekinese pups ought to get busy passing out muszles for fountain pens.

What kind of a bite can a pup give with a face so punched in he couldn't get a tooth hold on a cat's tail? But these fountainpen pitchers have an ink wind that is apt to fly clear across

Only the other day I passed one of the birds who was sending out a stack of postals to the hum town gang. He was one of those "speedy" penmen that airdomes over an "O" for twenty minutes before he gets up nerve enough to make a stab at the

Christy Mathewson, in his palmiest days, never put more on the ball than he puts on the

It would not be so bad if he was in the box or a booth—but there he is out in the open, and an innocent bystander counting pennies for stamps gets all

Seems to me that fountainpen offenders should come under federal law-or, at, least, should pass a chauffeur's examination before being allowed to drive a fast fountain pen.

You'd think these guys would have sense enough to throw the old check signer into low when they shimmy it around at a writing desk:

According to the ink some of those pens hold, you'd think they'd make swell cocktail shakers—then those guys wouldn't be so careless with the juice.