

EASTERN OREGON IS INTERESTED IN ANTI-FIRE FILMS

Campaign in Which Thos. H. Ince Motion Pictures Are Shown Began Thursday in Pendleton.

KLAMATH MEETING IS OFF

Lack of Transportation Facilities Is Given as Reason for Not Joining in the Big Program.

Salem, Oct. 18.—Great enthusiasm on the part of the people in the towns of Eastern Oregon, wherein the Thomas H. Ince motion pictures on fire prevention have been shown this week, is reported by Horace Sykes, assistant state fire marshal, in a letter received by A. C. Barber, state fire marshal.

The campaign opened at Pendleton Thursday. Friday the fire prevention campaigners were in La Grande and today they were in Baker. The party is scheduled to visit Bend Monday, jumping from that city to Salem for a meeting Tuesday. From there the itinerary will be as follows:

Albany, October 23; McMinnville, October 24; Eugene, October 27; Roseburg, October 28; Grants Pass, October 29; Medford, October 30; Ashland, October 31.

The Ashland meeting will close the present campaign in the state, but it is hoped to bring the pictures back into Oregon for further fire prevention educational work later on. Because of inability to make satisfactory transportation arrangements, it has been necessary to eliminate Klamath Falls from the present itinerary. It being originally planned to show the pictures as a part of the big fire prevention program in that city Wednesday.

Included in the party conducting the present campaign are Horace Sykes, assistant state fire marshal, and Jay Stevens and J. H. Shively of the fire prevention bureau of the Pacific, San Francisco. Stevens was formerly fire marshal at Portland, and Shively was at one time state insurance commissioner for Washington.

TALENT DISTRICT REQUESTS BOND INTEREST GUARANTEE

Salem, Oct. 18.—State guarantee of the interest on a $600,000 bond issue recently voted by the Talent Irrigation district of Jackson county is requested in a resolution adopted by members of the district, a copy of which was received by the state engineer's office today. The irrigation securities commission has already certified to $250,000 worth of bonds included in this issue.

A resolution requesting the certification of $400,000 worth of irrigation bonds by the irrigation securities commission has also been received by the state engineer from Multnomah county drainage district No. 1.

Applications for the appropriation of water for irrigation purposes have been filed with the state engineer's office recently as follows: W. A. Hogue of Selma, for the appropriation of water from Deer creek; Jacob Deens of Beulah, Or., for the appropriation of water from Little Malheur river in Malheur county; Mark B. Mack of Kerby, Or., for the

GIANT CORN TO BE SHOWN

Corn stalks grown by Gus Lindbloom near Roseburg. Professor Schlotz of the Oregon Agricultural college is standing beside them.

Roseburg, Oct. 11.—"Big" is the one word that describes the corn show which will be held in Roseburg October 24-25, under the auspices of the Douglas county farm bureau. Included in the exhibits will be the product of three hills of corn, taken at random from the field of Gus Lindbloom on South Bear creek, east of Roseburg five miles. Twelve to 15 feet is the average height of the stalks, and the ears average 10 to 12 inches in length, are large and well-filled. "Corn is King," is the slogan of the show.

of Oregon City, reads as follows: "Amending Article IX of the constitution of Oregon by adding thereto Section 9, which provides that the legal rate of interest in Oregon shall be 4 per cent per annum on all moneys after the same shall become due, but on contract the rate of 5 per cent per annum, and no more, may be charged by agreement of the parties, which rate shall be inclusive of all brokerage and commissions."

"No laws of this state relating to interest or usury are repealed, or abrogated by this section except in so far as the legal rate of interest is modified hereby."

Under existing laws the legal rate of interest in Oregon is 6 per cent, but by agreement between the contracting parties as high as 10 per cent may be charged.

FUEL OIL TAX OF ASSOCIATED FOR MONTH TOTALS $244.19

Salem, Oct. 18.—A total of $244.19 was paid into the state treasury for the credit of the good roads fund, Friday, by the Associated Oil company of California, this amount representing the state tax on motor fuel oil sold in Oregon by this company during September. A statement accompanying the remittance shows that oil sales of the company in the state during the month amounted to 527,146 gallons of gasoline and 34,746 gallons of distillate.

Plague Kills Horses

Salem, Oct. 18.—A recurrence of the "Kansas" horse plague is reported from several sections of Central Oregon, according to Dr. W. H. Lytle, state veterinarian. George Rodman of Jefferson county reports the loss of 22 head of horses out of a herd of 99, already this fall from the plague.

State Capital Personals

Salem, Oct. 18.—H. H. Corey, public service commissioner, made a tour of inspection of the fencing along the line of the Valley & Siletz railroad in Polk and Benton counties Friday, in response to a formal complaint filed with the commission alleging that the road failed to maintain adequate fencing along its right of way.

Harold Cook of the state engineer's office is spending a few days with a brother at Riddle.

Fred R. Waters of Portland is visiting in the city with his mother, Mrs. E. E. Waters, and his brother, George E. Waters. Waters was at one time mayor of Salem, and also served as state capital correspondent for one of the Portland papers several years ago.

F. B. Cameron of North Bend, Or., editor of the Sunday A. M. Bee, was a business visitor at the office of State Labor-Commissioner Gram, Friday evening.

Fred Williams, public service commissioner, is in Southern Oregon for a few days on official business.

Harold M. Mabry, formerly a member of the Capitol Journal editorial staff, now attending the University of Oregon at Eugene, was a caller at the office of J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of instruction, this morning.

J. A. Apperle of Jefferson, president of the Jefferson Mill company, called at the office of State Engineer Cupper this morning to file an application for the appropriation of 1000 second feet of water from the north fork of the Santiam river for the purpose of developing 2500 additional horsepower for milling purposes.

Miss Kiehle of Portland, a member of the faculty of the Felling school, called on J. A. Churchill, superintendent of instruction, this morning on school matters.

State Labor Commissioner Gram left this noon for Portland on official business.

The Man to Watch

If you must worry over competition, keep your eye on the man who gives the best service.

DR. E. G. AUSPLUND, M.D. My Practice is Limited to High-Cost Dentistry Only—at Prices Everyone Can Afford

It is a prerequisite of sound business (and I use the term business in its broader sense, which embraces the professions) that the cost of production, plus a legitimate profit, must constitute the selling price.

No business can stand long that varies from this law. When cost of production INCREASES, that increase is almost invariably borne by the consumer.

It is common knowledge that everything essential to our health and well being now costs more money.

It is also a fact that everyone engaged in production, from the hodcarrier to the professional man, is of necessity receiving more for his services in order that he may live, despite advancing costs.

It stands to reason, therefore, that the man who works too cheaply must necessarily deliver INFERIOR GOODS OR SERVICE, OR BOTH, and eventually the public will understand this.

Don't worry a moment over this class of competition—it is the man who does better work and gives better service who will "bear watching."

Just so long as I KNOW I am giving my patients SERVICE SECOND TO NONE (and the word "service" includes material, workmanship, sanitary precautions, absence of needless pain and conscientious fees), I have no fear of cheap competition.

CONSTRUCTION WORK VALUED AT $300,000 GOING UP IN PENDLETON

Many New Business Blocks and Dwelling Houses Are Being Built.

Pendleton, Oct. 18.—Construction work costing more than $300,000 is under way in Pendleton at present, in addition to scores of new homes which are rising. Six building projects of major importance are under way or will shortly be started.

Foundations are now being poured for the $120,000 Elks' temple, which Parker & Banfield of Portland are building. The 100 by 100 site was excavated during September and the building is to be completed April 1.

Pouring of concrete for the $100,000 Collins mill was completed Saturday. This structure, seven stories high, will be equipped to turn out 750 barrels of flour a day. The Oregon Lumber yard of Pendleton is the contractor.

A $60,000 addition to the school and dormitory for St. Josephs academy is nearing completion by P. Ballargeon, Seattle contractor. Preliminary work on the erection of a $20,000 distributing plant for the Union Oil company and a $75,000 theatre for the Pendleton Amusement company is now being done. An apartment building and store-rooms for Gritman Bros. will be completed by November 1 at a cost of $50,000. The building contains five stores and five apartments and is of brick.

In addition to this work, there are estimated to be 30 homes in course of construction. Several of these are costing $10,000 or more.

WESTON TO HONOR MEMORY OF FIGHTERS AND SOLDIERS

Pendleton, Oct. 18.—Dedication of the memorial hall at Weston, recently erected by its citizens to the memory of the pioneers and the soldiers and sailors, will take place Thursday. The hall is planned to serve as a community center and is equipped with reading and rest rooms and a motion picture machine.

Pioneers throughout Umatilla county have been invited to attend the dedication. A program of music and speeches will be given, with M. L. Watts, president of the pioneers, and H. J. Warner, president of Pendleton post, American legion, principal speakers.

Appraisal Is Protested

Salem, Oct. 18.—Formal protest against the appraisal of the estate of the late Eugene Schmidt of Portland was filed by State Treasurer Hoff today. The estate, according to the appraisal, is valued at $99,225.63, and the protest at this time, it is explained, is merely to protect the rights of the estate until an investigation into the correctness of the appraisal can be made.

Pendleton Session Scheduled

Salem, Oct. 18.—The Oregon supreme court will convene in its regular October session on Monday, October 27. It is not expected that the session will occupy more than a week's time. No cases will be argued before the court here until after the return of the court from Eastern Oregon.

RHEUMATISM IS PAIN ONLY, RUB IT AWAY

Instant relief from pain, soreness, stiffness follows a rubbing with "St. Jacobs Liniment."

Stop "dozing" rheumatism. It's pain only; in one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Liniment" right on the "tender spot" and by the time you say Jack Robinson—out comes the rheumatic pain and distress. "St. Jacobs Liniment" conquers pain! It is a harmless rheumatism liniment which never disappoints and doesn't burn the skin. It takes pain, soreness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones; stops sciatica, lumbago, backache, neuritis and reduces swelling.

Linger up! Get a small trial bottle of old-time, honest "St. Jacobs Liniment" from any drug store, and in a moment you'll be free from pains, aches and stiffness. Don't suffer! Rub rheumatism away.—Adv.
