

ASSERTS AMERICA MUST SUFFER TO PURGE HER SOUL

Full Realization of Divine Power Still Wanting, Says Major Gilbert, Chaplain of Infantry.

MANY NEEDS RECOUNTED

Lang Syne Society Meets; Indorsement of Civilian Reserve Movement Given Unanimously.

"America has not yet suffered enough to purge her soul; we have yet to realize a consciousness of the Divine such as blended in tears the North and South after the Civil War," declared Major W. S. Gilbert, chaplain of the 162d infantry, in his address before the Lang Syne society at its get-together luncheon given Wednesday at the Hotel Portland.

"No word of supplication was raised to the Creator of us all at the sessions of the peace conference—is it any wonder that no agreement has yet been reached and that peace is still a thing of the future? Not once was divine guidance invoked at the recent industrial conference held in the East, and again I say, America has not suffered enough."

Major Gilbert, who spent 17 months in France, emphasized some of the things that America needs to overcome, as revealed by the world war.

"We had to go to France to find ourselves. The war revealed our lack of fitness, mentally and physically. Do you know that over 50 per cent of the men drafted were found to be unfit for military service, and that of those finally sent overseas 20 per cent were found to be unfit?"

"The percentage of illiteracy was shocking, even in picked groups of experts in various lines of mechanics. It is small wonder that the French characterized us as 'those crazy Americans.' From their standpoint we are crazy, because there is such a woeful lack in the things that are actually fundamental in their life and civilization.

"If you are laboring under the delusion that Oregon is such a wonderful place that everybody in the world knows about it, just let me tell you that of all the French people I conversed with during my 17 months' service I found only three persons who ever heard of Oregon."

"I must confess it was a terrible blow to me, yet how many of you know what state Paris is in, and how many French cities call you name outside of Paris, Brest and Bordeaux? The war has aided us greatly in getting an international viewpoint in many things."

Frank Dayton, secretary-treasurer of the society, offered a resolution favoring the support of the Civilian Reserve movement, which was given unanimous endorsement.

Sgt. Blumauer offered the suggestion that in future there be a roll call of members to be responded to with name, length of residence in the city, business and other items of general interest. This suggestion was accepted and will be followed at the next meeting. There were 100 present at the luncheon.

The president, Colonel David M. Dunne, presided.

Entertainment for Eamonn de Valera Planned by Irish

Arrangements for the entertainment of Eamonn de Valera were outlined at a meeting of Portland Irish at the Imperial hotel Tuesday night. Representatives of the organization were present from Albany, Astoria, Bend, Beaverton, Condon, Heppner and other points in Oregon and delegates of labor organizations and civic clubs also attended the meeting.

De Valera will arrive November 15 and will be received at Union station by a committee consisting of Thomas Mannix, chairman; P. E. Sullivan, H. J. Bristol, John McGuigan, M. J. Murnane and about 100 others. The visitor will be escorted from the station to his hotel by a parade of friends of Ireland. He is scheduled to speak at the Auditorium the evening of November 15 and will also speak at Reed college, at Mt. Angel and before various local civic clubs and fraternal organizations.

Prohibition Fight Funds Pass House

Washington, Oct. 30.—(I. N. S.)—The deficiency appropriation bill carrying $17,000,000 of which $2,400,000 is from the department of justice to enforce the prohibition and anti-trust laws, passed the house Wednesday and goes to the president.

Nervous Women

Nothing is so good for you as Vinol, our Cod Liver and Iron Tonic. It invigorates the nerves and creates strength.

Here is Reliable Proof:

Union Hill, N. J.—"I suffered from a nervous breakdown, was anaemic, thin, had a stomach trouble and could not eat, sleep or work. I had doctored without benefit until one day I read about Vinol, and after taking one bottle I began to improve. It strengthened my nerves, gave me a good appetite, and I sleep well and feel better in every way."

—Mrs. Charles West.

The reason Vinol is superior to any other remedy is because it contains the oldest and most famous body-building and strengthening tonics known to medicine.
