

Oregon Journal AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER C. S. JACKSON, Publisher Published every day, afternoon and morning (except Sunday afternoon), at The Journal Building, Broadway and Tenth street, Portland, Oregon.

Entered at the Postoffice at Portland, Oregon, for transmission through the mails as second class matter. TELEPHONE—Main 7173; Home, A-9051. All departments reached by these numbers.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM THE federal department of justice has revealed the startling fact that during the war and since the armistice 400 new publications of radical character have appeared in America.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) Most of the coal miners cannot read English. Most of them did not learn from the English language newspapers that the public sentiment of America is overwhelmingly against the strike.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) Most of these alien illiterates were brought to America and put in the coal mines and steel plants because they could be had at low wages.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) The adjustment of human relationships is today the great concern of mankind. No other issue compares with that which seeks an ability of nations and classes to dwell together in peace.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) In the collection of wages due by workmen, the industrial laws of Oregon draw a distinction on the point of whether the employe quits or goes out on a strike.

the payday is within 30 days after the strike has been called. In any event, payment is due within 30 days after the strike begins.

HIRE THE FIGHTERS A thousand returned soldiers and sailors are jobless in Portland. Are they to remain unemployed?

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) The Journal doesn't believe that Portland is that kind of a town. When the facts as to the number of these unemployed men are once brought to the attention of employing institutions, this paper believes that work will be made for them.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) A Portland housewife has reached the conclusion that the home wash tub can nullify the high price of laundering, but she doesn't know what to do about the price of eggs.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) The day of days in the annals of human happiness was November 11, 1918. Old earth thrilled with the impulse of pure joy that enriced it.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) Almost a year has passed. We see now that the ending of war merely ushered in a greater problem. The millennium was not to be had alone through the process of laying down arms.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) The adjustment of human relationships is today the great concern of mankind. No other issue compares with that which seeks an ability of nations and classes to dwell together in peace.

greater need for steady and strengthening effect of every powerful influence for good, and of them all, music and brotherly love go hand in hand among the most potent, as music is conceded to be the universal language of mankind, and is a recognized medium for bringing out the best we have in us.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) In Massachusetts, the Republicans demanded in their platform that the peace treaty be ratified without reservations. The Democratic platform took the other side.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) In his statement presenting the bill to the house, Chairman Sinnott said: "In a general way it involves, according to the statement of the secretary of the interior, the releasing of enormous areas of our public lands that have been withdrawn from development and exploitation for several years."

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) There came a time in the course of America's civil conflict when it was felt that only the invoked guidance of Providence could lead the nation into paths of safety. In proclaiming a day of national prayer for observance on April 30, 1863, Lincoln said:

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) The adjustment of human relationships is today the great concern of mankind. No other issue compares with that which seeks an ability of nations and classes to dwell together in peace.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) The adjustment of human relationships is today the great concern of mankind. No other issue compares with that which seeks an ability of nations and classes to dwell together in peace.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) The adjustment of human relationships is today the great concern of mankind. No other issue compares with that which seeks an ability of nations and classes to dwell together in peace.

spirit is necessary on both sides. The law gives both classes of travel equal right at the intersections. The law requires each to be alert for the safety of the other. Attempt is made to lessen the problems of the motorist by requiring pedestrians to cross the streets at the intersections and not any place along the block.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) Let us not have it said of Portland that there are returned servicemen here anxious to work but unable to secure employment. If the situation is to continue, here is further reason for the 2 mill increase in the Portland tax levy.

SINNOTT LEASE BILL'S TERMS By Carl Smith, Washington Correspondent of The Journal. Washington, Nov. 5.—Extension of the leasing provisions and elimination of any restriction of the government's title in fee to its oil, shale, coal and phosphate lands have popularized the Sinnott-Smoot bill.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) Draw two parallelograms, one representing the inevitable expense of the city government next year, the other representing the income possible at the present rate of taxation for municipal purposes.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) In his statement presenting the bill to the house, Chairman Sinnott said: "In a general way it involves, according to the statement of the secretary of the interior, the releasing of enormous areas of our public lands that have been withdrawn from development and exploitation for several years."

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) The adjustment of human relationships is today the great concern of mankind. No other issue compares with that which seeks an ability of nations and classes to dwell together in peace.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) The adjustment of human relationships is today the great concern of mankind. No other issue compares with that which seeks an ability of nations and classes to dwell together in peace.

Letters From the People Communications sent to The Journal for publication should be written on only one side of the paper, should not exceed 500 words, and should be addressed to the writer, whose mail address in full must accompany the contribution.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) The adjustment of human relationships is today the great concern of mankind. No other issue compares with that which seeks an ability of nations and classes to dwell together in peace.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) The adjustment of human relationships is today the great concern of mankind. No other issue compares with that which seeks an ability of nations and classes to dwell together in peace.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) The adjustment of human relationships is today the great concern of mankind. No other issue compares with that which seeks an ability of nations and classes to dwell together in peace.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) The adjustment of human relationships is today the great concern of mankind. No other issue compares with that which seeks an ability of nations and classes to dwell together in peace.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) The adjustment of human relationships is today the great concern of mankind. No other issue compares with that which seeks an ability of nations and classes to dwell together in peace.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) The adjustment of human relationships is today the great concern of mankind. No other issue compares with that which seeks an ability of nations and classes to dwell together in peace.

COMMENT AND NEWS IN BRIEF SMALL CHANGE Sounds familiar, doesn't it? "Seven precincts out of 17," etc., etc., etc. The Willamette proceeds to get fresh eggs and spills things around in great shape.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) The adjustment of human relationships is today the great concern of mankind. No other issue compares with that which seeks an ability of nations and classes to dwell together in peace.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) The adjustment of human relationships is today the great concern of mankind. No other issue compares with that which seeks an ability of nations and classes to dwell together in peace.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) The adjustment of human relationships is today the great concern of mankind. No other issue compares with that which seeks an ability of nations and classes to dwell together in peace.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) The adjustment of human relationships is today the great concern of mankind. No other issue compares with that which seeks an ability of nations and classes to dwell together in peace.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) The adjustment of human relationships is today the great concern of mankind. No other issue compares with that which seeks an ability of nations and classes to dwell together in peace.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) The adjustment of human relationships is today the great concern of mankind. No other issue compares with that which seeks an ability of nations and classes to dwell together in peace.

The Oregon Country Northwest Happenings in Brief Form for the Busy Reader. OREGON NOTES There are 30 cases of smallpox at The Dalles and the disease is reported to be spreading.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) The adjustment of human relationships is today the great concern of mankind. No other issue compares with that which seeks an ability of nations and classes to dwell together in peace.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) The adjustment of human relationships is today the great concern of mankind. No other issue compares with that which seeks an ability of nations and classes to dwell together in peace.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) The adjustment of human relationships is today the great concern of mankind. No other issue compares with that which seeks an ability of nations and classes to dwell together in peace.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) The adjustment of human relationships is today the great concern of mankind. No other issue compares with that which seeks an ability of nations and classes to dwell together in peace.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) The adjustment of human relationships is today the great concern of mankind. No other issue compares with that which seeks an ability of nations and classes to dwell together in peace.

AMERICA'S PROBLEM (continued) The adjustment of human relationships is today the great concern of mankind. No other issue compares with that which seeks an ability of nations and classes to dwell together in peace.

