lost 60 pounds during his imprisonment. On his knees, with his hands extended, he begged the judge to be allowed to go free, pledging himself to earn the money and pay the alimony.

challenge has not been accepted by the present holders of the cup. It is a foregone conclusion, though, that it will be.

Along about the first of May next we shall be reading that the Shamrock IV is training in Long Island sound for her sail against the American defender off Sandy Hook in June.

Other metals and all heavy bindings are removed, so as to "cut out" any material not suitable for paper pulp.

COMMENT AND NEWS IN BRIEF

SMALL CHANGE Portland has a new chief of police. The high visibility of invisible government is its principal characteristic in these days.

The Oregon Country

Northwest Harpings in Brief Form for the Busy Reader. OREGON NOTES The school census taken in Seaside last week shows 492 children of school age.

RED FLAG WAVERS THE Bolshevik of traffic is the reckless driver. He waves the red flag that is stained with the blood of those who would have lived secure but for him.

THOUSANDS of housewives in Portland will be thankful that the city council did not fix 2 o'clock in the afternoon as the closing time for the public market.

UNDERSTANDING LATIN AMERICA

A thoughtful study of the relations between the United States and the sister republics of this hemisphere to the south of us has been prepared and issued by the United States Department of Agriculture in the department of agriculture in Mexico.

Letters from the People

Communications sent to The Journal for publication in this department should be written on one side of the paper, should be addressed to the editor, and should be accompanied by the writer, whose name and address in full must accompany the contribution.

IMPRESSIONS AND OBSERVATIONS OF THE JOURNAL MAN

From Yosemite park to Riverside in some 1200 miles a day's automobile trip, graphically retracing the country as it is through it, and on the way, the scenic beauties and the beauties of tourists on the route he has followed.

FREEZE AND LEARN

Man learns best by adversity. The coal strike may bring home the lesson that we should long ago have learned, that coal is the least desirable, most expensive source of energy.

RED FLAG WAVERS

WASHINGTON

Tuesday, Washington. In Chehalis, there will be a sale of state lands at public auction. A bad-cave-in has stopped drilling at the Grand Rapids party's McClips well during the past week.

PLENTY OF COURSES

TO THOSE of us who are paying more for bread and more for flour, more for bacon and more for meat the logic of Attorney General Palmer's statement that increased production would bring about a decrease in living costs does not immediately appeal.
