Three Times a Week Old Lady Hobbles Quarter of Mile With Fresh Supply of Flowers.

TWO OF OWN SONS KILLED

Wooden Sign Points Way to Roosevelt Plot, at Edge of War-beaten French Village.

Chambrey, France, Nov. 11.—(I. N. S.)—A wrinkle-faced, toothless old Frenchwoman, Madame Marchand, has taken it upon herself to tend the grave of Lieutenant Quentin Roosevelt, which lies just at the edge of the war-battered village.

NEURALGIA MEANS THAT NERVES ARE UNDERNOURISHED

The Blood Carries Food to the Nerves, but Fails When It Is Thin and Weak.

The only way that the nerves receive nourishment is through the blood. When a person becomes anemic and the blood is thin and pale the nerves are starved and the only way in which they can demand more nourishment is by the sensation of pain.

Real Estate Man Drops Dead While Inside His Office

Portland, Nov. 11.—(U. P.)—Florian Fuchs, a well known Portland real estate man, dropped dead from heart disease at his office, 420 Chamber of Commerce building, about 2 o'clock Monday afternoon. He resided at 630 Belmont street.

WATCH LIVER AND BOWELS TO AVOID COLDS, FLU AND GRIP

Any physician will tell you that a very large percentage of illnesses can be prevented if people would keep their livers, kidneys and bowels working. When these organs become sluggish your resistance against disease is lowered by the poison waste matter which should have been carried off.

WHY RUN-DOWN PALE EXHAUSTED WOMEN SHOULD TAKE IRON

"There can be no beautiful, healthy, rosy-cheeked, nervous women without iron. When the iron goes from the blood of women, the roses go from their cheeks—their charm and attractiveness depart. I always insist that my patients take organic iron—Nuxated Iron—not metallic iron which often corrodes the stomach and does more harm than good.

NUXATED IRON

to the rise of ground where young Roosevelt fell in aerial combat with the Germans in July of 1918. But two or three times a week the old lady hobbles down the road with a handful of fresh flowers, throws away the old ones, brushes away the dirt that may have blown against the wooden cross at the head of the grave, bows her head in prayer and turns back to her home.

SPOT WHERE ROOSEVELT FELL

The stone marker planted by the 3522 engineers lies a few yards northeast of the grave on the exact spot where Roosevelt fell. It was badly damaged by the wheel of a heavy wheat wagon which ran across its face in the darkness, and, being of very soft stone, can certainly not withstand the weathering elements but a few years. Unless something is done in the meanwhile to erect a permanent memorial, nothing will remain to mark the spot where Colonel Roosevelt's youngest son died.

Men Get Employment In the Mills as Rains Halt Road Repairs

Marshfield, Nov. 11.—The heavy rains have practically closed down road work in most parts of the county. Several hundred men have been employed on the roads and will be thrown out of work, but will find employment in the mills, relieving the shortage of labor. Some of the work on the road below the Oxford, in Curry county, can continue through the rainy season.
