

CIVILIAN WELCOME GIVEN RETURNED OVERSEAS OFFICER

Lieutenant Colonel George A. White Greeted by Friends at Chamber of Commerce Lunch, WAS ON PERSHING'S STAFF Spent Some Time in Washington to Do Preliminary Work for the American Legion.

Made welcome on Tuesday by military associates of war days and those who were active with him as adjutant general of Oregon, Lieutenant Colonel George A. White need have had no imagination to make sure that a warm place in the circle of friendship awaits his return to civilian pursuits after many months overseas as a member of General Pershing's staff.

As a guest of William Reid, familiarly known as "father of the Third Oregon," Colonel White was greeted by a number of his military friends at luncheon at the Chamber of Commerce. The hand of fellowship was extended by the leading men of military rank in the Portland district, including Major W. E. Finzer, who was succeeded in the office of adjutant general by Colonel White.

RECEPTION IS HEARTY Felicitations to the returned soldier, who achieved considerable note overseas not only for his military position on the general staff, but for his very active part in launching the organization of the American Legion, through the initial meeting at Paris, took the form of fervent wishes for his early return to duty as adjutant general, from which office he was granted leave of absence to enter active war time service.

Reid, as host at the luncheon, welcomed Colonel White in a brief talk and struck a responsive chord when he asked that Colonel White resume his state military position as soon as possible. Colonel H. C. Cabell, formerly in the United States army, acted as toastmaster.

Guests ARE NAMED Among other officers who were guests of Reid were: Colonel Cavanaugh, Colonel William Slattery, Major F. T. Tingley, Colonel C. E. Dentler, Colonel Phisterer, Colonel Fred C. Hammond, Colonel W. C. North, O. N. G., Lieutenant Colonel R. C. Yenney, Lieutenant Colonel Sloan, Lieutenant Colonel J. J. Crossley, Lieutenant Colonel M. B. Marcellus, Lieutenant Colonel W. E. Finzer, Major Dow V. Walker, Major E. D. Wilson, Major W. S. Skene, Major W. A. Logan, R. G. Callvert, Major Drake, O. N. G., Major Simmons, Captain E. J. Kivers, Captain H. C. Parsons, Captain Alexander, Lieutenant Harry M. Grayson, Lieutenant P. G. Brown, Lieutenant H. W. Green and Lieutenant R. G. Reddick.

City Will Provide Coin for Dredging Willamette River

The Willamette river will be dredged to a depth of 35 feet for a width of 500 feet, providing Colonel J. R. Slattery, government engineer in this district, recommends and congress makes an appropriation for a similar channel in the Columbia river from the confluence of the Willamette to the sea.

This guarantee was made Wednesday morning in a resolution passed by the port of Portland at a special meeting. The resolution affirms that the port of Portland will maintain the Willamette river channel to the same depth and width the government decides upon for the Columbia.

Work on the Willamette will be done entirely at the expense of the port of Portland. In addition the commission guarantees to supply and pay the expense of operation of two dredges to help the government maintain the Columbia river channel.

Local cooperation with the government is what this plan may be called," says Superintendent Doyle of the port commission. "It is also a guarantee that Portland is willing to do its share if the government will make an appropriation for the Columbia river work."

The resolution was forwarded to Colonel Slattery this afternoon. Drafting of the document came as a result of a visit from Colonel Slattery, who desired to know to what extent the port commission would assist in dredging and maintaining a deeper and wider channel.

Colonel Slattery is completing his report which will be forwarded to Washington soon.

British Workers to Help Manage Roads; Is Government Plan

London, Nov. 19.—(U. P.)—The railwaymen's union has accepted the government's proposal giving the union a share of the management of the roads. The proposal, announced recently by J. H. Thomas, head of the union, as having been made to him by Premier Lloyd George, provides for a joint board of government and the unions. Disputes are to be referred to a similar joint board.

Three Auto Bandits Are Captured After Long, Exciting Race

Pendleton, Nov. 19.—A four-mile chase over unimproved farm roads and through stubblefields, resulted Tuesday in the capture of Joe Martin, alleged to have stolen a touring car in Salt Lake City; October 29, J. E. Elkins, an automobile dealer, and R. Raymond, whose auto Elkins commandeered for the chase, caught Martin, almost exhausted from his run in the stubblefield.

His alleged accomplices, J. J. Dale and Jim Young, together with the stolen car, are held by local officials. Dale, the youngest of the trio, is alleged by police to have confessed to several crimes committed by them here. They stripped the G. B. Wyrick auto of a spare wheel, tire, the magnets and battery, Sunday night, broke into a grocery and stole cigars and money, and into a garage and stole two gallons of oil, Dale told.

The foot was found in the car they are alleged to have stolen. The trio aroused suspicion when the stolen battery was offered for sale to Elkins. As he gave Dale a check, Police Chief Roberts arrested Dale. Martin made his getaway when he saw the officer. Young and Martin are in the county jail, held for investigation, while Dale is at the police station.

Court Will Decide Who Pays Gas Bills For Commissioners

The question of the use of funds to supply gasoline for the private automobiles of the commissioners will come up before Circuit Judge Percy Kelly of Albany, sitting in Portland, at 1:30 this afternoon, in the suit brought by John W. Kaste against the Multnomah county commissioners to enjoin payment from county funds of their gasoline bills. As a disinterested outsider, Judge Kelly was appointed by the supreme court to hear the case, local judges not being contenders for the honor.

Cuticura Heals Baby Sister Of Severe Breaking Out On Face and Head.

"My baby sister had a severe breaking out on her face and head. It started with little pimples on her face and it kept spreading until it was all over her head. The pimples festered first, and then turned hard, and were in blotches. They itched and also were cross and irritable. Then I sent for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. We bought more, and in two weeks she was healed." (Signed) Miss Thelma Blanton, Brooks, Oregon, Mar. 19, 1919.
