Magazine Types Discussed by Club

Scarcity of Good Poetry Lamented by One Critic; Trend of Fiction Considered.

THE modern magazine, its contents and its trend, was the general subject for consideration at the meeting of the current literature department of the Portland Women's club held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. B. Simmons, the assisting hostesses being Mrs. J. C. Kanelle and Mrs. F. G. Austin. The program was in charge of Mrs. Helen Ekin Starrett, who gave an interesting talk on types of magazines fitted to the needs of people of varying tastes and interests, interspersing her talk with the reading of excerpts and with personal comments and reminiscences, which brought out a general discussion of the trend of fiction found not only in magazine stories, but in the popular novel.

Mrs. Starrett deplored greatly that the sordid side of life dominates so generally the writings of contemporary authors. Many interesting thought on writings on psychic subjects were expressed and in closing Mrs. Starrett pointed out the dearth of really good poetry found today between the covers of even the best magazines.

Minstrel Show Planned
Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Nov. 21 - Minstrel work is being contemplated by the college faculty, staff members having given two shows in the past. A committee composed of A. G. Bouquet and A. L. Peck of the horticultural department and Dr. D. V. Poling of the Y. M. C. A. has been appointed to investigate the talent and advisability of such a show. The performance held two years ago netted $687.26 to the student loan fund.

Dandruff Heads Become Hairless
If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't. It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails. - Adv.
