

PASTOR ADVOCATES ADVERTISING PLAN TO BOOST CHURCH

Publicity Termed Attendance Builder for Both Sunday School and Pulpit Aims.

JOURNAL CONTEST GRIPS

United Brethren Minister Sees Good Chance of His Sunday School Winning First Prize.

"I strongly believe in advertising and publicity. Every church Sunday school should use it in its work. It is an attendance builder for both. By entering The Journal's Sunday school contest, I see an opportunity for my church to become well advertised. I also believe that the Sunday school has an excellent chance of winning the first prize in the contest."

So declared Rev. C. H. Blanchard of the Fourth United Brethren church. This organization, of which Charles Guthrie is Sunday school superintendent, officially entered The Journal's Sunday school contest Thursday evening.

Pupils, with whom Rev. Blanchard has discussed the contest, have become very enthusiastic over it. They say that there is no reason why their Sunday school should not win the first prize of $500.

MORE ROOM NEEDED
The organization badly needs more room in which to take care of its rapid growth. Its officials intend to use any prize money they may win in obtaining more space in which to conduct the work of the school and church.

Eugene E. Bernstein, contest manager of The Journal, will explain the points of the contest to the Sunday school at the church, next Sunday morning. Election and appointments of campaign officers and their assistants will also be made.

There will be a meeting of the Victor's Friends (young men's class) in conjunction with the choir practice at the First United Brethren church, Friday night, when the club's president, W. H. Moore, will challenge the young ladies' class, the True Friends, headed by Miss Orlay Mayes. A race for Journal want ad receipts, from which the voting power of the contest is obtained.

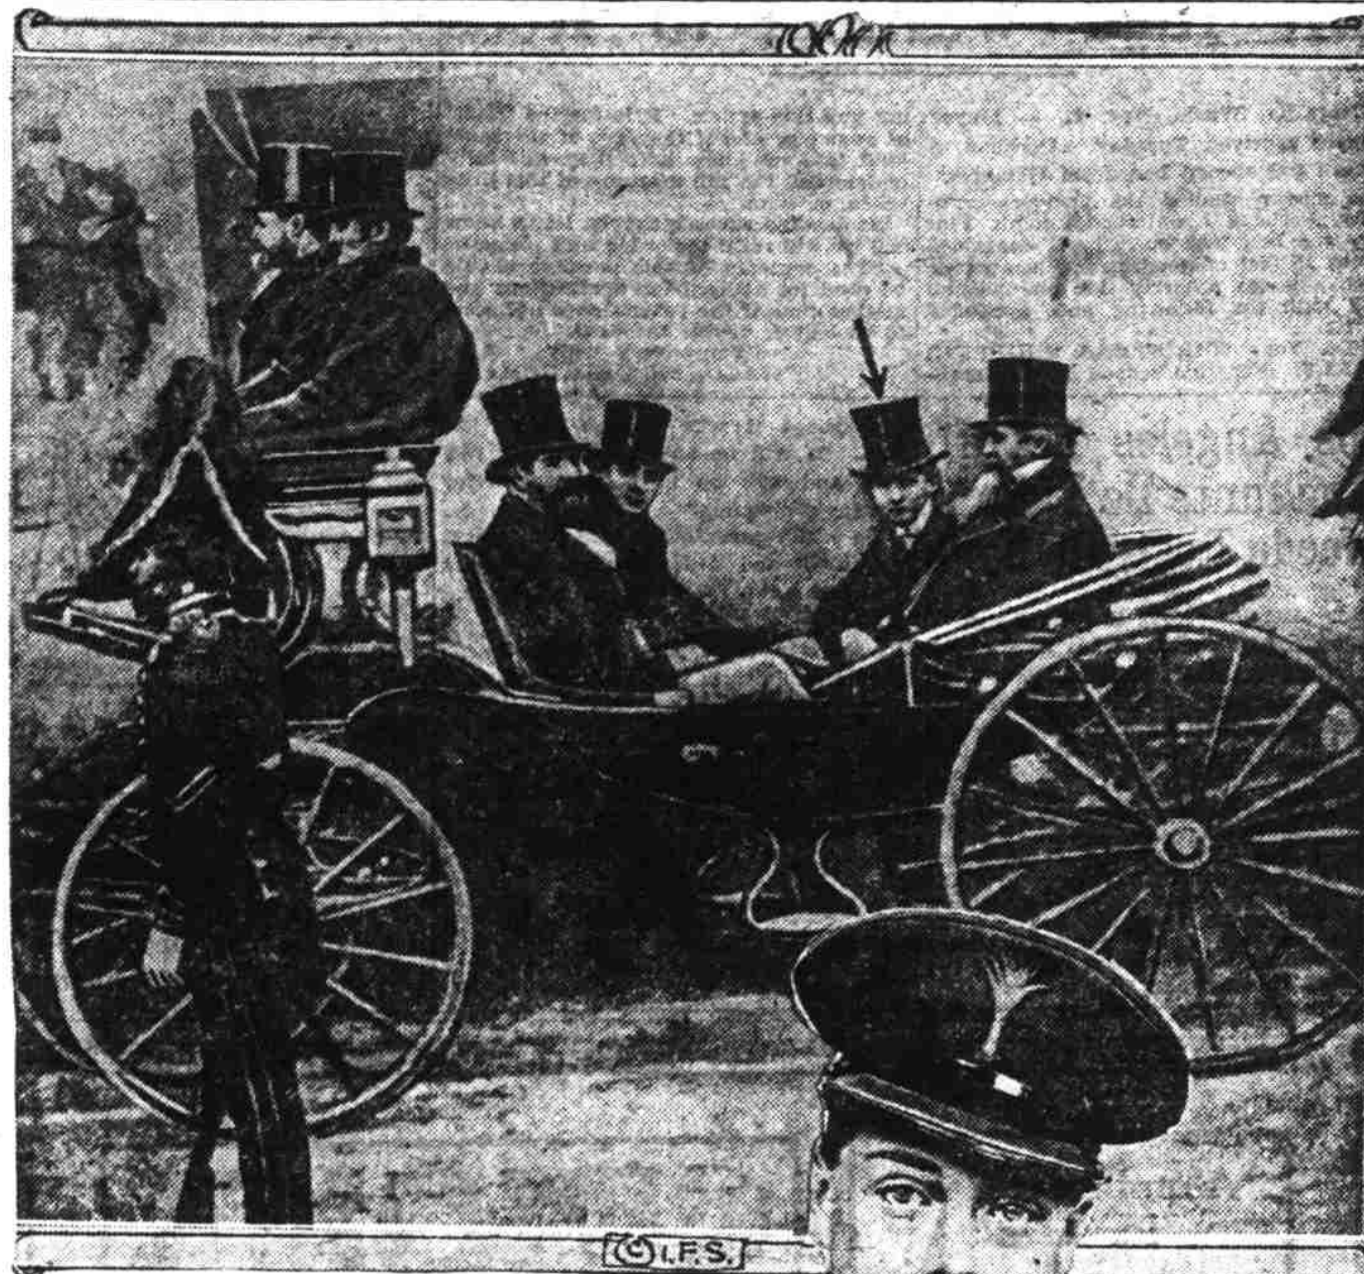

BANQUET IS PLANNED
It is the intention of George Henderson, campaign manager for the First United Brethren church, to celebrate the close of the competition with a banquet for both classes. The True Friends will hold a meeting next Monday night when they will thoroughly discuss the contest.

The campaign to obtain votes in The Journal's want ad contest will come to an end at 6 p. m. December 22. On Christmas day, The Journal will present three certified checks—$200, $150 and $50 respectively—to the three churches having the most votes to their credit.

Sunday schools wishing to enter the contest before the active campaign is under headway, phone Main 7172 or A-4051 and ask for the contest manager.

To Arrange Schedule
Philomath College, Philomath, Nov. 21.—Rev. D. J. Ferguson and Professor E. E. Kilpatrick will attend an athletic conference at Portland Saturday, at which the independent basketball schedule for the season will be arranged.

LAST TIME BRITISH HEIR VISITED NEW YORK

The upper photograph shows the last time a Prince of Wales saw New York, when the late King Edward, grandfather of the present prince, came in 1860. The photograph shows the Prince of Wales of that time riding in state in New York city for the greatest demonstration given for him here. Guardsmen marched in salute for the distinguished visitor; there was a torchlight parade, and his entire stay in this country was a round of brilliant entertainment. The prince was then 18. He is indicated sitting in the coach by arrow. Below is the present prince, photographed in Washington last week. He laughed with glee when shown a photograph taken during his grandfather's visit and asked if he was "supposed to wear a plug hat like grandfather's."

Young Bandits Rob Soft Drink Dispenser Of $35 and His Watch

Dispensing soft drinks is a paying profession—until three young men take away the day's receipts. Undoubtedly this theory impelled A. J. Wirtz of Oswego to complain to the police Thursday night after he had been held up and robbed right on his doorstep. He was closing the store for the night, he reported, when three young men, one carrying a gun, told him to "fork over." He did, to the extent of $35 and a gold watch.

Mrs. Pankhurst in Spokane
Spokane, Wash., Nov. 21.—(U. P.)—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, noted British suffragette, arrived here today from Billings, Mont., and is scheduled for a lecture Tuesday night. The Daughters of the British Empire are arranging a reception for her.

Once in about 10,000 times a girl really does get angry when a young man steals a kiss.

Two Suspected of Robbing Taxi Driver Arrested by Police

Held for investigation while police prove their connection with the assault November 9 of Lee Potter, Portland taxi driver, Harold Walsh of Chehalis and Jack Daley of Tacoma were brought to Portland Thursday night.

Potter picked up five men who said they wanted to go to Columbia beach. Instead, they bound and gagged him and ran his car to Centralia, all the while singing "wobbly" songs and expressing the opinion that "Armistice day will be a fine time to pull a job," according to Potter. At Centralia the taxi driver was dumped off into the road and the five fled in his car.

Connection of the alleged I. W. W.'s with the Centralia massacre will be investigated here.

College Delegates Are to Meet Next Week in Philomath

Philomath College, Philomath, Nov. 21.—The Oregon Association of Independent Colleges will meet in Philomath November 28-29. Among matters to be discussed will be a plan to place the claims of these colleges for support before the people of the state. Representatives will attend from McMinnville college, Willamette university, Pacific university, Pacific college, Albany college, Reed college, Eugene Bible university, and Philomath college.

Will Attend Conference
Philomath College, Philomath, Nov. 21.—Joel Beweman will represent the student body at the students' volunteer conference in Des Moines, and Rev. D. J. Ferguson will appear for the faculty. Arrangements are being made by the students for raising funds to pay Beweman's expenses.

Prof. Landsbury to Lecture
University of Oregon, Eugene, Nov. 21.—Dean John F. Landsbury of the school of music is chairman of the state committee on course of study for credit in school done by outside teachers. The report of the committee will soon be published by the department of education of the State of Oregon. He is going to give lectures at North Bend and Albany in the near future and has been invited to speak at La Grande and at the State Music Teachers' association meeting in December.

Man Inquires at Jail About Friend; Police Seize Him

Solitude for a friend landed Harry Singleman in jail Thursday night. He went to police headquarters to inquire about his friend. The police detained him on suspicion.

Joseph Cecci, one of the proprietors of the Basket Grocery, Alder street between Second and Third streets, reported that early in the evening two young men had bargained for two crabs. But instead of paying for the seafood the men bolted with the crabs, it is charged. Albert C. Lassen, 23, was apprehended and placed in jail. It was subsequent to the arrest that Singleman visited the city jail.

Dr. Eddy to Work At The Auditorium

Dr. Eddy, spiritualist, who makes a specialty of working in the light, will offer an exhibition of his abilities at The Auditorium Sunday night. It is said Dr. Eddy has been successful in Philadelphia and other cities in demonstrating his unusual powers. Slate writing, supernatural visions, floating tables and chairs is said to be a simple matter to his materialization and dematerialization of forms surrounded by a committee and with the lights at full height.

A Smooth, White Skin That Defies Weather

During the coming months of biting winds and intense cold, you who would keep your skins smooth, white and velvety, should turn your attention to mercocold wax. Nothing else will so effectively remove a chapped, roughened or discolored surface. By gradually absorbing the weather-beaten cuticle, the complexion is kept in perfect condition, and even the beauty of expression appears more pronounced.

If your skin be blotchy, pimply, freckled, coarse, sallow or over-red, why not shed it? One ounce of ordinary mercocold wax, to be had at any druggist's, will completely transform the most unsightly complexion in less than a fortnight. Use the wax nightly, like cold cream, washing it off mornings.—Adv.

NEW Overcoats to show you, boys

It begins to look as though every boy in Portland is to have a new overcoat this winter. It's quite a chore at this store to keep overcoats coming in as fast as they go out.

Bring daddy or mother and see the new coats that have arrived this week. Here in the store we think they're the smartest we've had.

—Boys' $13.50 to $30.
—Children's $8.50 to $25.

Not forgetting, of course, the suits!—belted models, mostly with two pairs of "knicks." They're priced from $10 up to $35.

SKOLNY COATS for girls and misses arrived only a few days ago—just in time for the cooler weather. These are smartly tailored mannish coats in tweed, cheviot and novelty weaves.

For the girl of 10 to the mademoiselle of 18.

—Priced $30 to $40.

—Second Floor.
