

FUGITIVE ELUDES POSSE IN WOODS

Ole Hanson Trailed but Search Proves Fruitless; Caches of Food Discovered.

Centralia, Wash., Nov. 20.—Ole Hanson, the missing desperado in the Armistice day murders, has not been located by the posse searching for him in the Rochester, Independence and Little Rock neighborhoods. The posse has found certain evidence that Hanson has two and perhaps three men with him, and food that had been cached at certain places for him has also been discovered.

Many trails and clues were followed by posse today but all were blind. Reports show Hanson's location is a complete mystery to the searchers, except for the signs of food left for him. Two American Legion deputies left last night for Salem, Or., to investigate the cases of Edward W. Coffey and Walter Larson, held there because of remarks they made about the Armistice day shooting here. The deputies will examine the men closely and if they can connect them in any way with the Centralia crime will bring them to Centralia.

Man Lures Woman Into Dark Street, Beats and Robs Her

Miss R. Montie, 25 years old, 142 North Sixth street, advertised for a position as a housekeeper, and Thursday evening a man rang her door bell and asked her to go to his mother's house. She boarded a streetcar and rode to Williams avenue and Holland street. There in the shadows the man beat the young woman with his fists, threw her to the sidewalk and robbed her of $50. When Miss Montie was found, an emergency call was sent to the police. They scoured the neighborhood but at last reports no trace had been found of the man. The injured woman was taken to St. Vincent's hospital. She was not unconscious, but had difficulty in speaking, and it was feared she might have a fractured skull.

Army Stores Soon to Cancel Mail Orders

Washington, Nov. 21.—(I. N. S.)—The quartermaster general of the army today issued orders to the 25 retail army stores throughout the country to take no further mail orders after December 10. This step was taken because of the crowded condition of the mails during the holiday period.

Dean Lawrence Returns

University of Oregon, Eugene, Nov. 21.—Dean Ellis F. Lawrence has just returned from a trip to New York to attend a meeting of the board of directors of the American Institute of Architects. He visited Columbia School of Architecture and also attended the meeting of the national committee on education.

PASTOR OF JUNIOR CHURCH IS SPEAKER

Miss Willia Caffray

Excellent attendance and interest in reported from the special "win my chum" meetings being held in Centenary Methodist church, East Ninth and Pine streets, each night this week. The meetings are under the direction of the Portland District Epworth league, Mrs. Della Milligan Miller, president. The main speaker is Miss Willia Caffray, pastor of the Junior church in the Methodist church at Wenatchee, Wash. A chorus choir made up of the singers from churches throughout the city is assisting. Miss Caffray is a graduate of the Chicago Methodist training school. Her talks are evangelistic. She is also conducting noon meetings in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium. The Methodist Minute Men of the city, Superintendent W. W. Youngson and local pastors are cooperating. The public are welcome at the services.

New Army Store for The Dalles Opened With Complete Stock

The Dalles, Nov. 21.—Thursday morning the first army store to be opened in this city formally threw its doors wide to the public and was patronized eagerly. Mayor J. P. Stadelman was instrumental in securing the store for the benefit of the citizens here. A. R. Roberts has been appointed sales manager and George Denke, an ex-service man, and Mrs. Mildred Bolton will assist. A large quantity of meat was sold the first few rush hours.

Order Instruments For University Band

University of Oregon, Eugene, Nov. 21.—Forty-eight band instruments have been ordered from Philadelphia. They will arrive here soon, for use in the University R. O. T. C. band. Captain Blair of the R. O. T. C. has appointed Lee Down of Eugene drum major and acting sergeant. Herbert Hacker is assistant director and sergeant. Charles Allen of Eugene, A. W. Campbell of Heppner and Wayne Akers of Wasco were appointed sergeants in the band.

RUSSIAN PROBLEM NOW POISONING PEACE OF MIND, CLEMENCEAU SAYS

Peace Conference Has Created Confusion, Uncertainty and Anxiety, He Declares.

Paris, Nov. 21.—"The Russian problem is poisoning my peace of mind. It makes me look upon the future of France with the gravest misgiving."

These words, authoritatively credited to have been uttered by Premier Clemenceau to some intimate friends a few days ago, are symptomatic of the confusion, uncertainty and anxiety into which the peace conference has been thrown of late. If the stenographic reports of the daily meetings of the supreme council were published the man in the street would be astonished to discover that the diplomats delegated by the big powers to restore peace to Europe are spending valuable time discussing such trifling matters as the amount of indemnity to be granted to members of the allied commissions to be sent to Germany or the expeditionary of supplying the Polish or Czechoslovak armies with winter uniforms or even the advisability of submitting to the Greek delegates the examination of witnesses in the Smyrna trial, in expurgated rather than in its entirety.

While these details which any of the innumerable sub commissions could easily handle, are monopolizing the attention of the "Big Five" no thought whatever is apparently given to the fact that the utter powerlessness of the peace conference is shown more and more clearly every day in the Near East. There is no peace in Turkey, nor in Albania, nor in Montenegro, nor in the Adriatic, nor at Fiume. Rumania has not yet signed the treaty of Saint Germain and Yugo-Slavia is still considering whether she will sign it at all. It is the Russian problem which is worrying the peace conference most of all, because the treaty of Versailles is proving altogether powerless to deal with the situation. The ancient imperial regime, which, as a huge, solid mountain structure, has been given away, leaving nothing but shifting sands in its place. And the rebound of this cataclysm is shaking the Western system to its foundation.

Injunction Is Asked To Keep Power Firm From Klamath Falls

Klamath Falls, Nov. 21.—Seeking to keep out of Klamath Falls the Keno Power company, a competing corporation, the California-Oregon Power company has filed a petition in the circuit court asking for an injunction. The plaintiff alleges that when the public accepted control of public utilities it also accepted the responsibility of guarding the investment of these utilities. It further alleges that it is providing ample service for the community.

Gives Illustrated Lecture

University of Oregon, Eugene, Nov. 21.—An illustrated lecture by Dr. F. B. Jewett on "Wireless Control of Aeroplane and the Detection of Submarines" was given here Thursday evening.

Large Number of Voters Must Now Register to Ballot

One need not stand in line to register so as to vote in the next election. Crowds are not besieging the registration bureau at the Multnomah county courthouse, although tens of thousands of Portland citizens have been stricken from the books because of failure to vote at the last two elections.

While battles have been fought for the right to vote, the privilege of casting the ballot has been neglected, according to County Clerk Joseph Beveridge. Nearly 100,000 persons were entitled to vote at the last election. More than 40,000 have forfeited their privilege and must register again. Only 20 to 25 people are registering each day at the present time, when the normal registration would exceed 800 a day, according to Beveridge. The books will be closed about April 1, 1920, 30 days preceding the next election.

Officers Elected For Muddy Creek Red Cross Branch

Baker, Nov. 21.—At a Red Cross meeting held at Shadow Lawn farm Frank Loening was reelected president. Mrs. J. K. Fisher was reelected vice chairman and Asa L. Brown was elected secretary-treasurer of the Muddy Creek Red Cross auxiliary chapter, which has reported 218 members secured during the present drive. The Muddy Creek Parent-Teachers' association has been reorganized, with Mrs. H. Pervine Fisher, president; Miss Sophia Sturgis, vice president; Miss Adele Powell, secretary-treasurer and Professor E. A. Butler, sergeant at arms.

Still Hits the Mark

Baker, Nov. 21.—L. L. Holcomb, aged 74 years, has brought Baker a target in support of his marksmanship record that he challenges any man of his age to equal. Three shots at 30 yards distance with a .22-caliber rifle punctured the bullseye within one small fraction of an inch of each other. Holcomb says that he was not wearing glasses when he made the record. He is a pioneer of Eagle valley and former Indian fighter.

Chadd Funeral Today

Baker, Nov. 21.—The funeral of J. S. Chadd, Virtue Flat rancher who died in the local hospital Wednesday, was held this morning at 10 o'clock. Besides his wife, two sons, Hobart and Elmo, and an infant daughter survive. Mr. Chadd had been a resident of Baker county 27 years. He was born in Iowa in 1852. Interment will be in the Pine Creek cemetery, near Halfway.

Part of Street Is Without Any Light; City Money Short

Lack of funds in the city treasury will prevent the municipality from maintaining and furnishing power for cluster lights on Grand avenue from Division street north to East Broadway, as requested in a letter sent to the council by L. M. Lepper, secretary of the East Side Business Men's club. Commissioner Bigelow stated that the $10,000 appropriated for next year's street lighting would be used entirely by the need of arc lights in districts. The East Side Business Men's club offered to follow the example of Seattle in erecting in the poles for the city to maintain and furnish the "glow" low points out that this would be impossible, in that residents on East Morrison, East Burnside and other streets would be entitled to the same privileges.

Milk, and Not Wine, Is Used to Christen Walk at University

Willamette University, Salem, Nov. 21.—The longest concrete walk ever presented to Willamette university by any university organization was presented by the freshman class. The dedication ceremony was held upon the walk itself and the speech of presentation was made by Verne Ferguson of Bremerton, president of the class. Immediately after his speech the walk was christened by Miss Marjorie Fiegel of Portland, vice president of the class, who, acting as sponsor, broke a bottle of milk upon the newly-laid concrete. Dr. B. L. Steeves, president of the board of trustees of the university, accepted the walk in behalf of that body and thanked the class for their present. The walk, which is over 100 yards long, replaces a wooden walk and was laid at a cost of over $150, paid entirely by the freshmen. The work was done by the freshmen boys.

Pendleton to Have Meeting of Sunday Schools Nov. 29

Pendleton, Nov. 21.—November 29 and 30 have been set for dates of the annual county Sunday school convention in Pendleton. Harold Humber, secretary of the State Sunday School association and Rev. M. E. Bollen, pastor of the First Baptist church of Walla Walla, are out-of-town speakers for the convention.

Elks Memorial to Be Held

Pendleton, Nov. 21.—Walter H. Evans, Multnomah county district attorney, has accepted the invitation of Pendleton lodge No. 288, B. P. O. E., to deliver the memorial address at the annual memorial services here on Sunday, December 7. A program of musical numbers is now being arranged.

Bend Doctor Sued By Former Patient

Bend, Nov. 21.—John Payne has sued D. C. L. Coulson, a prominent Bend physician, for $10,000, for alleged improper treatment for a broken femur and wrist last March. Payne alleges that his wrist has been made permanently stiff and the injured leg shorter, compelling him to work at unskilled labor.

Trapper Cuts Arm Badly

John Day, Nov. 21.—Ed Scelley, a trapper of this place, while climbing through the brush with a hunting knife in his hand, slipped and fell, running the knife through his forearm. He was brought to John Day for treatment, suffering greatly from loss of blood.

Hangman's Rope Presented Gift Real Warning to Reds

Centralia, Wash., Nov. 21.—Mayor Rogers received Tuesday afternoon a square pasteboard box from Oklahoma. The mayor studied the package carefully. Perhaps it contained a bomb. Finally the box was opened. It contained about 15 feet of good strong hemp rope with a noose properly tied on one end and with the following note appended to it: "Do Your CHRISTMAS SHOPPING EARLY. For this reason we are mailing you this article. It is for the 'Reds' of your city and if they are of the same kind that we know here they will fully understand the full meaning of this little token of ours. 'If demand exceeds supply, let us know and we will refill the order with pleasure. 'The contents of this package should be good for at least ten applications and at that time if the patient does not seem to be better, double the dose. 'Yours very truly, 'WAGONER, OKLAHOMA."

Los Angeles Rebuff Undaunts De Valera; Needs Rest, He Says

Los Angeles, Nov. 21.—(I. N. S.)—Undaunted by the fact that he was not permitted to speak at the Shrine auditorium last night and with arrangements completed for him to address a big public meeting here at Washington park, Sunday afternoon, Eamon De Valera, president of the Irish republic, left Los Angeles today by automobile for San Diego.

S. F. Chamber Called "Capital Radicals"

San Francisco, Nov. 21.—(I. N. S.)—The Riggers and Stevedores' union, now out on strike, thereby tying up the San Francisco waterfront, today charged that the local Chamber of Commerce and the Waterfront Employers' union are capital radicals and that their actions are serving to attract I. W. W. forces to this city. The strikers' union also announced today that they were willing to work for union wages for waterfront merchants but that the employers' union refused to permit the merchants on the docks. The Chamber of Commerce it turned charged that the Riggers and Stevedores' union was an anarchistic and revolutionary organization.
