PORTLAND, OREGON, SUNDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 23, 1919.

Portland and vicinity—Sunday, fair; gentle winds, mostly easterly.

Oregon—Sunday, fair; gentle winds, mostly easterly.

Washington-Sunday, fair, except rain near the coast; increasing southerly

PRICE FIVE CENTS

BANDIT CONFESSES, IMPLICATING TWO OTHERS; BANDIT CAPTORS TO DIVIDE REWARD OF $18,500; 60,000 ENTER GATES AT LIVESTOCK EXPOSITION

EXPECTATION For Bandit Haul

VOL. XVII. NO 36.

General Manager Plummer Estmates Attendance by Closing Time Today 60,000 Persons.

Too Small; Plans Made to In-

seen the ninth Pacific International

Even before the present show opened last Sunday, it was known that the great building, covering 71/2 acres, was too small to take care of all exhibits. But that the seating capacity in the Wednesday night.

ctations." Plummer declared Saturday "In money brought into the box office, in number of specators and ex and in diversity of exhibits our plans were overshadowed."

Unit construction of the big payillon will easily enable necessary alterations e known just how large to make the afternoon. building to hold 1920 exhibits

LOADING CARS TO BEGIN The pavilion need not be idle until Baker in a wire. the tenth annual exposition, according to Plummer. It is available for the

Billy Sunday or anyone else. Early this morning loading of cars with livestock for Montana, Nebraska, Minnesota, California, Idaho, Washington, British Columbia and Oregon points

(Concluded on Page Eleven, Column Two)

Tackaberry and KEEP TREATY Phillips May Get AWAY BEYOND $18,000 Reward QUESTION OUT

CITY EDITION

Effort Will Be Made to Have Pension Board Waive Rule in Favor of Two Inspectors.

Eighteen thousand dollars in rewards posted for the apprehension of the slayers of Jasper N. Burgess, George E. Perringer, wealthy Umacounty rancher, will be dicrease Arena Seating Capacity, vided between Police Inspectors Tackaberry and Phillips if the pension board of the police department ceptance of rewards.

Police Lee V. Jenkins Saturday night following the capture of the Claremont tavern robbers, the confession of one as Chief Jenkins and Umatilla county berry and declared that he would be followed by every man who participated wards shall not be accepted by members to have the senate Republicans follow of the department. Mayor Baker, Chief his. into the last ditch to prevent Jenkins and brother police officers will compromise. insist, they declare, that this rule be As soon as he was assured of this he set aside in the present case.

As soon as he was assured of this he gave his now famous interview declar-a meeting of Pendletonites Saturday list and private subscriptions made up which threatens to split the Republican the total, Mayor Vaughn advised Mayor party. Lodge is showing traits of pet-products and manufacturing exposition, of Pendleton. A $5000 reward offered ervations into the campaign with him by W. L. Thompson of Portland and self as "great I am."

Pendleton people swelled the total to Even-minded men are disposed to be $7000 before Simon Benson announced a lieve that the basis of the compromise $3000 reward in behalf of the highway will be found between 44 Democrats who commission. Governor Olcott offered voted to ratify with the Hitchcock resbegan. It will take 14 hours to clear $1000 on behalf of the state and the $7000 ervations, and 35 Republicans who voted raised in Pendleton brought the sum to to ratify with the Hitchcock resolutions,

Conflict of Interests At Paris Conference Rages About Wilson

American Executive Swamped With Work That Demanded Most Painstaking Effort if Justice Was to Be Done

All Dis putants.

By Ray Stannard Baker

(Copyright, 1919, by United States Feature Syndicate.) OF ALL the important decisions at the peace conference, none worried the president as much as those relating to Chinese-Japanese relationships and of the Shantung peninsula-and none, finally, satisfied him less. Not one of the problems he had to meet at Paris, Tavern Bandit Confesses Section 1, Page 1. serious as they all were, did he take more personally to heart than this. He told me on one occasion that Reckless Driving Blamed-Section 1, Page 15. he had been unable to sleep on the previous night for thinking of it.

Those last days before the treaty was finished in late National Guard Complete—Section 3, Page 5. April were among the hardest of the entire conference. Clackamas to Vote-Section 1, Page 9. How the president bore up under the continual strain Land Lease Draws Protest-Section 1, Page 12 of his task at this time, with all the other demands upon him incident to his great position, was truly a mystery. Sometimes Real Estate and Development—Section 3, Pages when I went up to see him in the evening he looked utterly beaten, worn out, but the next morning he would appear refreshed and eager to go on Finance-Section 3. Page 14. with the fight. I fancied sometimes that he had discovered the mysterious formula for unlocking the hidden inner energies about which Professor William James wrote so persuasively in his essay on the "Energies of had no social life at all, no recreation, Mrs. Wilson's sitting room was opposcarcely any exercise. Sometimes in the site the president's study, with a small evening I used to find him in the study reception room between, and her sunny watchfully guarded!

In these days, although he occupied the very center of the world's great stage, with the eyes of all huactual business of the conference. He case filled with books.

IN THE PRESIDENT'S STUDY

ing place. The French owner of the son comported herself with fine dignity house had been an art lover and there and with genuine simplicity and grahung in this room a number of rare old clousness of manner.
pictures: an interesting Rembrandt, a NO TIME FOR EXERCISE Delacroix, a Hobbema, several Goyas. I wondered sometimes what Rembrandt would have made of "A Sitting of the during this last hard spurt in April, for "our" if he had been there to paint it!

manity watching every move he made, of the room and open and go through Women's Club Affairs-Section 4, Page 2. listening for every word he said, he what appeared to be a solid, well-filled Fraternal-Section 4, Page 9. lived almost the life of an anchorite. For bookcase into a passageway leading to slays, in late April, he saw almost no- his bedroom beyond. It was a concealed Realm of Music-Section 5, Pages 6-7. body not intimately connected with the door cunnnigly painted to look like a

of his house; a dark, richly furnished window opened also on the little grassy room looking out upon a little patch of court, and above the wall, across the walled garden with an American sentinel street, one could look into the upper winpacing up and down the passage way, dows of the house occupied by Lloyd A prisoner could not have been more George. Some day there will be written an account of the incalculable help and comfort that Mrs. Wilson was to the But the prison cell itself was a charm-difficult situation in Europe Mrs. Wilpresident in these trying days. In every

The president got almost no exercise

This is Trend of Political Wiseacres Despite Lodge's Stand That Pact Be Republican Issue

Vast Exhibition Space Is Found state highway commissioner, and Signs Are Apparent That Some of Senator's Colleagues Fear His Plan 'Will Cause Split.

> INGTON BUREAU OF THE JOUR-NAL.)-Opinion is strongly inclined

Lodge's declaration has pleased few of irreconcilables. Republicans officers, shared in the glory of the cap- moderates still declare they want the ture. But Jenkins awards credit for treaty ratified as quickly as possible, early next year.

On the other hand, Lodge's political plan has provided new revelation of in refusing absolutely to accept a cent his purpose during the late session of the reward that should go to the two which many had not before perceived. The pension board, composed of police reservations labeled with his name and department men, has a rule that re- he finally achieved success in an effort

Seven thousand dollars was added ing that unless the Democrats accepted to the $11,000 previously raised at the things the Democrats accepted the $11,000 previously raised, at his program the treaty was dead, meeting of Peudletonites Saturday. There are signs that some of his There are signs that ulance of old age, and is scornful to Saturday morning the city of Port- ward those who advise greater caution land offered a reward of $1900, followed He represents only a fraction of his automobile show, the apple show, land by a similar offer by J. M. Keeney associates in desiring to carry his res-> even though Lodge himself joins the irreconcilables where his uncompromising attitude indicates he naturally will go in the end.

Hitchcock's declaration today that reservations are inevitable is in line with the trend of Democratic sentiment to accept reasonable reservations, such as were offered in closing days of the late session, but became impossible because of political arrangements Lodge had made to force acceptance of his program

News Index

Today's Sunday Journal is Complete in 8 Sections Section 2, Page 4.

Foreign
Murder of Czar Proved—Section 1, Page 8. Art Exhibit in Paris-Section 2, Page 2.

Nationa Treaty and Politics-Section 1, Page 1. Coal Operators Object-Section 1, Page 4.

Vegetables in Alaska-Section 3, Page 5. Prince of Wales Starts for Home-Section 1

Portland Detectives to Get Reward-Section 1, Page 1 Stock Show Big Success-Section 1, Page 1.

Northwest Samuel Young, Pioneer, Dead-Section 3.

83,000 Autos Registered-Section 1, Page 12.

Markets-Section 3, Page 15. Marine-Section 3, Page 16.

Section 3, Pages 6-9 Automotive

Drama and Photoplay-Section 5, Pages 1-4. Ring Lardner's Letter-Section 5, Page 8. For Boys and Girls-Section 5, Page 8. For the Gardener-Section 5, Page 8. Christian Science Lecture-Section 5, Page

Page 7. Thanksgiving-Section 7, Page 1. Elinor's Indiscretion-Section 7, Page 2. Mystery of Stateroom 480—Section 7, Page 3. Big Hips and Tight Waists—Section 7, Page 4.

Brainy Men and Frivolous Wives Section Page 5. The Absolute Eye-Section 7, Page 6.

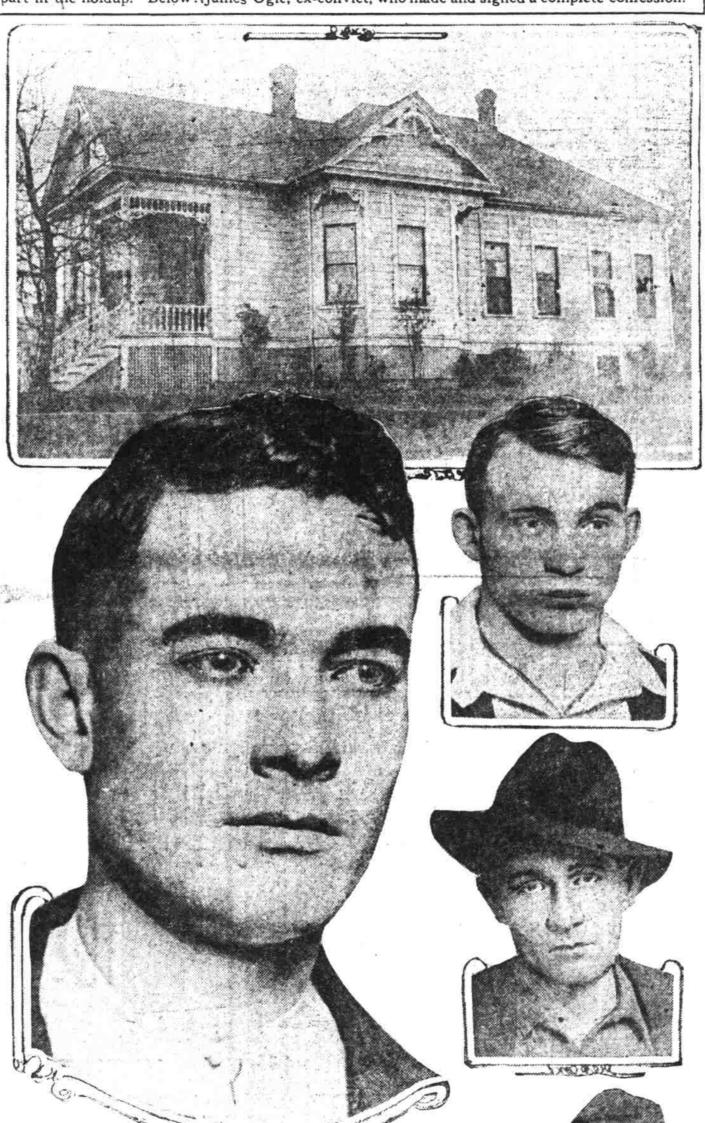

The Life of Henry Adams, a Review-Section

The Lease Breakers-Section 7, Page 6, Health, Beauty and the Home Section 7, Page 7

Section 8, Pages 1-4.

FOUR IMPLICATED BY OGLE CONFESSION

MEN who are accused of taking part'in robbery of Claremont tavern and murder of J. N. Burgess and G. E. Perringer in sensational midnight holdup Friday. Above: House at Emerson and Gay streets in the Peninsula district, where crime was planned, from which the thieves are said to have started and in which they sought refuge. Below at left: David Smith, identified as bandit who killed Burgess and Perringer. Center, right, above: Walter Harbert, ex-convict, alias "Dutch" Herman, alias Walter Banaster. Center, right, below: R. A. (Harry) Travers, alleged bootlegger, said to be implicated but to have had no active part in the holdup. Below: James Ogle, ex-convict, who made and signed a complete confession.

OLE HANSON, RED, PERRINGER WORTH ABOVE $500,000 REPORTED AT BAY

Word Radical Is Said to Be Cornered Near Bordeaux.

Centralia, Wash., Nov. 22.-Bringcompany, near Bordeaux, in response Fee, long a personal friend. to a challenge from a group of I. W. He could estiamte more closely and returned to Centralia tonight.

morning and reached Bordeaux about section, the judge said today. 7:30, closing in on all of the camps of "Perringer was the first to discover Posse From Centralia Brings Back Judge James A. Fee Says Rancher Slain by Bandits Best of Farmers of Umatilla.

Pendleton, Nov. 22 .- George Pering six "Wobblies" and the report ringer, murdered Friday night by that another part of the posse had Portland bandits, was, without doubt, Ole Hanson cornered near Bordeaux, the most skillful, scientific wheat the other members of the big posse farmer in Umatilla county, if not which started out this morning for one of the best in the Northwest, in the camps of the Mason Logging the estimation of Judge James A.

W. members to "come and get us," accurately the value of a piece of wheat land, the cost of its operation and its The posse left here at 6 o'clock this probable yield than any farmer in this the company at the same time. The the value of deep plowing and the true taken by thieves with an auto truck be- careless pedestrian to jump into their and a child is the result of parental party which returned was the one possibilities of the county's lands," party which returned was the one possibilities of the county's lands," tween 1 and 2 a. m. Henry Johnson path from behind an automobile, street-which swept through Camp 4. Three Judge Fee said. "He was one of the was awakened when his little girl cried. car or woodpile. An educational cammen found with I. W. W. cards and most progressive farmers and was alliterature were brought in and will be ways first to add new equipment or their onion house. This morning the they are compened by the exigencies of In a trip the writer took to the scene grilled tonight in an effort to learn take up new methods or operation. Many onloss were missing. They were valued safety, to not only have complete con-A Trio of Dance Dresses By Lady Duff Gor. literature were brought in and will be ways first to add new equipment or what connection or knowledge if any of the successful wheatgrowers of the at $100. Last week two men from Port- trol of their own machine, but to anti- son lost his life Friday, the ignorance

> (Concluded on Page Thirteen, Column Two) (Concluded on Page Two, Column Four)

Thieves With Truck

& Sons, onion growers, living two miles out from behind a streetcar. Many north of here near Cedar Mills, lost 40 approach car tracks without a thought crates of choice onlons Friday night, of cars, and they do not look for a land with a truck sought to buy some of cipate the mistakes of other drivers and the onions. the onions.

POSITIVELY IDENTIFIED BY SLAIN MEN'S FRIENDS

E. P. Marshall Recognizes David Smith as Member of Gang Who Shot George Perringer and J. N. Burgess of Pendleton.

James Ogle, One of Prisoners, Confesses, Implicating Two Others Arrested in Sensational Raid by Police Saturday.

Positive identification of David Smith as the bandit who shot and killed Jasper N. Burgess and George E. Perringer while two conspirators were robbing 25 guests at Claremont tavern on the Linnton road Friday night. was offered late Saturday night by E. P. Marshall, companion of Burgess and Perringer, who escaped the bullets.

Marshall appeared in Chief of Police Jenkins' office with Pendleton friends of Burgess, state highway commissioner, and Perringer, Umatilla county rancher. He was taken to Smith's cell. As Smith peered between the bars Marshall exclaimed: "That's him! I'd know those eyes any-

Burgess, Perringer and Marshall were in a private dining room at Claremont with three women companions when Smith entered the door and commanded them to raise their hands. Marshall and the women complied. Burgess took the command as the tavern holdup Friday night was a joke and told the bandits to fire. Bur-found in the flush tank in the lavatory gess started to rise from the table at the Emerson street house by a powhen the first shot struck him at the lice inspector. The stone, valued at left side of the nose. Marshall told Chief $1650, had been taken from its gold and Jenkins. He collapsed on the table. An- platinum settings. Other jewelry stolen other shot, fired almost immediately. Friday night, as well as rings identified pierced Burgess' heart, although the as those worn by victims of the robber; first shot had probably killed him in- of the Idle Hour pool hall and several stantly. Perringer was behind the door guns and revolvers, together with sevto the room when Smith killed him, Mar- eral hundred dollars in bills and silver,

Six men are in jall as a result of a ONE ASSAILED GIRL spectacularly successful raid on the banlate Saturday afternoon.

who took an active part in the midnight robbery and murder, has signed a complete confession implicating Smith and Hour pool hall last week. "Dutch" Herman, alias Walter Banaster, alias Wallace Harbert, as his accomplices, and branding R. A. (Harry) Travers as a moonshine still operator. These four, with Frank Starr, an alleged accomplice, are held incommunicado at the city jall. Smith, Ogle and Herman are to be charged with murder. Travers will be held for federal authorities and, after the Saturday afternoon arrests. seized a double still at the bandit headquarters, which Ogie says was operated by Travers. Starr is held for investi-

HELD FOR INVESTIGATION The sixth man arrested is Vincent D. The sixth man arrested is Vincent D. He started to tell his story immedi-Murphy, aged 34, who is held for investiately after he was arrested in the same gation. He is the owner of the house room with Smith, Herman and Travers, at the corner of Emerson and Gay in where most of the robbers' loot was which the bandits were captured. Mur- recovered from dresser drawers, and phy is said to have harbored the bandit from the top of the dresser. crew in the same house with Travers, held at the county jail.

A two-karat diamond ring stolen from B. J. McCauley of Aberdeen, Wash., in were recovered.

The captured bandit trio is said to dit headquarters at 163 Emerson street, be the same that held up the Pledmont car barns recently, when they made away with $100 after shooting Patrol-James Ogie, former inmate of two peni- man Pratt in the arm. Jewelry recovtentiaries, and one of the three men ered indicates to the satisfaction of the police that Smith, Hermann and an acemplice also robbed patrons of the Idle > Inspectors Tackaberry and Phillips say "Dutch" Herman is the left-handed man who has been robbing women on the peninsula nightly in a cowardly fashion. Phillips declares the youthful bandit is the one who mishandled Miss Mabel Obleson in front of her home at 438 Going street last Sunday night, after robbing her of 1 oney and a ring. Herman is said to be the short lefthanded gunman.

> Ogle's complete confession was obtained and signed in the presence of Deputy District Attorney Richard Diech and inspectors of the police department.

"The jig's up!" shouted Inspector Bob the bootlegger, and Mrs. Murphy and Phillips, as he raised his hand inside his her 7-year-old son. His connection with overcoat pocket and leveled his gun on Travers' operations as a whiskey manu- Herman, Smith, Ogle and Travers. facturer will be investigated. He is "Stick your hands up and sit down on that bed! Be quick about it!"

Carelessness and Its Chief Aide, Ignorance, Cause Auto Accidents

Education, It Is Hoped, Will Reduce Number of Casualties in This City Just as Fire Prevention Campaign Has Cut Down Losses to One-Seventh of Amount They Were.

losses to one-seventh of the former total, means murder and a sound brake safety, an accident prevention campaign per-sistently applied in the school and homes trolling a machine may mean the savof Portland will eliminate the careless- ing of a life. And brakes are only one ness that in the last analysis, is re- part of the machine; the other parts sponsible for practically every smashup, must be flawless. People are driving cars who haven't The pedestrian must be taught that he the slightest conception of the destruc- cannot, with safety, cross the street at tive agency of a high-powered automobile. Its murderous possibilities are not sensed until it crashes savagely into another car or a pedestrian. Many oughfare, talk with friends in the center another car or a pedestrian. Steal Crated Onions another car or a pedestrian. Many oughfare, talk with friends in the center drivers do not realize that they must not of traffic or cross with an umbrella over only handle their own car but must anticipate the course of another automobile Beaverton, Nov. 22 .- Robert Johnson dashing into the intersection or darting He heard an auto truck starting up near paign would impress upon drivers that IGNORANCE IS STARTLING

Education will reduce the number of | Then there is the problem of educating automobile accidents in Portland. Just the driver to the necessity of having as the fire prevention campaign reduced faultless brakes, how a defective brake the eyes.

A campaign of education would impress parents with the folly of allowing children to play on traffic ridden streets. Many a collision between an automobile negligence in permitting children to play in the path of automobiles.

In a trip the writer took to the scene

(Concluded on Page Piftoen, Column One)