NAVY DEFEATS ARMY IN ANNUAL FOOTBALL GAME; U. S. GOVERNMENT SENDS NEW NOTE TO MEXICO; PORTLAND POLICE NAB 3 HIGHWAYMEN SUSPECTS

NEW MEXICAN CRISIS LOOMS FROM KILLING

Slaying of American Citizen Increases High Tension Existing Over Arrest of Consular Agent.

New Note Has Been Addressed to Mexican Authorities Regarding Release of W. O. Jenkins

Washington, Nov. 29.—(I. N. S.)—The American government today forwarded a communication to Mexico regarding the information contained in Carranza's reply to the note demanding the release of Consular Agent W. O. Jenkins.

The state department refused to discuss the contents of this note or to state to whom it was addressed, but it is understood to be the inquiry concerning the new charges made in the Mexican reply, namely, that Jenkins had signed contradictory statements regarding his kidnapping.

Washington, Nov. 29.—(I. N. S.)—The Mexican situation became more complex today as the state department began investigation of the latest outrage against an American citizen and continued its consideration of the Mexican government's refusal to meet the demands of the United States for the immediate release of William O. Jenkins, American consular agent.

Congressmen Begin To Assemble; Ready For Session Monday

Washington, Nov. 29.—(U. P.)—Congressmen began arriving here today for the regular session which convenes Monday. They came directly from their homes, having made Carlisle's visit there a possibility that strong action may be taken which will bring the entire Mexican question to a complete showdown.

THE MEXICAN SITUATION

Now that the Mexican situation has again come to the forefront of the news, involving the possibility that grave trouble will result between the United States and Mexico, The Journal, as is its custom, will try to limit its Mexican dispatches to those that are well authenticated. Such newspaper enterprise as was displayed in the Portland Telegram last evening in boldly proclaiming a reported revolution in Mexico City and the flight of Carranza is a hazardous pursuit during a critical period. The alarming intelligence carried by the Associated Press has since been officially denied.

Baker and Pershing and March See Their Idols Outclassed; Daniels Cheers His Middles.

By Henry L. Farrell Polo Grounds, New York, Nov. 29.—Midshipman Charles King of Idaho, right tackle on the Navy team, gave Uncle Sam's sea force a 6 to 0 victory over the Army in the renewal of their annual gridiron battle here this afternoon.

SOLDIERS OUTCLASSED

The score did not indicate the extent to which the Navy had the soldiers outclassed. The vaunted impregnable line of the Army was crushed to pieces before the eyes of Secretary Baker, General Pershing and March and other high ranking officers of the army.

ARMY TACKLE WINS CLASSIC FOR MIDDIES

Clark and Cruise, the two sterling Navy backs, had Secretary Daniels, Admiral Glennon, Admiral Sims and the navy brass on their feet time after time with brilliant runs and smashes through the West Point line. Responding to cries of "Fight like hell!" the Army tackle held of itself within its inner sanctum and by grim, desperate fighting hurled back the Navy charges when a slight gain would have meant a touchdown.
