vance of 2 cents in butterfat. It is 3 stated that some are quoting an additional 2 cents a pound for butterfat, but this price is competitive.

The anxiety of certain creamery interests with outside connections to advance the price of butter and butterfat at Portland and other Pacific Northwest concern which operates a branch here stands to make considerable money providing the figures on butterfat and cost of butter making are not misleading. For instance the last price reported for but-rfat delivered at Sait Lake, which is the

the local trade at this time. Some of the buy-were were offering 40c a pound for offerings but Ewes receivers were unwilling to do business.

Market for country killed calves is rather steady along the street with values from 21 % c to 22c a pound for top stuff. Hogs are not so firm because of the recent decline on livestock

Chicken market is holding practically un-anged. A mistake is shown in the quotation for heavy springs, the price being 23c a pound in atead of 28c as quoted. The mistake is due to a typographical error.

Christmas Trees Will Be Scarce; Prices to Rise

Chicago, Nov. 29 .- (U. P.) - The country faces a Christmas tree famine, according to John Hartman, Chicago's Christmas tree man. "The railroads may be unable to handle the trees because of the fuel situation," Hartman said.

"Then we are unable to get trees from the Northern Wisconsin and Michigan forests, where none but the scrubs are left. "Christmas trees this year will be at least 35 per cent higher than last year.
