LAUDER DELIGHTS

Famous Actor and His Kiltie held in cold storage last year, when receiving milk; in the Hawthorne school of 290 children, 100 were not receiving milk. by Club Men at Luncheon

Weaving a wreath of beautiful words from which he formed the fairest sentiments of his quaint, big philosophy, Sir Harry Lauder, first of all a Scotsman, entertained and edified a large and highly enthusiastic audience of Portland club men at noon Wednesday, when he was the guest of the Portland Rotary club at the Chamber of Commerce.

Lauder and his kiltie band made themselves welcome promptly after they were greeted by Mayor Baker and introduced by Charles E. Cochrane.

The homely sentiments Lauder wove into his speech produced many epigrams. Among the pertinent declarations he

"There is Bolshevism and all the other isms to beset us but the only ism that can thrive in America is Americanism. "Many neglect their own business by paying too much attention to the business of the other fellow. "There is something marvelously wrong with the system that gives the shirker and slacker the same rewards as the man who puts his whole energies GOD COMES FIRST

"The first thing we must grope for is God. If we start right there we'll be right all along the line, because God is Lauder recited brief parts of his life history, reviewing the 10 years he spent in coal mines as well as his active war work. He concluded the story with a reference to the sacrifices of all people and pointed to his own sacrifice through the loss of the son who was his "only bairn." He sang at this point a tenderly pathetic Lauder song that left the eyes of only the most stolld dry.

At luncheon were host members of the Rotary club, members of the Ad and Kiwanis club and the Chamber of Commerce. In the group were several men who knew Lauder in his youth. These included A. G. Findlay, royal chief of the Order of Scottish Clans, and A. G. Brown, both of Portland, who knew the present British lord as a coal mine worker in Scotland. FLOWERS AND "CAKE"

Lauder was presented with a Scotch "short" cake as he took his seat at the table. In addition, a great wreath of flowers was presented. Sir Harry is an members of the Glasgow (Scotland) Rotary club, and by reason of this association took occasion to laud the work of the organizatin.

There is a standing invitation to Portand folk to visit the Lauder estate, Glen Branter, Strachen on Lock Fife, but there is also the admonition that "all of you must not come at once; and at the end of the hike over Lauder's 14,000 acres of homeland there'll be a "wee drap of deoch an' doris" he promised. uder's comment on the League of Nations was an outspoken tribute to the possibilities of the present covenent which he concluded with a declaration that the league cannot fail and that whether it is accepted today or tomorrow it will ultimately be accepted by all
