ODDS AND ENDS IN THE NEWS OF TRAVELERS AND HOMEFOLK

Fred Sayles, clerk at the Multnomah, who was a captain in the days of the war, regaled his associates with tales in connection with several German shells which he picked up on the battlefield of Chemin des Dames, and which he is having made up into beautiful vases, lamps, umbrella holders, cigar stands and whatnot. The battlefield was fought over 18 different times, and Revised Edition Issued-A revised stacked in big piles, of which the souvenir hunter was privileged to take as many as he could carry. Wrapped about the shells were several French newspapers giving accounts of the victory parade and celebration in Paris last summer. To see this parade some ormation on Pacific coast industrial people paid as high as 100,000 francs. or $4000, for a single window, said Sayles. The French people-took great delight in destroying German guns, lifting them high into the air and dropping them. As the big instruments of destruction fell into a shapeless mass the people laughed and shouted with
