TWO, ACCUSED OF FRAUDULENT LAND DEALS, INDICTED

Department of Justice Says Pair Operated in Portland and That Wascoites Lost Their Money.

Land frauds involving several Wasco residents were revealed late Thursday when the department of justice received word that Carlos L. Byron had been arrested in Seattle on an indictment returned December 2 by the federal grand jury for the western district of Washington.

federal court here on May 6, 1918, and sentenced to serve 15 months in jall and pay a $1000 fine. The circuit court of appeals affirmed this sentence, but Byron asked the supreme court of the United States for review.

Byron, named in the indictment with Edward M. Comyns, has been operating in and around Portland for several months, according to Special Agent William Bryon of the department of justice. It is said that he maintained quarters at the Portland hotel, and left Portland for Seattle on the 11 p. m. train Wednesects in choosing lands, and for a consideration would file necessary applications, it is declared. In addition, they are said to have represented that they would act as witnesses in exposing the Hyde "fraudulent" scrip, manage the supposed contests, and obtain the land for the victims.

Wasco victims named in the indictment are Frederek R. Fortner, Roy C. Atwood, Walter A. May, Lloyd B. Robinson and Emil Anderson. They paid $500 each to the men indicted by the grand jury.

Declares Germans Ordered Sinking of Interned Vessels

London, Dec. 5. — (U. P.) — The admiralty has issued a statement denying the German government's claim it was not in communication with Admiral von Reuter at the time he sank the interned German fleet which he commanded at

The statement, issued by Commodore H. B. F. Sinclair, director of naval intelligence, gave extracts from letters which it is said were found aboard the German cruiser Emden when she was salvaged. The letters as quoted in the admiralty statement showed plainly that Von Reuter had received communications from his government.

Copies of Von Reuter's sinking order also were discovered on the Emden, the statement said.

Sugar Profiteers To Be Prosecuted; Control Abandoned

Washington, Dec. 5.—(I. N.
