

DRASTIC LAWS TO CURB MONGOLIANS IN U. S. ARE URGED

Farmers Would Have Stringent Immigration Regulation; Seek End and Bar to Holding Land.

The Dalles, Dec. 5.—A. R. Sumway of Milton was chosen president of the Oregon and Southern Idaho divisions of the Farmers' Educational and Cooperative Union of America at its final session here. J. A. Rimple of Dallas was elected vice president and F. A. Sikes of Corvallis was again elected secretary. Frank Burkholder of Coquille was chosen to represent the union at its national convention in 1920. Directors elected were: Frank Ingles, J. W. Harrah, Pendleton; H. B. David, Joseph; W. O. Parks, Elgin; C. J. Whitaker, Cambridge, Idaho. The legislative committee chairman is Barnett Y. Ross of Gaston.

The Dalles, Dec. 5.—Resolutions recommending stringent regulation of Mongolian immigration into the United States and cancelling and forbidding the holding of agricultural lands by Japanese and their posterity, urging the immediate passage by the senate of the covenant of the League of Nations, and condemning its opposition as not American, and advocating punishment for the selling of falsely named articles or at excess price over true worth, were passed Thursday at the final session of the Oregon and Southern Idaho sections of the Farmers' Educational and Cooperative union of America.

The two most important resolutions follow: Resolved, That Mongolian immigration into the United States or any of its possessions be prohibited by statute, and that the holding of real property by Japanese or any of their posterity be absolutely forbidden and cancelled by law; this to include ownership by Japanese in corporation or combination.

Resolved, That this organization is heartily in favor of the early ratification of the covenant of the League of Nations without amendment or reservations and that a copy of the resolution be sent to the senate of the United States and that we condemn all opposition to the passage of the League of Nations for political purposes, as unpatriotic and un-American in position. It was resolved that papers printed in this country either be entirely in English or have the translation in parallel paragraphs. The Non-Partisan league, as stoutly advocated in the opening speech by President J. D. Brown of the union, was given a body blow by the organization, which declared it would not affiliate with any outside organization, especially whose purposes were not known other than an organization of farmers.

PLANS ARE LAID TO KEEP POTATO KING FROM OREGON

Bend, Dec. 5.—Realizing that Central Oregon has on its horizon a Japanese problem in the negotiations now pending between George Shima, the potato king of Stockton, Cal., for the purchase of 18,900 acres of land northeast of Bend, the Deschutes county farm bureau, through its executive board, Wednesday passed a red hot resolution protesting against the acquisition of lands in Central Oregon and urging all American citizens who may now be engaged in the consummation of the transaction directly or indirectly with Shima, not only withdraw, but to do all in their power to discourage the invasion of Japanese in Central Oregon. It is generally known that several well known Deschutes county business men and farmers as well as one large Pacific coast real company is associated with Shima in the purchase of this large tract of land. The farmers will appeal to the commercial bodies of the county and State Chamber of Commerce to take action to thwart Japanese ownership and tenancy in Oregon.

The report will be filed by City Auditor Funk and will be placed on the regular calendar of business to come before the council December 10. Newell was appointed by the city council to determine whether or not the Portland Railway, Light & Power company was justified in asking for an increase in fares. The company has asked for "relief" and will be given a hearing before the public service commission some time this month, the exact date not having been set. Request Made to Extend Air Service to California, Washington, Idaho, Montana Forests.

"I had occasion to observe the work of airplanes in locating forest fires the past summer and, as a result of such observation, feel very strongly that the patrol should be continued in this state," Governor Olcott writes, in urging the executives of other states to use their influence in obtaining an extension of the patrol service. "If it can, as contemplated, be conducted in all Northwestern states, so much the better, and if all demand it there would seem to be good reason to believe the service will be furnished." Colonel H. H. Arnold of San Francisco, in charge of the air service for the western department United States army, has recommended to the war department that five observation squadrons of 18 planes each, with the necessary pilots and observers as well as canvas hangars, motor transportation, tentage for the officers and mechanics provided for patrol work in the six Northwestern and Pacific coast states during 1920.
